~~NAC 648.235 Corporations: Licensing without qualifying agent. (NRS 648.030)~~

- ~~— 1. The Board may grant a license to a corporation without a qualifying agent if the corporation:~~
- ~~— (a) Complies with all other statutory and regulatory prerequisites for the license;~~
 - ~~— (b) Agrees to file an application for a qualifying agent within 6 months after the date the Board approves the application; and~~
 - ~~— (c) Agrees not to engage in the occupation for which it is licensed until the application for a qualifying agent is approved by the Board.~~
- ~~— 2. If a corporation is granted a license pursuant to subsection 1 and fails to comply with any provision of subsection 1, the license is automatically forfeited and the Board will rescind its approval and reject the application.~~
- ~~— 3. If the Board rescinds its approval pursuant to this section, the Executive Director shall demand the return of the license, and the licensee shall return it as soon as practicable.~~

NAC 648.260 Qualifying agents for corporations; background investigations. (NRS 648.030)

1. A person who holds a license may change his or her status to that of a qualifying agent for a corporate licensee without taking the written examination, if the transfer is within the same category of license. The Board may require a background investigation of any person whose status has changed pursuant to this section if:
 - (a) The most recent background investigation was completed more than 18 months before the change in status; or
 - (b) There has been any complaint filed against the person with the Board.
2. If a person who is applying for a license for himself or herself previously held a license in the same category and ~~surrendered it~~ placed it in abeyance to become a qualifying agent for a corporation, the Board may require a background investigation if:
 - (a) The most recent background investigation was completed more than 18 months before the person applied for the license for himself or herself; or
 - (b) There has been any complaint filed against the person with the Board.

NAC 648.265 Limitations on qualifying agents for corporations. (NRS 648.030, 648.120)

1. After August 15, 1981, the Board will not approve any application by a person to become a qualifying agent in the same category of license for more than one corporation. Any person whom the Board has approved before that date as a qualifying agent for two or more corporations may continue to serve each such corporation so long as the person does not terminate affiliation with it.

2. Any person who holds a license issued by the Board must ~~surrender~~ place that license ~~for cancellation or to be held~~ in abeyance before the Board will approve the person's application to become a qualifying agent for a corporate license in the same category of license.

3. Any person who has been issued an identification card as the qualifying agent for a corporate licensee must surrender that card to the Board for destruction before the Board will approve the person's application for a license for himself or herself or return the person's license ~~held~~ placed in abeyance.

NAC 648.310 Examinations. (NRS 648.030, 648.100)

1. ~~{The Board} Examinations will {prepare examinations and may designate one or more police officers or other law enforcement officials to administer them:~~

~~2. Examinations will be given} be:~~

~~(a) Prepared and administered by the Board; and~~

~~(b) Administered in January, April, July and October of each year {-}, and at any other time prescribed by the Board.~~

~~{3.} 2. The Executive Director shall fix the time, date and place for each examination.~~

~~{4.} 3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection {5.} 4, examinations will be administered simultaneously to all applicants whether or not the examinations are being given at one location or more than one location.~~

~~{5.} 4. Field examinations for licensing as canine security handlers and trainers will not be administered at the same time as written examinations are being given.~~

~~NAC 648.320—Compliance with prerequisites for license. (NRS 648.030)~~

~~—1.— Except as otherwise provided pursuant to NAC 648.235, if the Board has approved an application for a license and has directed that the license be issued subject to compliance by the applicant with all statutory and regulatory prerequisites for the license, the applicant must comply within 90 days after the date on which the Board approved the application.~~

~~—2.— If the applicant fails to comply within 90 days, the Board may rescind its approval and reject the application unless the applicant has shown good cause for the delay.~~

~~—3.— If the Board rescinds its approval pursuant to this section, the Executive Director shall demand the return of the license, and the licensee shall return it as soon as practicable.~~

NAC 648.330 Holding of license in abeyance; investigation of certain licensees who voluntarily place license in abeyance before return of license to licensee. (NRS 648.030, 648.120)

1. If a licensee or an applicant is or becomes employed as a peace officer, as defined in NRS 169.125, or by a federal, state or local law enforcement agency, or in a position which makes him or her eligible to contribute to any public employees' retirement system and the Board finds that his or her private activities as a licensee create or would tend to create:

(a) A conflict of interest with his or her responsibilities to the public employer and his or her duty to discharge them; or the Board will hold his or her license in abeyance for as long as he or she continues to have those responsibilities or serve in that position. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a licensee may not engage in licensed activities while his or her license is being held in abeyance.

(b) The possibility of a use of his or her position with the public employer for personal advantage in the private activities,

2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a licensee who is the qualifying agent for a corporate licensee pursuant to chapter 648 of NRS ~~[may]~~ shall have his or her license placed in abeyance ~~[as long as he or she refrains]~~ and refrain from engaging in licensed activities independent of his or her status as a qualifying agent. A licensee who became a qualifying agent before January 1, 1985, may have the license that is in the same category as his or her status as a qualifying agent placed in abeyance for as long as he or she retains such status. If the Board finds that a licensee's status as a qualifying agent creates or would tend to create:

(a) A conflict of interest with his or her responsibilities to the public employer and his or her duty to discharge them; or the licensee may no longer act as a qualifying agent for the corporation.

(b) The possibility of a use of his or her position with the public employer for personal advantage in the private activities,

3. A licensee whose license is held in abeyance pursuant to subsection 1 or 2, must surrender the license to the Executive Director of the Board. If the provisions of subsection 1 or 2 no longer require that a license be held in abeyance, the Executive Director shall return the license to the former holder. The Executive Director may consult with the Board before making this determination.

4. If a licensee who is not in the situation described in subsection 1 or 2 wishes to have his or her license held in abeyance, he or she may voluntarily ~~surrender the license to the Executive Director, who will hold~~ place it in abeyance for any period specified by the requester, not exceeding 3 years. The Board may, upon request, grant an extension of the 3-year period if it finds that good cause warrants the extension. The Board will conduct an investigation of each licensee who, at the time he or she requests the return of the license held in abeyance pursuant to this subsection:

(a) Is not a qualifying agent of a corporation licensed by the Board;

(b) Is not working pursuant to any other license issued to him or her by the Board; or

(c) Is not employed as a peace officer, as defined in NRS 169.125, or by a federal, state or local law enforcement agency, or in a position which makes him or her eligible to contribute to any public employees' retirement system and the Board believes that his or her private activities as a licensee create or would tend to create:

(1) A conflict of interest with his or her responsibilities to the public employer and his or her duty to discharge them; or

(2) The possibility of a use of his or her position with the public employer for personal advantage in the private activities.

□ The Board will, upon completion of its investigation, notify the licensee whether the license will be returned.

5. The Board will not hold the license of an intern in abeyance.

6. A license which is being held in abeyance pursuant to this section must be renewed in accordance with the provisions for such licenses set forth in chapter 648 of NRS.

NAC 648.338 Employment of unlicensed persons: Restrictions; exemption. (NRS 648.030, 648.140)

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a licensee may not employ an unlicensed person who is or becomes employed:

(a) As a peace officer, as defined in NRS 169.125;

(b) By a federal, state or local law enforcement agency; or

(c) In a position which makes the unlicensed person eligible to contribute to any public employees' retirement system.

2. Upon receipt of a written request for exemption, the Board may grant an exemption from the prohibitions set forth in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 1, or the Executive Director of the Board, or his or her designee, may grant an exemption from the prohibition set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 1, if the Board or Executive Director, or his or her designee, as applicable, finds that the private activities of the unlicensed person on behalf of the licensee would not create or tend to create:

(a) A conflict of interest with his or her responsibilities to the public employer and his or her duty to discharge them; or

(b) The possibility of a use of his or her position with the public employer for personal advantage in his or her private activities.

NAC 648.3385 Employment of unlicensed persons: Registration requirements; duties of licensee; interpretation of "employed by." (NRS 648.030, 648.060, 648.140, 648.1495)

1. A licensee shall not employ a person unless the person employed by the licensee is provisionally registered or registered. A licensee shall immediately terminate the employment of a person employed by a licensee if the Board notifies the licensee that the Board has denied, suspended or revoked the provisional registration or registration of the person.

2. If a person applies for employment with a licensee, the licensee or a designated employee of the licensee shall review the system of records maintained by the Board pursuant to NAC 648.3435 to determine whether the person is registered, is provisionally registered or has had his or her registration or provisional registration denied, suspended or revoked.

3. If a licensee determines that the person is not registered or provisionally registered, and is not subject to denial, suspension or revocation, the licensee must instruct the person to:

(a) Complete the application for registration;

(b) Obtain ~~two~~ a complete sets of fingerprints or provide a receipt for electronic submission of fingerprints to the Board;

(c) Pay all applicable fees; and

(d) Unless otherwise instructed by the Board, submit the application for registration to the Board.

4. If a licensee determines that the provisional registration or registration of a person who applies for employment with the licensee has been denied, suspended or revoked by the Board, the licensee shall notify the applicant that he or she must contact the Board to obtain information concerning the denial, suspension or revocation.

5. Each licensee shall maintain a ~~passport size photograph of~~ copy of the work card issued by the Board for each person employed by the licensee. The licensee shall retain the ~~photograph~~ copy for not less than 5 years after the last date on which the person is employed by the licensee. The ~~photograph~~ copy may be in the form of a photograph or may be digitally stored, but the ~~photograph~~ copy must be capable of being reproduced and available at the request of the Board.

6. Any person who violates the provisions of this section is subject to disciplinary action by the Board.

7. A licensee shall maintain written documentation establishing that the licensee received an application from each applicant for employment before accessing the Internet website established pursuant to NAC 648.3435 for at least 4 years after the date of receipt of the application.

8. The Board will interpret “employed by” as used in this section and NRS 648.060 to include a person who performs the same duties as an employee.

NAC 648.341 Examination: Administration; verification of passing score. (NRS 648.030, 648.140) Before a licensee employs an unlicensed person, ~~a private patrol officer or security guard who is licensed by the Board~~ the licensee must ~~;~~

(b) At the discretion of the instructor, for good cause shown, the person may retake the written examination and the firearm qualification without repeating the course in full if the person completes such remedial training as the instructor determines is appropriate, taking into account the person's performance on the previous written examination and firearm qualification. The instructor may charge an additional fee for the remedial training.

5. If a firearms instructor is unable to provide a course which meets the requirements of this section because he or she provides security on a military installation and has no other reasonable means to provide the training and qualification required for such a course, he or she may submit a written request to the Executive Director asking for an exemption from those requirements and permission to offer a course with substitute training and qualification for persons employed on that military installation. When requesting an exemption pursuant to this subsection, the firearms instructor must provide:

(a) Proof of his or her inability to provide a course which meets the requirements of this section and to make reasonable accommodations to provide the training and qualification required for such a course; and

(b) A copy of the proposed substitute training and qualification and a signed affirmation, on a form provided by the Board, acknowledging that any person who successfully completes the course is required to sign a form pursuant to subsection 6.

Ê The Executive Director may, in his or her discretion and on a case-by-case basis, grant an exemption pursuant to this subsection after taking into consideration the totality of the circumstances.

6. Before a person who successfully completes a course pursuant to subsection 5 may carry a firearm on the military installation on which he or she is employed, the person must sign an affirmation, on a form provided by the Board, acknowledging that:

(a) He or she is only authorized to carry a firearm of the same type and caliber that he or she is qualified to carry and only on the military installation where he or she is employed; and

(b) The certification card issued to the person pursuant to NAC 648.350 will be confiscated upon termination of his or her employment on the military installation.

7. As used in this section, "contact hour" means 50 minutes of instruction in a period of 60 minutes.

NAC 648.350 Course of training; Certification of successful completion and qualification with firearm; issuance of certification card; maintenance of certification; repetition of course and request for exemption by certain persons; fees; duties of certified person. (NRS 648.030)

1. To certify a person's successful completion of the course of training in carrying, handling and using firearms safely, and his or her successful qualification with a firearm, a firearms instructor shall, within ~~5~~ 2 days of the person's successful completion of the course of training ~~and on a form provided by the Board, submit to the Board,~~ record the person's name and registration number, the time, date and location of the course of training, and the certifications and qualifications that the person obtained in the unlicensed person's record on the Internet website established pursuant to NAC 648.3435.

2. After ~~[receipt of]~~ the information ~~[submitted pursuant to]~~ described in subsection 1 ~~[,]~~ has been recorded on the Internet website, the Board will:

(a) Issue to a person who has successfully completed the course of training a plastic certification card which contains the name, photograph and registration number of the person, the expiration date of the person's certification and the designated qualification months established for that person pursuant to subsection 3; and

(b) Maintain an electronic record for each person who has been issued a certification card pursuant to paragraph (a) that indicates whether the person's card is valid and lists each type and caliber of firearm that the person is certified to carry, handle and use.

3. A person who has been certified pursuant to this section and who wishes to maintain his or her certification must successfully qualify for certification every 6 months, on any day during his or her designated qualification months. The designated qualification months are determined by the month of the person's initial qualification and will not change. If, after a person's initial qualification, the person successfully qualifies for certification or for a different type or caliber of firearm during a month that is not one of his or her designated qualification months, the person must successfully qualify again during his or her next designated qualification month, even if the period between such qualifications is less than 6 months. The qualification cycle will be as follows:

Initial course month	Designated qualification months
January or July	January and July
February or August	February and August
March or September	March and September
April or October	April and October
May or November	May and November
June or December	June and December

4. The certification card issued pursuant to subsection 2 is valid for 5 years if the person successfully qualifies every year during each of his or her designated qualification months on a course of fire that is given by a certified firearms instructor and is approved by the Board. If the person fails to qualify during any of his or her designated qualification months, the card becomes invalid and the person shall not use a firearm in the course of employment until he or she successfully qualifies.

5. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if a person fails to qualify for at least 2 successive designated qualification months or his or her certification card expires, he or she must repeat the course of training. If a person fails to qualify during at least 2 successive designated qualification months or his or her certification card expires because he or she is deployed on full-time active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States, the person may request an exemption from repeating the course of training by submitting a written request along with official documentation of such deployment to the Executive Director. The Executive Director may, in his or her discretion and on a case-by-case basis, grant an exemption pursuant to this subsection after taking into consideration the totality of the circumstances.

6. To cover the Board's administrative costs related to the certification and qualification of a person by a certified firearms instructor, the instructor shall remit to the Board $25 for each certification card issued by the Board pursuant to this section and $5 for each qualification of a person pursuant to subsection 3. If a person's certification card is lost or stolen, the person must remit to the Board $25 to obtain a replacement card.

7. The person to whom the certification card is issued shall:

- (a) Have it in his or her possession while carrying a firearm in the performance of his or her duties;
- (b) Produce it upon the request of any peace officer or a representative of the Board; and
- (c) Not carry or possess a firearm in the performance of his or her duties unless the certification card is valid.

NAC 648.265 Limitations on qualifying agents for corporations. (NRS 648.030, 648.120)

“Qualifying agent” means a person who:

- 1. Has been approved by the Board to represent and work for a corporate licensee; and
- 2. Is responsible for:
 - (a) Managing the corporate licensee in this State, including, without limitation, management of the:
 - (1) Daily operations of the corporate licensee; and
 - (2) Conduct and professionalism of the staff of the corporate licensee;
 - (b) Executing and completing all necessary documents to maintain the good standing of the corporate licensee in this State;
 - (c) Carrying out all provisions of this chapter and chapter 648 of NRS;
 - (d) Complying with all lawful and responsible orders of the Board; and
 - (e) Acting as an advisor for the management of the corporate licensee.

1. After August 15, 1981, the Board will not approve any application by a person to become a qualifying agent in the same category of license for more than one corporation. Any person whom the Board has approved before that date as a qualifying agent for two or more corporations may continue to serve each such corporation so long as the person does not terminate affiliation with it.

2. Any person who holds a license issued by the Board must surrender that license for cancellation or to be held in abeyance before the Board will approve the person's application to become a qualifying agent for a corporate license in the same category of license.

3. Any person who has been issued an identification card as the qualifying agent for a corporate licensee must surrender that card to the Board for destruction before the Board will approve the person's application for a license for himself or herself or return the person's license held in abeyance.
