PROCEEDINGS

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Welcome to the PILB quarterly meeting. We'll get started soon. We're waiting for IT to get set up and then we'll go ahead and start up. Please be patient. Thank you.

(Off record.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, everyone. It's going to be a little glitchy, but we'll get through it. We're going to go ahead and start the June quarterly meeting for the PILB. Welcome, and thank you for being patient.

Executive Director, could you do roll call?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Yes.

Direct Saladino, for the record.

Board Member Bezick.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Here.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Board Member Cortez.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Present.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Board Member Gronauer.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Here.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Board Chair Nixon.

BOARD CHAIR NIXON: Here.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: And Board Member Brown will be absent today.

I believe we do have a quorum.

DAG DETMER: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 2, public comment. Members of the general public may comment on matters appearing on the agenda and may bring up matters not appearing on the agenda to the attention of the Board.

The Board may discuss the matters not appearing on the agenda, but may not act on the matters at this meeting. If the Board desires, the matters may be placed on future agenda items for action.

Public comments will be limited to five minutes per person at the direction of the Chair, but will not be restricted according to viewpoint.

Are there any public comment up north? Or is there any public comment up north?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: None.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Do you have any public comment down south? Okay. Hearing there's no public comment, we'll move to the next agenda item.

Board Executive Director, could you do announcements, reports, and updates, please.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Yes. This is Executive Director Saladino, for the record. I had sent the Board the financial reports. I can take any questions with regards to the finances if we have any at this time.

It looks like our net income is actually up -- above projected for the amount. You know, it's for the whole year. And we know the budget is coming up the end of this month and we're looking pretty good. Let's see.

Yeah, with the -- being that June is our renewal month, it should be very favorable as we move forward. So I'm anticipating the next budget to look as good as we were before.

So is there any questions regarding the finances?

All right. And then for the stats, I'll turn the stats over to supervisor Investigator Swarthout. You can go over the stats for us.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Good morning. Investigator Swarthout.

So, the 2024 March 4 meeting, we had 38 that applied, 23 were approved for licenses, and 15 were withdrawn or denied.

For the 2025, we had 59 that applied, 30 that were approved, 29 that were withdrawn and denied. Below we have a box of what they were for. A lot of them are set to actually -- that postponed from that meeting to appear here, and some are appearing in September.

Work cards. In comparison, for 2024/2025, quarter one. So, '24, we did 4,053. Of that, 3,566 are active, 240 were withdrawn, and 247 were denied. For 2025 for the same span period is 3,113 applications received, 2,617 that are active, 90 that are still provisional, 247 that were withdrawn, and then 159 that were denied.

The spike in '24 was still due to the Super Bowl because it was in January was the big spike. So, this year, I don't think we have any major events besides Formula 1 coming up again.

The 90 that are still provisional aren't anything that we're worried about. When I took a look at them the other day, there was a handful of them that had to have prints resubmitted, that they got them done it's just DPS didn't receive them.

And then there it was another -- another good chunk of it appears to be just people that were late in the process that came in later and finished off whatever they needed. Most of them were fingerprints, getting those submitted in to us.

Complaints for quarter 1 of '25, we received 60. 52 of them are closed, eight are still open with two violations issued. We're still seeing a big pickup on complaints from the last couple years. I have a feeling it's just because we're getting more agencies reaching out to us. Different sections of LVMPD are reaching out, too, and that's where we're seeing the majority of our big pickup on the complaints on that.

And then for unlicensed activity comparison between 2024 and 2025, same quarter, in '24 we issued two, and this last quarter we issued one for the first quarter.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Quick question. Are you guys still experiencing the big backlog from DPS in getting fingerprints back and investigated?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Executive Director Saladino, for the record.

DPS has been pretty much on the ball recently. Those 90 that we have that are still provisional, it was fingerprints that weren't able to be read by DPS so had to have them resubmit. And then there was a handful of them that just didn't get fingerprinted. And then when we finally contacted them, they were late getting the fingerprints over to us, so that's what it was.

I also believe that DPS is getting ready to roll out a new program where we'll have their database. So we have -- I want to say later this month we have a -- like a webinar coming on to show us how to use it and everything. So hoping that's going to fix a lot of processes so it should be faster getting results. I look forward to that, and I know -- yeah, we're all looking forward to it being a lot faster.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions?

Okay. Hearing there are no questions we'll go to the Agenda Item No. 4, review and approve transcript for the March 12th, 2025 meeting. Were there any concerns? Questions? If not, I'll accept action.

There's no questions, so I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member

Cortez motioning to approve Agenda -- the transcripts from the March 12th, 2025 Board meeting as written.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. I have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer --

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick, I second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we have a motion, I have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Agenda Item No. 5. All applicants or people that will testify, please stand to be sworn in.

AUDIENCE MEMBERS,
having been duly sworn,
testified as follows:

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a potential block vote for items 7 through 14. Are there any questions or concerns for the Board on any of these agenda items?

Hearing there are no questions or concerns, I'll entertain --

DAG DETMER: Chair, I apologize for the interruption. Mike Detmer for the record. And I may be mistaken. If that's the case, I apologize for the interruption. I thought I heard you say 7 through 14. I'm seeing 6 through 14 on the actual numbering.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I was reading the top. Yeah, your right.

DAG DETMER: So this would include 6; is that right?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yes. So again, consent items for a potential vote would be Agenda Items 7 -- I'm sorry, 6 through 14. I'm stuck. Okay. Any questions or concerns?

Okay. We'll entertain a motion at this time.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to approve the consent items No. 6 through 14.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes. Thank you.

Okay. So anybody that's in the block vote, consent vote, Agenda Items No. 6 through 14, you're more than welcome to stay. We're entertaining so you're more than welcome to stay. But if you would wish to leave, you're free to go.

So we'll go to Agenda Item No. 15. We do need to take a small break to get our IT guy. We're off record for a quick second to take a break to set up some IT.

(Off record.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Everyone, we're back on the record.

We're now at Agenda Item 15. Do we have Vault Security? Please come forward. This is the change of status, name change of Qualifying Agent.

Okay. So, thank you for joining us. Please tell us a little bit about yourself and the intentions with the license change.

MR. WENDT: My name is Brandon Smoen (ph). I work from Phoenix, Arizona. And we are looking to get set up here in Vegas.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Lauren Wendt -- how do you say your last name?

MS. WENDT: Wendt.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Or Brandon?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: For the record, Gronauer.

Mr. Wendt, where do you reside now?

MR. WENDT: Waddell, Arizona. In Arizona.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay. If you become a Qualifying Agent, are you planning on living in Nevada?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS: Investigator Cuevas, for the record.

Mr. Uster will be the Qualifying Agent. They will be members.

MR. WENDT: We have Jim here that was going to be our Qualifying Agent.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: What's your name, sir?

MR. USTER: James Uster, U-s-t-e-r.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: All right. Where do you reside?

MR. USTER: Las Vegas, Nevada.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: What's your background?

MR. USTER: I was with the New York State

Police for 12 years. I've owned two businesses for 15. I've been in the security industry since 1996. I ran a federal contract that employed 100 armed officers.

At one point in time you and I were kind of the Qualified Agents for that contract.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I'm sorry, I thought so. I just -- you're all dressed up.

MR. USTER: But when North American Security decided not to rebid the federal contract, another company took it. They had their Qualified Agent. They said, "You're too old," and I left. So I am semi-retired right now, which I don't like, but I'm going to start helping these guys.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I am familiar with your work and your work ethic. And I'm going to say that I admire you because of the work you did do that I found in the past.

MR. USTER: Thank you, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: That's all I have to ask. Thank you. I just wanted to make sure your residency was right.

MR. WENDT: Yeah, thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Are there any other questions for the Board?

Okay. Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to approve Vault Security, LLC, a new private patrol officer license. In addition to approving Mr. James H. Uster, license No. 2080, that his license be placed in abeyance, and that he may become the Qualifying Agent.

Members to be approved are Lauren R. Wendt and Brandon M. Wendt, all subject to statutory and regulatory requirements.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Congratulations, guys. Good luck to you.

Agenda Item No. 16. Who do we have on the phone?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: We have Jessica and Eric on the phone.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you for joining us. Please tell us a little bit about yourself and the intentions with the license.

MR. VOOGT: I can start. This is Eric Voogt. I'm a long-time attorney barred in Colorado. I managed a law firm here for about 15 years before I started Proof. And we do process serving and E-filing. Are very interested in starting a process serving business in Nevada, and have joined forces with Reggie Mitchell to be our Qualifying Agent.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Board, are there any questions for -- and then, I'm sorry --

MR. MITCHELL: Yes, ma'am. I'm Reginald Mitchell.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. And you'll be the local QA?

MR. MITCHELL: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Got you.

Board, are there any questions for Proof of Nevada?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. Good morning, Mr. Mitchell.

MR. MITCHELL: How are you doing, sir?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I'm blessed, thank you.

What is your background?

MR. MITCHELL: I was professional athlete for ten years. Then I decided to become a process server, and I've been doing that for the past five years. Spent my college football at University of Nevada, Reno.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You understand the responsibilities of a Qualified Agent?

MR. MITCHELL: Yes, I do.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Can you explain some to me?

MR. MITCHELL: Making sure that the license is up to date, making sure that the employees are doing what they're supposed to do, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Not only doing what you're supposed to do. That they're also licensed, work card.

MR. MITCHELL: Work card, field card, yes, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is for process serving?

MR. MITCHELL: Yes, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Not going to be armed.

MR. MITCHELL: No.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You already have your license, right? So you're just transferring --

MR. MITCHELL: Yeah.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, got it. Individual license.

Board, are there any further questions for the Proof of Nevada group?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to approve Proof of Nevada, LLC a new corporate process server license. In addition, also motioning to approve Reginald D. Mitchell, license No. 4425, that his license be placed in abeyance so that he may become the Qualifying Agent. Members to be approved are Jessica H. Hunt and Eric J. Voogt. My apologies if I mispronounce that. All subject to statutory and regulatory requirements.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

Motion passes. Congratulations. Good luck to you.

MR. Voogt: Thank you, everybody.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You're welcome.

Okay. We're moving on to private patrol officers.

Agenda Item No. 17. Alan C. Parrish. Are you here.

MR. PARRISH: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good morning.

MR. PARRISH: Good Morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good morning. And you were sworn in, sir?

MR. PARRISH: I was, yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. There's just action going on back there.

MR. PARRISH: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Please tell us a little bit about yourself and the intentions with the license.

MR. PARRISH: About myself and what else?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And the intentions with the license.

MR. PARRISH: Okay, yes. So, my name is Alan Parrish. I'm with ADT Security. Been with the company for 24 years in two different stints with them. I've also done some other security work and worked for the City of Santa Monica for about four years. I live in California. I'm the qualified branch manager there for our patrol operation. And here in Nevada we also have a patrol operation that had private security officers responding to alarm activations.

The business here was contracted out to a vendor. And the person that was the license holder here in Nevada is no longer with the company. My former boss, Jesus Valadacio (ph), had the license after that. Now he's no longer with the company, so now it's my turn to get the license. So I just want to be the license holder so that I can oversee the operation that's being run here in Nevada.

The vendor that we use is Reliance Security. And my understanding is I need to have that license here in Nevada so that through ADT we can continue to run that operation. And I work directly with them to make sure that compliance standards are met and that they're performing properly.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, do you have any employees here in Nevada for ADT that you'll be overseeing?

MR. PARRISH: We did until it was contracted out, so now we don't have any employees here in Nevada.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Got you. Okay.

Just a technical question, then. Does he need to be a resident to be the Qualifying Agent?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Executive Director Saladino for the record.

So, being that ADT does the dispatch and they're located in California, so the dispatch goes to California, all the employees are in California. But being that they're in the process, he doesn't have to be licensed here because he doesn't have actual employees. They're contracting to a license here in Nevada. So that's why they still have to be licensed because they're duly dispatched, so they're part of that observe and report. And then they're using a contracted licensed company here to actually do the response.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Board, any other questions?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer.

I'm slightly confused; it's not unusual.

MR. PARRISH: Same.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You have no employees here. You want to be the Qualifying Agent for ADT, and it goes to an outside source.

MR. PARRISH: Yes, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Who's the outside source?

MR. PARRISH: So, Reliance Security is the local vendor that we're using, if I understand your question correctly. So we have a contract with them to respond to the ADT customers' alarm activations.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You have a contract in place.

MR. PARRISH: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Where do you reside?

MR. PARRISH: I reside in California, in Lawndale, California.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: They don't have any employees here to manage. They're just managing the contract with Reliance. So he's still -- because he's in that process, has to have --

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Oh, that cleared it up.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez, for the record.

Just for even further clarification, your Reliance employees, they are here in Nevada?

MR. PARRISH: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: If, in fact, when they do respond, they are located in Nevada.

MR. PARRISH: Yes. Reliance is a local Nevada --

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Trying to figure out the Qualifying Agent being there --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Reliance has a Qualifying Agent.

MR. PARRISH: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: But because you're contracted -- they're contracted under the ADT, you need to be the QA to cover this end.

MR. PARRISH: Yes, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Where are the records kept?

MR. PARRISH: Records are electronic. We have a customer database system called Mastermind where we record the responses from the dispositions that they call in to us after they respond to the activation. So we update each customer's account in the database system.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: So records are readily available.

MR. PARRISH: Yes, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions from the Board?

Okay. Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member --

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Go ahead, Mr. Bezick.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Go ahead.

Okay. This is Bezick. I move we approve Alan C. Parrish for an individual private patrol officer's license, and that license be placed in abeyance so that he may become the Qualifying Agent from ADT Security, license No. 1728.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

I'll second the motion.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So we have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Motion passes. Congratulations.

MR. PARRISH: Thank you all very much for your time. Take care.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 18, Gray Skies Consulting. Mr. Pena.

MR. PENA: Good morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good morning. I'm going to just confirm you were sworn in?

MR. PENA: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Perfect. So please tell us a little bit about yourself and the intentions with the license.

MR. PENA: Thank you, again. I appreciate it. I want to say thank you for the Board of Investigators for your patience with me, walking me through the process a couple times. So thank you. Your patience is appreciated.

So, I'm a retired law enforcement commander from California, 30 years' experience. And I'm starting a small LLC, the sole member, security consultant. As a sole member security consultant for mostly small field activities like sports events and trade shows. And so I'm looking to start working here and expanding business here in the State of Nevada.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for Mr. Pena?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. What department were you on in --

MR. PENA: The Anaheim Police Department, sir. I was in charge of security, management, special events, security convention centers, security --

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Where do you reside?

MR. PENA: I live in Trabuco Canyon, California.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions from the Board?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I'm good, thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm, you don't have any employees here in Nevada.

MR. PENA: That's correct, I don't foresee any. I'm a sole member consultant and going to be able to be licensed here in Vegas for any shows I might pick up. I don't see myself out here very often, but my twin brother lives out here in Henderson, so I'm out here often. I enjoy it. If it wasn't for the 105 degree weather, I might --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: It's dry heat.

If there's no further questions for the Board, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to approve Gray Skies Consulting, LLC a new corporate private patrol officer license. Mr. Christopher Pena to be approved the private patrol officer license, and that it be placed in abeyance so he may become the Qualifying Agent. Member also to be approved is Mr. Christopher B. Pena, all subject to statutory and regulatory requirements.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes. Good luck to you.

MR. PENA: Thank you. And thank you to the Board staff.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Agenda Item No.

19, Rex Group. Do we have Gregory Sirko, Dustin Burt?

Gentlemen, good morning. Please tell us a little bit about yourselves and the intentions with the license.

MR. BURT: Yes. We're The Rex Group --

THE REPORTER: Your name, please?

MR. BURT: Oh, sorry. Dustin Burt. Originally based out of California. I've been doing security since about 2010 at a former company out of California, Superior Protection Consultants, which was started in 2015. And then through a transition we started The Rex Group in 2023, and now we're seeking licensure here in Nevada.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm again, there's a lot of movement back there, everybody's been sworn in?

MR. BURT: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for The Rex Group?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Who are the other gentlemen?

MR. KALISH: Michael Kalish. I'm their attorney.

MR. SIRKO: Good morning, sir. My name is Gregory Sirko. I've been in the private security industry for about three years now with Rex Group. Prior to that, served six years with the L.A. County Sheriffs and five years with the Marine Corps.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You got me with the Marine Corps.

Why did you leave the L.A. County Sheriff's Department?

MR. SIRKO: Just the goals of the department where I was wasn't really aligning with my vision for my future. And so I found out about the private security industry and decided to switch over.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: When did you leave the department?

MR. SIRKO: In 2021 October.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: And when did you start security stuff?

MR. SIRKO: Security was in November of 2022. Roughly a year after.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: What did you do in between time?

MR. SIRKO: In between, I was going through a divorce and I was exploring options for an online business and decided that it wasn't going to be profitable and put my skills to use and decided security was my best option, given that I have about 12 years' experience.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I have some questions.

There's some tax liens and delinquencies that are happening. Has that been resolved or do we have paperwork that we're working through that?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Investigator Blackmore, for the record.

Yes. I don't have --

THE REPORTER: Can you say that again, please?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Investigator Blackmore for the record.

Rex Group was seen at the September 2024 Board meeting. We did discuss the liens at that time. It was issued for Superior Consultant back in California so that was the prior business. Those are being taken care of, as well as he did provide me documentation for the delinquencies. As far as the credit goes, that everything is taken care of.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Then there's some unlicensed activity.

What's going on with that?

MR. BURT: So that was prior to this Board, which is why we took some time. That was when we were doing the transition period. We had a company here and the MSA contract was a little wishy-washy. So we basically got rid of that one and redid the whole agreement so that way everything here now is ran under JRM currently.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So once you have your license, the intention is to move it from JRM to you guys directly?

MR. BURT: Actually, We were going to keep that partnership with them. They're our manpower organization out here. We're more on the consultancy side. That's why we use them out here.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez, for the record.

I just need clarification, Investigator Blackmore, for Mr. Burt. We have that he did not conduct -- or he denied conducting unlicensed activity. Is that as of recent or is that prior to the last meeting?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Investigator Blackmore for the record. So that was prior. So since then, there has been no sort of complaints or issues regarding The Rex Group.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood, thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to approve The Rex Group Corporation a new corporate private patrol officer license. Mr. Gregory A. Sirko to be approved the private patrol officer license and that it be placed in abeyance so that he may become a Qualifying Agent. Corporate officers to be approved are Gregory A. Sirko and Dustin R. Burt, all subject to statutory and regulatory requirements.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we have a motion, do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

Aye.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Aye.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Aye.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Opposed?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: No.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

So thanks, guys, for resetting and getting it right this time. I think, you know, you can see it's important to us that, you know, we do business the right way. So we appreciate the fact that you reset, and I think that's the only reason why I'm an aye. So thank you for that.

MR. BURT: Totally understandable. Thank you for your time and thank you for the opportunity.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you. Congratulations.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 20, Jason Berckart.

Good morning, sir.

MR. BERCKART: Morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Please tell us a little bit about yourself and the intentions with the license.

MR. BERCKART: Jason Berckart, CEO of Redwood Private Security. We've been licensed out here since 2022. Our current Qualifying Agent is going to be retiring at the end of this term, so we're looking to put my license over to be the qualifying agent.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Board, any questions for Mr. Berckart?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I motion that Jason Berckart's individual private patrol officer's license be placed in abeyance so he may become the Qualifying Agent for Redwood Private Security, License No. 3042.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Thank you, sir. Congratulations.

Agenda Item No. 21, AG Security Group.

Good morning, sir.

MR. CITRON: Good morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm, you were sworn in?

MR. CITRON: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you. Please tell us a little bit about yourself and the intentions for the license.

MR. CITRON: So, my name is Aviv Citron. I'm the owner of the AG Security Group. We are fully operational out of New York since approximately 2017. I applied for the operators license and I was denied in March due to one issue with regards to the bankruptcy from 2006. That has been -- that was rectified the same exact day of my denial, and I am here now to plead my case to be approved.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So, we have a motion -- I'm sorry.

Board, are there any questions?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Yeah.

Where were you a police officer, sir?

MR. CITRON: Amtrak Police Department out of New York City.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Why did you leave?

MR. CITRON: There's an NDA that was issued by a federal court. I can't speak about it.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: A nondisclosure, huh?

MR. CITRON: Yes, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Well, where do you reside now?

MR. CITRON: New York City, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay. Explain your role, what you're going to be doing here.

MR. CITRON: Well, this is the Perfect time, since my children are finishing school at the end of the month. So my wife and I are going to look to move out here, sometime July or August, and reset for the kids to start school. If I never saw snow again I wouldn't miss it, so I'm happy with this weather. And we are going to be out here full time, my wife and I and our family.

I'm going to be the operating officer, as the application says. Handling the day-to-day operations. Onsite supervision as needed. And create a new life out west.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You know the job of a Qualifying Agent?

MR. CITRON: Yes, sir. The job of a Qualifying Agent is to ensure that all my personnel are licensed, that we maintain the license, that they have the sheriff's cards as needed, the work cards are up-to-date, and everybody is licensed. Any patch work or anything like that must come before the Board for approval. And uniforms as well.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay, thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions for Mr. Citron?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Motion to -- this is Board Member Cortez, for the record, motioning to approve AG Security Group, Inc. a new corporate private patrol officer license. Mr. Aviv Citron to be approved in an individual private patrol officer license and that it be placed in abeyance so that he may become a Qualifying Agent. Corporate officer to be approved is also Mr. Aviv Citron. All subject to statutory and regulatory requirements.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

Aye.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Aye.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Aye.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Opposed?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: No.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Good luck to you, sir.

MR. CITRON: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 22, Imperial Events, Sandy Bragg.

Good morning.

MS. BRAGG: Good morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm, you were sworn in?

MS. BRAGG: I was, yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Please tell us a little bit about yourself and the intentions with the license.

MS. BRAGG: Okay. I have owned Imperial since about 2001. We've been providing guard services in the northeast region the last 25 years. And we also now have grown into a position where we travel with our clients and oversee their security in other states, other cities.

So, we're seeking the license here in order to be able to consult in Nevada and hire local talent to do that.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. All right.

So, Board, are there any questions for Ms. Bragg?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Good morning, Ms. Bragg. Could you give me the circumstances behind the unlicensed activity back in 2024?

MS. BRAGG: Yes. I came last year to consult on a show. And I had my guard card, but I didn't fully understand that I needed the license. And I apologize for that and I paid the fine and I'm here to make it right.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You're going to be -- you don't have employees here, it will be more of a consulting role.

MS. BRAGG: Correct.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So if you do have an event, how would you handle that, employee-wise here?

MS. BRAGG: We would work with local talent, like Treston or AUS or CSE while here in Nevada, and make sure that we were staffed appropriately for the client needs.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Got you.

Okay. Any further questions for the Board?

Hearing no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to approve Imperial Events Security Services, LLC a new corporate private patrol officer license. Ms. Sandy L. Bragg to be approved for the individual private patrol officer license, and that it be placed in abeyance so that she may become the Qualifying Agent. Member to be approved is also Ms. Sandy L. Bragg, all subject to statutory and regulatory requirements.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes. Congratulations.

MS. BRAGG: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good luck to you.

Agenda Item No. 23, Fortified Event Solutions.

Good morning.

MR. BEY: Morning.

MR. WALLGREN: Good morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Please introduce yourselves and then tell us about your intentions with the license.

MR. BEY: I'm Dan Bey.

MR. WALLGREN: I'm Martin Wallgren.

MR. BEY: Our intention is to receive the license to pursue a contract with Formula 1 for the security management and crowd services contract for this year.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm, you guys have been sworn in?

MR. BEY: Yes.

MR. WALLGREN: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. Which one of you guys hold a business license here, state business license?

MR. BEY: We do, as the company.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: What's the company?

MR. BEY: Fortified Event Solutions.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: My search tells me that it expires the end of this month.

MR. BEY: For the renewal period, sir?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Pardon?

MR. BEY: For the renewal period it will be renewed. It was the initial filing. We just created it.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: We received the updated business license. I'm sorry about that.

MR. BEY: All good.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: The information I had.

MR. BEY: No problem.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to approve Fortified Event Solutions, LLC a new corporate private patrol officer license. Mr. Daniel P. Bey to be approved an individual private patrol officer license, and that it be placed in abeyance so that he may become the Qualifying Agent. Members to be approved are Daniel P. Bey and Martin C. Wallgren. All subject to statutory and regulatory requirements.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Congratulations, gentlemen. Good luck to you.

MR. BEY: Thank you, very much. Appreciate you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. The 8020 Group. Jason P. Caracas (sic).

MR. CACERES: Morning. Caceres.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

MR. CACERES: You're welcome.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sorry about that.

Sir, tell us a little bit about yourself and the intentions with the license.

MR. CACERES: Yeah, Absolutely.

So, 2008 I got stationed here with the United States Air Force. Retired in 2017, where I currently reside still. Five years before that I got into event security. Found out that I enjoyed that, so became a director of operations for a company here in Vegas.

Been involved in a couple of the most critical incidents here in Vegas. As far as ADCs evacuation, the shooting at Route 91. So I wanted to open up a consulting business, kind of help customers navigate the landscape of security needs, make sure that they aligned with their specific needs.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any questions?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I move that the 8020 Group be approved for a new corporate private patrol officers license, and that Jason P. Caceres be approved for an individual private patrol officer's license, and that his license be placed in abeyance so he may become the Qualifying Agent. Members to be approved are Jason P. Caceres and Candace R. Davenport.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Congratulations. Thank you for your service. Good luck to you.

MR. CACERES: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 25, Quest Event Management, LLC; Angelo T. Guerra and William Giles.

Good morning, gentlemen.

MR. GUERRA: Good morning.

MR. GILES: Good morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I'm pretty sure I've seen you, but you've been sworn in, just to confirm?

MR. GUERRA: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Please tell us a little about yourself and the intentions with the license.

MR. GILES: My name is William Tyrell Giles. I'm the owner and CEO of Quest Event Management. Here is Angelo here with me. We are a event security company focused on conventions. We do a lot of work in conventions. And we also work with and support companies working in arenas, access control, you know, gates and screening, event workers, that sort of work.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. And Mr. Guerra?

MR. GUERRA: So, my experience was with ESG Security from 2012 through 2019. Then picked up work here with Quest in 2023 in January to the present.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You'll be the operations manager --

MR. GILES: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Board, are there any questions for qualifying -- or for the Quest group?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez. I do have a question for the investigator.

Is Mr. Dumas here or is somebody covering?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: Good morning. Investigation Dumas, for the record.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Just clarification, were all the liens disclosed or was it just the one?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: There was just one disclosed. I found the rest when conducting the financial checks.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood, thank you, so much.

Mr. Giles, is there a reason why you failed to disclose the following liens?

MR. GILES: Wasn't -- it was just an error. I wasn't aware -- some of the liens don't even -- I got a letter here showing you that I -- those liens were paid. I only owe -- I didn't owe for those previous years. Our state puts out a tax warrant for your state taxes. And so I went -- when I was made aware, I wasn't even thinking of that. And so when I was made aware, I went down to the -- to our local state tax revenue and got a letter showing no liability.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And the letter that you have, it's indicating that all of the liens are paid?

MR. GILES: Yes. It says that -- this letter certifies that William Giles has no outstanding tax liability with the Indiana Department of Revenue. And it --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Dumas, was that provided to you?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: It was not.

MR. GILES: I went -- because I just -- after she made me aware of it I went down, applied for it, and it was mailed to my house. And so I brought it here. I also brought -- because it was only this year, and so I also brought a tax -- a printout to show that the taxes were paid on May 12th. That I paid the taxes and stuff.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. So I'm showing that we have open cases, filing date of March 15th of this year. I have one of September 16 of '22.

MR. GILES: That's what I'm saying, ma'am. Every year -- the state of Indiana will not allow you to even have a business license or security license if you owe for previous years. The only year that I owed for when you guys did the background was for this -- was for '24, I hadn't paid it yet in '25. I went and paid it in May. And then when she made me aware of this coming up, I went down to our state capital building and got a letter to show that I don't -- I don't owe anything.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Can I ask that you approach and provide that letter to one of our investigators, please?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Give it to me.

MR. GILES: Sorry.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Thank you.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Do you have the one with the file numbers on it?

MR. GILES: What do you mean? I'm sorry. They didn't have -- they didn't print --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: -- printout?

MR. GILES: That's the printout -- this is the printout from the state that was mailed in to me. When I went down there, they gave me a hard copy. And they mailed a copy to my home. So this is the hard copy of that. And then I just have my -- this is just a check -- this is the bank showing I paid it this year that I printed out.

But there's no ledger of what she pulled up, because I didn't owe it. I mean, I paid it. If I owed this -- '22 showed, I paid it in '23. But I can just show you my bank where I paid in May. And then this is the same of this. They printed this out when I went in and they mailed that to my house.

I also have here, too, where it shows where I went online to our online system and paid the -- paid the taxes as well. So it's bank statements --

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: That's what I need right there. It matches for the one for 3-15 of '25.

MR. GILES: Okay.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: 2020 still shows open, but that letter basically says that they're all taken care of.

Any further questions for the Board?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Yes, Gronauer.

Mr. Guerra, good morning. What have you been doing from 2019 to 2023?

MR. GUERRA: Then, I took a break from working. I was on unemployment when I separated from ESG. And at that point, when I thought about getting back into the work, Covid started, kind of set back everything. Then from there, just had assistance, you know, with my parents. I had a good savings from that company. Just still kind of lived off of that.

MR. GILES: Just to kind of elaborate on that. I worked for ESG Security, too. They were a large security company. I started in '99 with them. He started in --

MR. GUERRA: 2012.

MR. GILES: And they sold to CSE. And it was kind of a drama in our city. So I had to go kind of pull him off the bench and let him know that we were building something, myself and another person that worked for me with ESG for a long time. And got him back involved in security.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to approve Quest Event Management, LLC a new corporate private patrol officer. That Mr. Angelo T. Guerra be approved for the individual private patrol officer license, and that it be placed in abeyance so that he may become the Qualifying Agent. Member to be approved is Mr. William T. Giles. All subject to statutory and regulatory requirements.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes. Congratulations.

MR. GILES: Thank you, so much. Thank you, very much.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Thanks for coming prepared. That's the only thing that saved you.

MR. GILES: That's how we work, sir. Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 26, Larry Johnson.

MR. JOHNSON: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm, sir, you've been sworn in?

MR. JOHNSON: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Please tell us a little bit about yourself and the intention with the license.

MR. JOHNSON: Yes. So, as a retail manager for many years, I decided to earn multiple degrees, so I ended up with four Associate Degrees in business, and I got my Bachelor degree in communications from Cal State Fullerton and my Master's degree in public administration from Cal State Long Beach.

After that, I decided to get into law enforcement, so --

THE REPORTER: Can you slow down, please?

MR. JOHNSON: Oh, sorry, yes. I self-sponsored myself in the Fullerton College Police Academy when it was around. I became a reserve police officer with the City of Redondo Beach for two years. It was an unpaid position, and so I did that for a couple of years for experience, and then decided to move on to security.

So after that, I worked for the Disneyland

Resort, where I was an armed security for many years. Also took a little break and went to the OC Sheriff Crime Lab, where I worked in homicide, ID unit for a while. Went back to Disney, where I did more security work. Where I was an undercover plain clothes officer, bike officer, I oversaw park operations as a supervisor for Disneyland Park and California Adventure Park. And then --

THE REPORTER: Please slow down.

MR. JOHNSON: Sorry.

And then went to get my armed license in California, and then moved out here in Nevada in 2020. And eventually, I got into K-9 work as well. So I did that, K-9 handling with Disney for three years. And came out to Alabama, Alabama based company called Global K-9 where I also did K-9 handling for additional three years.

My intention is to actually move forward with the K-9 portion and do armed security and K-9 here with my license.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any questions for Mr. Johnson?

MR. JOHNSON: I did have one question, though. I see it was under my name, though, but when I applied for the state license for the doing business as, I should put my business as doing business as EDT Protection Group. And put that on my application as well.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Executive Director Saladino, for the record.

Yes. If you're going to do a dba, you have to provide that over to Stephanie.

MR. JOHNSON: I did. I'm just a little confused why it has my name and not EDT Protection.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: When did you submit that to us?

MR. JOHNSON: With the original application. It was a while ago. Maybe ten months ago.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Because we have you moving forward as an individual.

MR. JOHNSON: So the -- so it was a sole proprietorship as registered with the state, d/b/a EDT Protection Group.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: We don't license d/b/as. It would be you as an individual doing business as, so that's in-house.

MR. JOHNSON: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions for Mr. Johnson?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. Make a motion to grant Larry R. Johnson an individual private patrolman license.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez. I'll second the motion.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor, say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes. Congratulations to you. Good luck.

MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, very much.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 27, International Kobudo.

Good morning.

MR. RAMIREZ VILLALBA: Morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, please introduce yourself, and have you been sworn in, just to confirm.

MR. RAMIREZ VILLALBA: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Please introduce yourselves and then tell us a little bit about your business.

Wait a minute.

THE INTERPRETER: I'm going to be his interpreter.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Oh, you're going to be his interpreter? Hang on one second.

Do we need anything?

DAG DETMER: It would be appropriate if we have her sworn in that she's going to interpret truthfully.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

DAG DETMER: I'm processing a thought. Is anybody on staff able to do the interpretation part? Yes? Would you be comfortable?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, do we want to let them know that that's how it has to be interpreted, that way?

DAG DETMER: I just think it's more appropriate that way. I don't know if it's necessarily a legal way, or -- I mean, if it's -- to have the (indiscernible) removed, more objectivity as far as the interpretation may be more appropriate.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I guess maybe you need to interpret that we need to have you interpret the conversation with the Board versus the person he brought.

(Investigator Cuevas spoke to Mr. Villalba.)

DAG DETMER: Investigator Cuevas, are you comfortable with interpreting?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS: Yes.

DAG DETMER: I'm sorry, this is Mike Detmer, for the record. I apologize for not doing that up front.

Sir, I'm sorry, what was your name?

MR. RAMIREZ VILLALBA: Ariel Ramirez.

DAG DETMER: Mr. Ramirez, are you comfortable with Investigator Cuevas interpreting for you?

MR. RAMIREZ VILLALBA: He agrees.

DAG DETMER: Investigator Cuevas, may I swear you in, please?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS: Yes, sir.

(The interpreter was sworn in.)

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

I just want to make for the record, are we going with just Ariel Ramirez or Ariel Ramirez Villalba?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS: So his full name for the record is Ariel Ramirez Villalba.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Tell us a little bit about yourself and the intentions with the license.

MR. RAMIREZ VILLALBA: My name is Ariel Ramirez Villalba. And I'm an instructor of jiu jitsu and Kodobu (sic). And self defense for 35 years.

Since 2011 I have worked as a security guard. The intention with the license is to provide security services to high ends here in Nevada. We also want to train our officers self defense and be able to teach them Kodobu and jiu jitsu.

Basically, the intention is just to provide security services for plazas, markets, grocery stores, and businesses of that sort.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Board, are there any questions for Mr. Ramirez?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez, for the record.

Buenos dias.

(Board Member Cortez began speaking to the witness in Spanish.)

THE REPORTER: I --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I'm asking if he filled out the application on his own.

Did you want me to ask in English and then have her translate?

DAG DETMER: Since we're using her.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay, no worries.

Did you fill out the application on your own?

MR. RAMIREZ VILLALBA: I filled it out.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Is there a reason why you failed to disclose your arrest history?

MR. RAMIREZ VILLALBA: He says that when he filled out the application, I didn't think that the process I went through was considered remote process, which is why I didn't list it on the application as an arrest. Once they contacted me after they did the investigation and informed me of that, I did let them know that, yes, I did go through the process. I was fingerprinted, but they released me within -- after 18 hours.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So the reason why I ask whether you filled out the application on your own was because there is a page specifically asking to list all charges or all arrests regardless of the outcome.

MR. RAMIREZ VILLALBA: So, as -- it was a misunderstanding on my part. I believe that because it was immigration related and fingerprinted through immigration, it wasn't considered criminal-wise. So I omitted it from the application. It wasn't to be discreetful or on purpose, it was a misunderstanding.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Were you arrested or detained?

MR. RAMIREZ VILLALBA: I was detained.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Can I ask, is that a part of the process coming through the border in general? Because I think we've run into this before, that they fingerprint you.

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: Yes. Investigator Cuevas. I can speak on this. My husband is essentially kind of in that category.

Yes, when we travel outside of Mexico -- or travel outside of the U.S. and come back, like, to Mexico, they do fingerprint you. I know it does come up on fingerprint results. It's not necessarily a -- it is considered detainment because essentially they have to verify documentation and ensure you are able to enter.

I'm not sure of his specific scenario, but they do detain you. And I can speak from personal experience, my husband, they take him to a separate room, they separate us kind of thing. It's not necessarily criminal, but it is just to figure out, okay, you have all the paperwork set aside and then move from there.

They do get fingerprinted so it would show up on fingerprints.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So is it -- I mean --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: It does, thank you.

Board Member Cortez. I do have a question more for the Board members.

Are we comfortable accepting these circumstances as a detainment versus an arrest? And whether or not it's disclosed or not disclosed?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: What have we done in the past? Do you -- Executive Director? What's been our precedence? I know it's come up before.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Executive Director Saladino, for the record.

In regards to, like, the work card applicants that have had the same scenarios, we have approved folks in the past because it wasn't, like, an arrest arrest, you know, it was just verifying that they're legally able to come into states. So that's how we taken it in the past.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Board, any further questions?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Yeah, this is Gronauer.

In law, a detainment is an arrest for the most part. How long was he detained?

MR. RAMIREZ VILLALBA: 15 hours.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Pardon?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS: 15 hours.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: In the investigation, it says the applicant is obtaining records to support his claim. Did we get any records?

MR. RAMIREZ VILLALBA: Yes, I did send over documentation from the detainment and from the court records with the investigator.

INVESTIGATOR DIAZ: Investigator Diaz, for the record.

Board members, I did receive court records to show it was dismissed without prejudice. The court records look like it was just a quick detainment and then fully dismissed right away.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer is good.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Do we need to translate that?

DAG DETMER: It would be preferable.

(The discussion was translated for Mr. Ramirez Villalba.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, are there any further questions for Mr. Ramirez?

Hearing there's no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to approve International Kobudo and Ju-Jitsu Federation, LLC a new corporate private patrol officer license. And that Mr. Ariel Ramirez Villalba be granted the individual private patrol officer license and that it be placed in abeyance so that he may become the Qualifying Agent. Member to also be approved is Ariel Ramirez Villalba. All subject to statutory and regulatory requirements.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Do we interpret that?

DAG DETMER: (Mr. Detmer moved his head up and down.)

(The prior statement was translated for Mr. Ramirez Villalba.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Congratulations, good luck.

We're going to take a quick five-minute break. Thank you, guys, for your patience. Come back at 10:40.

(Off record.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: It's 10:40. I want to make sure everybody is back and ready.

Now we're on Agenda Item No. 28, Stratosphere -- or Stratoscope Consulting NV, LLC.

MR. DONOVAN: Good Morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Please tell us a little bit about yourself and the intentions with the license.

MR. DONOVAN: Morning, Board. Dan Donovan with Stratoscope Consulting, Stratoscope Holding's parent company. Thank you for your time, and I really want to thank Executive Director Saladino and Investigator Swarthout for their help in getting us to this stage.

We provide consulting service -- services at strategic, high-level events (indiscernible).

THE REPORTER: Can you speak up a little, please?

MR. DONOVAN: I'm sorry?

THE REPORTER: Speak up a little, please?

MR. DONOVAN: We Provide strategic event security consulting services to a number of special events around the country, and we're here to -- Mr. Graber, as our licensed agent in the State of Nevada.

MR. GRABER: My name is Calvin Graber. I reside in Henderson, Nevada. And applying for being the Qualifying Agent.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there questions for Mr. Graber or Mr. -- I only have Mr. Graber.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I only have Mr. Graber, also.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Madam Chair, Executive Director, for the record.

So with this particular situation, we got Mr. Graber through the process, pretty much, like, right before the exam to help them get into compliance here in Nevada. Mr. Donovan, he'll be moving forward in the September board meeting with his corporate officer application. Didn't have the time to get everybody through. So right now we're just moving forward with Mr. Graber and we'll be moving forward with Mr. Donovan at the next board meeting.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So does Stratosphere (sic) Consulting --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Stratoscope.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Stratoscope, I'm sorry.

Do they have a license for Nevada, then?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Not yet. That's why they're here today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: But they don't have any officers.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: We're not approving any members other than Mr. Graber, if he was approved, and we'll be adding another one at a later Board meeting.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I have to formulate the question.

Board, any further questions?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Good morning to you both.

MR. GRABER: Good morning.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: How do you say your last name?

MR. GRABER: Graber.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Graber?

MR. GRABER: Yes, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Mr. Graber, how are you involved in all these citations from 2023 through 2025?

MR. GRABER: So, through the consulting work that we did, we initially were brought on to manage the security for the Las Vegas Grand Prix event. That was the initial citation. We received essentially some erroneous advice that we were not under the statutes of PILB in our consulting role as we don't provide guard services or do investigations.

Through the other citations that you see listed there, we've been working with the office to get into compliance so that we can continue to do the work that we do. Just to kind of build on what Dan was speaking to, our role is that strategic layer of developing kind of operational plan for events: Large scale, small scale. All of the above. Working with different vendors, providing the security guard services and anything else that would require license. So work with them to ensure that they are compliant with the PILB standards. And, you know, through working with the PILB, we've been advised that we need a license, and that's why we're here to get into compliance.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay. You had a citation in 2023.

MR. GRABER: Yes, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Because you didn't know some things and you were kind of confused and all that. I get that.

But then you get a citation in 2024. Then you get a citation in 2025. And just because you paid the citations and you go free, that's not for me. I have a problem. I'll get to you in a second. I have a problem when you receive a citation, oh, just pay it. We'll do something else again. After the first one, you think you would get involved, understand what all the rules and regulations are. And apparently you didn't do that, and now you want to be a Qualifying Agent. For me, I have a problem with that history. Being honest.

Mr. Donovan, you want to say something?

MR. DONOVAN: To defend Mr. Graber, he has been in support of us going through the process since becoming a Nevada resident. I pushed back because of some legal advice that we got. And frankly, because we've done business in the state of Nevada under some of my previous company names and never come under the ire of the PILB previously. And so the way -- again, everybody gets their own -- no offense -- legal advice, and sometimes it's erroneous.

So it was my pushback to -- I mean, Calvin did what he needed to do to try and convince me, and I -- I was wrong in not getting behind it and supporting -- getting compliance right away.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I think that's unfortunate as an executive myself. You know, I'm with Mr. Gronauer here. One time, shame on me, you know. After that, to me, you're gambling and saying, okay, my profits will cover and plus the citations, right? I'm in the business, I understand you're working off of pennies here, right?

MR. DONOVAN: Right.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: But unfortunately, it's a gamble that you took that I think just -- again, one time, maybe two. But three? Four? That to me is -- it's blatant disregard. So that's just my statement and it's how I feel about it.

But Board, are there any further questions?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Also going to concur with the concerns. Again, we don't have one, we don't have two, we have five. And the most recent one being on April 7th of this year.

So, regardless of your legal counsel, or despite legal counsel, you would think that even a 2023, okay, lesson learned, you got erroneous -- quote, unquote "erroneous information". But one, two, three in 2024? At some point you need to make a decision outside of bad legal counsel. And then to follow up again on April 7th. So, I, too, concur with the concerns.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for Stratoscope Group?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer.

My motion is to deny the Stratoscope Consulting the corporate private patrol officer license, and also deny Calvin Graber his private patrol officer license and from him becoming a Qualifying Agent.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

MR. DONOVAN: Is there a statement -- another statement to make?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Not at this time.

MR. DONOVAN: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

MR. DONOVAN: Is there a road after this to come back to the Board?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yes, there is.

Executive Director? Do you want to -- you can contact the Board. They'll definitely have that conversation with you. But there is a path to that. But, yeah, I think there needs to be some time and distance between the offenses that you have.

MR. DONOVAN: Thank you.

MR. GRABER: Thank you for your time.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 29, Sequel Tour Solutions. So, Agenda Item No. 29 has postponed.

We have Agenda Item No. 30, Streetplus, LLC. And please tell us a little bit about yourselves and the intentions with the license.

I will have to say -- I'm sorry, just real quick up front. Streetplus is a client of mine, so I'm going to have to recuse myself from the actual final decision. I don't know the individuals or business practices or anything as such, but I just wanted to make sure it was noted on the record.

Gentlemen, please proceed.

MR. HILLARD: Good morning. My name is Steve Hillard. I'm the president and principal of Streetplus Company, LLC. My background is primarily involved in public and federal law enforcement level. And I've been in the security business since 1984. We currently hold a license for security in the State of California. We've had that for 25 years with no violations. And we're currently pending for our license for the State of New York.

Our intentions are solely -- our existing customer in Reno has asked us to come forward and get a security license for them so that we can then look at how to operate their existing security program. We currently cannot provide any security in the state of Nevada.

MR. De SIMONE: Good morning. My name is Patrick De Simone, co-CEO and one of the founders of Streetplus Company, LLC. I have over -- including Streetplus, I have over 30 years of experience providing clean, safe, and hospitality services nationwide.

MR. GOLDBERG: Yes. And I'm David Goldberg, I'm also co-CEO involved in the cleaning, maintenance, security industry since 1991.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Board, are there any questions for the Streetplus group?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez. Question for Investigator Swarthout.

Do we have the fingerprints back for two of the applicants?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: We have both the corporate officers, and we just got the QA fingerprint results back. Both corporate officers' fingerprints were negative. The QA's fingerprints did have a hit for a case out of Florida for August 21st of 1978 out of Pensacola, Florida for damage, public property. It doesn't list much dealing with it. All it says is adjudication withheld on the case for the prints.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That is for Mr. Hillard?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Yes, it is.

MR. HILLARD: That must be --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Mr. Hillard, give me a second.

Could you give me a little bit of background on that incident?

MR. HILLARD: Well --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I realize it's been plenty of time, but...

MR. HILLARD: Completely forgot about it. It was a -- way back when I was in Pensacola in the department of the U.S. Navy. There was a fight that broke out in a bar, and I just happened to be one of the bystanders there that got called in. I completely forgot about that thing and nothing ever happened.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: What was the disposition of the case?

MR. HILLARD: I think they -- all of us -- if I'm remembering correctly, I think all of us had to pay $100 for the damages. And I was one of the outsiders, not even involved in the fight. So we all had to make restitution of $100, I think it was.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay, thank you.

And what is the status of the Citibank Midland credit card, I believe.

MR. HILLARD: Yeah. Those were, as I told the investigator, those were all part of an ongoing divorce settlement that my attorneys are handling for resolution. They've all been cleared and actually contacted them and that was the case.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. Just to confirm, you're now in an agreement -- a payment agreement; is that correct?

MR. HILLARD: Actually, I think it's been settled. Both of them were settled as part of the arrangement. And I think I sent him a letter that showed that from the attorneys that were handling it for me.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Investigator Swarthout, that's correct, right?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Yeah, for the Citibank one. He does have that agreement.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So there is an agreement or it's been paid off?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Yeah. So he entered the agreement to settle it. That's the amount he has to pay, like, 24 payments for it.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So there is a payment plan.

And that's correct, Mr. Hillard? You understand that there is a payment plan? That was my question.

MR. HILLARD: That's my understanding.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay, perfect. Thank you.

MR. HILLARD: You're welcome.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Board Member Gronauer.

Mr. Hillard.

MR. HILLARD: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Again, good morning to you.

MR. HILLARD: Same to you.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: When you were -- worked for Inter-Con Security Systems, it says did not list a supervisor or human resource contact. And did not submit a certificate of support for experience. Why is that?

MR. HILLARD: What was the question again?

I didn't understand it.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Inter-Con Security.

MR. HILLARD: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay. You're general manager. You did not list your supervisor or human resource contact. And you did not submit a certificate in support of experience.

MR. HILLARD: I could not get ahold of anyone that was there when I was there. I was there for two years. Actually, I was working for Kaiser Permanente as a -- for registered security and we went on to a sole source nationwide for all of our security and it was Inter-Con Security. And I was asked to leave and go to Denver for two years during the transition from other security vendors to their vendor for two years. And I don't know who was there. That was quite some time ago.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay, Block By Block in Louisville, same thing.

MR. HILLARD: Again, there's no one there that would verify for me because they are a competitor of ours. So I just listed the corporate address and the contact and the phone number for the investigator to call and confirm.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: And Service Group, Incorporated in Pennsylvania.

MR. HILLARD: Out of business, dissolved. They were purchased by Block By Block.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: So there's no human resources at any of these companies that can give you any information.

MR. HILLARD: I'm sure there are. That's why I gave the phone numbers to those two, because I did not have contact names because the people that -- were not there when I was there.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Human Resources can be there no matter who's there or not.

MR. HILLARD: And I gave the investigator the phone numbers and the addresses to contact.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay. But why give them the numbers when you could contact them?

MR. HILLARD: I'm sorry, what was the question?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You could have contacted them. You had the phone numbers.

MR. HILLARD: I called Block By Block and they're not going to do anything for me because they're a competitor.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: So you have the same story for all three companies.

MR. HILLARD: What's that?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You had the same story for all three companies.

MR. HILLARD: I guess that's correct.

MR. GOLDBERG: If I can Interject.

It's a very small niched kind of business we're in. And those -- SGI, like Steve says, is no longer in existence. And Block By Block is a direct competitor on everything that we bid on. Because we kind of -- it's a niche business of providing safety and clean services for downtowns and business improvement districts.

And to -- just to his point, I don't think they're going to say anything that would be helpful.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Excuse me, sir. Could you tell us who you were, the last person that just spoke?

MR. GOLDBERG: David Goldberg.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Investigator Swarthout, were you able to verify any of this experience for Mr. --

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: I did reach out to all of them trying to find it. I even reached out to Pennsylvania where Service Group, Inc. was based out of and contacted local courts because that's where the license is held from. They don't keep records that old. Inter-Con was the only one also to get back to me. They said because the record of time is so old they don't have any records of it. And I did leave messages with Block By Block and never got anything back from them.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay. All three of you gentlemen, Mr. Hillard, Mr. Goldberg, and Mr. De Simone, are you -- where are you all residing? Mr. Hillard first.

MR. HILLARD: I reside outside of Pennsylvania, outside Philly.

MR. De SIMONE: I reside -- this is Patrick De Simone, I reside in Brooklyn, New York.

MR. GOLDBERG: David Goldberg. I reside in Cranberry, New Jersey.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay, thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, this is Board Member Nixon.

Who will oversee the day-to-day operations of your -- of your -- that you're asking for, a QA for?

MR. Hillard: It would be me. We have transferred an individual from our California division who will be up here, and we will then submit him as the Qualified Agent for the September board meeting.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Got it. Thank you.

MR. HILLARD: You're welcome.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any further questions for the Streetplus group?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I motion Streetplus Company, LLC be approved for a new corporate private patrol officer's license, and Gregory S. Hillard be approved for an individual private patrol officer's license, and his license be placed in abeyance so that he may become the Qualifying Agent. Members to be approved are Gregory S. Hillard, Patrick De Simone, and David Goldberg.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez. I'll second the motion.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present voting Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Three ayes and one -- I recused myself. Motion passes. Thank you.

Congratulations, gentlemen. Good luck to you.

MR. HILLARD: Have a good day.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Private patrol officer, private investigator, and dog handler, we have Agenda Item No. 31, Pinnacle Protection Group.

Gentlemen, just to confirm, you've all be sworn in?

MR. MILLBERN: I actually didn't stand up.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Is there anybody else that has not been sworn in? Let's get this all taken care of.

AUDIENCE MEMBERS,
having been duly sworn,
testified as follows:

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And you were sworn in earlier?

MR. ALEXANDER: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm.

Please tell us a little bit about yourselves and the intentions for the license.

MR. ALEXANDER: So, I am the current PPO QA for Pinnacle Protection Group. I've been the QA since '21.

THE REPORTER: Your name?

MR. ALEXANDER: Dallas Alexander. And I'm here just to support and testify if need to be on Pinnacle Protection Group's prior operation.

MR. ROZEN: And my name is Leor Rozen. I'm one of the current members of the company. Also here to support Ryan as he gets his license for our K-9 and private investigators.

MR. MILLBERN: And my name is Ryan Millbern. I am here for getting the -- licensing for K-9, for private investigator, and then also for PPO.

My background, I know you're asking. I'm originally from southern California. Former law enforcement. I did roughly 15 years in law enforcement across Colorado and Wyoming. In the middle of that I went to Iraq as a private contractor on the Embassy in Baghdad as a K-9 handler and trainer there. My initial K-9 was with the Vail Police Department in Colorado.

After all of that, I went in to K-9, basically full time. After my time in Wyoming, I just, quite honestly, had enough of law enforcement and went and followed my heart with K-9 full time, teaching K-9 police handler schools in North Carolina.

Then the Wynn called, and I was in charge of the Wynn K-9 unit for about five and a half, six years. And then got into the private security side, away from the casino world. And that's where I am now.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Board, any questions for the Pinnacle Group?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Board Member Gronauer.

Mr. Millbern, two police departments. Why did you leave?

MR. MILLBERN: Quite frankly, I was not the husband or the father that I wanted to be, that I should have been. The job was -- it was a rough job, especially being in small town Colorado. The politics of it were not -- were not great. And I started making administrative mistakes and minor mistakes. But they were -- you know, they were important mistakes that I shouldn't have made.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Can you elaborate?

MR. MILLBERN: Sure. Specifically, I was asked to resign from the Vail Police Department for speeding with a prisoner. I was taking a prisoner from Vail to Grand Junction as a transport, and I did 17 miles per hour over for roughly an hour because it's a long drive. But those were the type of mistakes that I was making. Administrative issues. And it was just time for a change. So believe it or not, looking for bombs in Iraq was less stressful than being a cop --

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: But you went to another police department.

MR. MILLBERN: I did. I was recruited by a police chief that was the police chief next to my agency in Colorado. He had moved on to Cheyenne, Wyoming and he recruited me from Iraq because he was familiar with my work ethic and ability there in Colorado and he recruited me.

I decided to go back into law enforcement after three years in Iraq. And did another five years -- five and a half or so in Cheyenne, Wyoming under that police chief.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: And you left there why?

MR. MILLBERN: Honestly, I was seeing the same -- the same issues. I was falling into the same traps of not being a good husband or father and I had no plan. I just -- it was time to give it up. And I did not have a plan yet, but I reached out to some K-9 contacts and quickly became director of working dog operations for a police K-9 under -- in North Carolina.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Did the Cheyenne department ask you to resign?

MR. MILLBERN: No, they did not.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You did that on free will.

MR. MILLBERN: I did. It was a Monday morning and I was putting my stuff on and realized it was time. I needed to make a change.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I had the same angst I had with the other company, the other people, applicants today. You're now employed by Pinnacle?

MR. MILLBERN: I am.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: And you guys are with Pinnacle?

MR. ROZEN: That's correct.

MR. ALEXANDER: Yes, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I was just wondering why you'd confirm a supervisor in all that, but no certificates to support experience and qualifications were submitted. That always bothers me. I don't know why a company doesn't --

MR. MILLBERN: For Pinnacle?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Some -- yeah. There are some that don't, and I understand why, on certain occasions, but most do. You go to your past employment and say, I need a certificate. They give it to you. No problem.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: This is Investigator Blackmore, for the record.

So Mr. Millbern also has a work card, too. He's listed on their roster as well.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Say that again.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Investigator Blackmore, for the record.

Mr. Millbern is listed on Pinnacle Protection's roster since he is also a work card holder as well.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay. And then Kingpin, same thing.

MR. MILLBERN: Specific to K-9, there was -- at least on advice from investigators, there is no hour requirement so there's no requirement for the CSEQ. But I did list names and phone numbers of all of my supervisors. But no CSEQ was provided because none was needed or required.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: And Protective Force?

MR. MILLBERN: Correct.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Investigator Blackmore again, for the record.

So, since Mr. Millbern is a work card holder, when we do the investigations it was advised that he put down any work card related history on to the application as well.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I understand that. But I just don't know why a company doesn't give you a certificate of experience or something. Say, yeah, he worked there, he did a good job. That's the part that bothers me. When major companies, that just -- and these people do have HRs and they have other places and you give the supervisors' names. And I'm not sure why these are not checked through to find out. Why --

MR. MILLBERN: Well, I Certainly can't speak for the companies themselves. But I know I can show that all of them had supervisors listed, as well as phone numbers that were turned over to

Ms. Blackmore and are listed in the applicant background.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Investigator Blackmore, for the record.

As well, too, I did reach out to PFI. They did not give me any clear answer on that. They referred me back to their HR. Their HR never got back to me.

As far as the Simon Protection Group, he did respond that back saying that Ryan was an excellent candidate for the license.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I'm not finished.

Now, the police department asked you to leave. Maybe not -- a lot of times because they asked you to leave, they just stay away from it. I get that. But the one that didn't ask you to leave, again, no certificates.

MR. MILLBERN: Agreed. None were required. Well, no, I take that back. For that one, they did in the -- or in the background, they confirmed the amount of hours and they did speak with not only supervisor, but HR as well. That's, I believe, on page 4.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Investigator

Blackmore, for the record.

As far as for the employment for the City of Cheyenne, as well as Vail, the records were a little too old; however, they were able to provide me with certain time frames of what he actually did during that time of employment. So it wasn't an official CSEQ; however, it came from an official correspondent with that department.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions from the Board?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to approve Pinnacle Protection Group, LLC a new corporate private patrol officer license, private investigator, and dog handler license. Mr. Ryan M. Millbern to be approved for the individual private patrol officer, private investigator, and dog handler license. He's -- and of which, that these licenses be placed in abeyance so that he may become the Qualifying Agent member to be approved is also Ryan M. Millbern. All subject to statutory and regulatory requirements.

MR. ALEXANDER: Excuse me, Board Member

Cortez. Do you want to add that we are going to keep my PPO as the QA, and then we will implement his PI and dog handler as the QA for Pinnacle Protection Group?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Deferring to Executive Director Saladino how to handle that. Because as of right now we only have Mr. Millbern.

MR. ALEXANDER: I wasn't sure if it was some clerical error we made when we were going through the application or if was something that was just miscommunicated on our part.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: He's already a QA for them.

MR. ALEXANDER: Yeah, that was the intent. I didn't know if there had to be something on the record that had to --

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: This is Investigator Blackmore, for the record.

The application that was submitted for Mr. Millbern, he did check off PPO, K-9 handler, and PI as well.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Court's indulgence for one second.

Executive Director, for the record.

So being the way it was reported to us and listed in the application, we have license category private patrol, K-9 handler, and private investigator, and Qualifying Agent for the company.

The only way we would be able to move forward is if -- the way it's agendized right now.

MR. MILLBERN: That's okay. We don't want to create any issues. We'll just, in a future meeting, make that change again.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: So we move forward today, the way it goes, Mr. Millbern will become the Qualifying Agent. So that means your qualifying agent, Mr. Alexander, would be placed in abeyance.

So you have to tell Stephanie, place yours in abeyance for now, and then you would be the Qualifying Agent moving forward. And then at a future -- for a future agenda, we'd be able to situate what needed to be situated that way.

Otherwise, we'd have to -- we'd have to have you actually tell us that you'd like to postpone and we would move forward at a later date where it's not agendized like this.

MR. MILLBERN: I think it sounds like we have a need to do that in the future.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: So which way are we going?

MR. MILLBERN: I would like to move forward, yes, and then we will change --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: With the way it's written --

MR. MILLBERN: With the way it's written, and then, yes, we will, at a future date, get things ironed out.

MR. ALEXANDER: Would that have to be done at a September Board meeting or can it be done administratively?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Well, to place yours in abeyance can be done administratively, that's fine. If we're going to have any other changes in regards to who's to be responsible for each license, then we can do that at a future Board meeting. So it would be a change of status, and you'd be activating your license to be either PPO or PI, or just a PPO. And then Mr. Millbern, he would be the Qualifying Agent for either -- the other categories, whether it be private investigator or K-9 handler. So that would be done at a later date.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, we have a motion, correct, for the Agenda Item as it stands. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

You guys administratively get together and figure out --

MR. MILLBERN: Thank you, Board.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: The next Agenda Item for process servers, we have Shea Breyers (sic).

Is Mr. Breyers here?

MR. BYERS: It's Byers. Good morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good morning. Just want to confirm you've been sworn in?

MR. BYERS: Yes, I was.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Perfect. Please tell us a little bit about yourself, sir, and intentions with the license.

MR. BYERS: Thank you. My name is Shea Byers. I am a Vegas native of -- Las Vegas resident since the age of three. Graduated from UNLV, criminal justice Bachelors in 2014. I registered with the PILB as a work card employee in 2015, and have since worked part time for three different companies. Two of them are process servers and one of them is private investigators.

My intention is to obtain my process server license and maximize my usefulness to the department and secure clients in Nevada and work as a process server.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Board, any questions for Mr. Byers?

MR. BYERS: Byers.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Good morning, Mr. Byers. Are you up to date with your payment plan? You do have quite a few delinquent accounts or payments.

MR. BYERS: Yes. I'm up to date. All payments are being made as regularly scheduled every two weeks.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: When was your last payment made?

MR. BYERS: Friday, June 7.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Last Friday?

MR. BYERS: Yeah. 6th, Sorry. Thank you.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Do you happen to know the balance?

MR. BYERS: I don't offhand. I can find out.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: What are your payments like?

MR. BYERS: 750 a month. They split that up to 325 biweekly.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions for the Board?

Hearing there are no questions -- I do, I'm sorry. Do we have documentation that those payments are up-to-date?

INVESTIGATOR DIAZ: Investigator Diaz, for the record.

We didn't get documentation that he enrolled in the plan. And as of last month it was up to date. Nothing as of June, but I would imagine it most likely is.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Sorry about that.

Hearing no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to approve Mr. Shea Byers an individual process server license, subject to all statutory and regulatory requirements.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Congratulations.

MR. BYERS: Thank you, so much.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good luck to you.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Madam Chair, Executive Director, for the record.

Agenda Item No. 33, Ms. Cohen, she just let us know that she's still in her -- still in court. She's been communicating with Investigator Blackmore to let us know when she gets out. So if we can just trail her. She is aware that -- she's trying to get on the call with us. Whatever is going on, she's still caught up in that.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we'll go ahead and trail to the end.

So now we're in the registration appeals. Does anybody want to take a quick break before we get into this?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Five, yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Up north, we're going to take a quick -- let's take a ten-minute break and then we'll swear everybody back in.

Just as a verification, you guys don't have anybody up north, right?

MR. BEZICK: We do have somebody up here, I think your Item No. 67.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Awesome, thank you.

(Off record.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Is everybody ready? We're good up north? So we're missing one investigator. Let's just hold for a couple of seconds.

(Off record.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: It's 11:28. I'll go ahead and move forward.

Since we've had people coming and going. If you have not been sworn in yet, please stand and get sworn in. Counsel Detmer will swear you in.

AUDIENCE MEMBERS,
having been duly sworn,
testified as follows:

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item -- this is for the -- this agenda section is for the registration appeals.

We're currently on Agenda Item No. 34, Elin or Eline Mosby.

MR. MOSBY: Elgin Mosby.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Elgin, I'm sorry. Please have a seat, sir.

Investigator Blackmore, could you please tell us why we're here for Elgin?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Investigator Blackmore, for the record.

So Mr. Mosby was denied for his disclosed felony and weapon convictions. So he does have a 2007 CCW, 24 months probation. He had a 2008 felony robbery, a 2012 possession of narcotic controlled substance. He did three years' probation. As well as a 2019 DUI that was reduced to reckless driving after doing 36 months' probation.

As far as for the 2008, on the fingerprint report it did show he did 64 months in prison. After some e-mail communication with Mr. Mosby, he was rewarded half time and then he did complete some college courses during that time, so he ended up being released back in 2011 on supervised parole.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And all of this, just to confirm, is disclosed.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Correct. It was disclosed on his paper application submitted to the office. So he wasn't made provisional and he wishes to appeal today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, thank you.

Board, are there any questions for Mr. Mosby?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Good morning, Mr. Mosby. How are you?

MR. MOSBY: Morning.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: On your 2019 DUI case you served 36 months probation?

MR. MOSBY: Yes, yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: What was the term of your probation? Was it positive termination?

MR. MOSBY: Yes, it was positive -- well, it was what you call informal probation. So I didn't have, like, a parole officer, if that's the correct saying it.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: The case is closed, though, correct?

MR. MOSBY: Yeah, it's closed, yeah. I had to do community service, pretty much.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

Okay. Hearing no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to grant Mr. Mosby's work card, or returning the denial.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Congratulations, sir, and thank you for doing what you're supposed to in disclosing all of your arrests and history. Thank you and congratulations.

MR. MOSBY: I have a question about the process. Do I go back up there?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: We'll reach out to you tomorrow in regards to your work card.

MR. MOSBY: I appreciate it. Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you. Good luck to you, sir.

Agenda Item No. 35, Patrick Hamilton. Mr. Hamilton. Okay, we'll trail.

Agenda Item No. 36, Jamelle Brown.

Morning, sir.

MR. BROWN: Good morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Blackmore, could you please tell us why we're here for Mr. Brown?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Yes. So Mr. Brown was denied for failure to disclose, as well as having a weapons conviction, as far as (indiscernible) habits.

So, he did list one arrest on his arrest history. The rest listed off are going to be undisclosed.

There is a 2012 assault in the third degree. He was convicted. He did a 12-month deferral program that was then later dismissed. This arrest was not disclosed.

There is a 2015 assault in the third degree, as well as child abuse. The first charge for the assault was dismissed after diversion. The child abuse was dismissed. This was also not disclosed, but he did provide court documentation.

The third arrest was in 2019. It is a felony. He was convicted. He only listed the harassment part on there, but there's assault on the second degree which was dismissed after the diversion. Second charge was violent crimes to use weapon. That he pled guilty to, as well as the third charge for the harassment. He did two years' probation. He did provide court documentation for this case as well.

And there's also a 2020 assault, third degree, and then crimes against person. These both were in DA denial.

He was made provisional, he was added to Weiser Security and Best Crowd Management, and he wishes to appeal here today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So that I understand fully, out of the four convictions -- or one arrest, there was only one that was disclosed.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Correct. That was the 2019 harassment.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for Mr. Brown?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Brown, is there reason why you failed to disclose all of the criminal history?

MR. BROWN: Truthfully, I just -- in my excitement to get my PILB card, because I just moved out here, I just completely messed it up.

When it came to my arrest record, like, one of those I was never even arrested, I was served a citation. So I didn't think to put that as an arrest. I was never fingerprinted or cuffed or taken in or anything like that.

And then whether it came to the ones that are dismissed completely, my lawyer, from Colorado, of course, told me that they were sealed. And I didn't know exactly what to do, so I did -- working with the investigator, I did reach out to the courts and try to get as much records as I could to try and rectify my mistake.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you fill out the application yourself?

MR. BROWN: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Online or hard copy?

MR. BROWN: Hard copy.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you read it slowly and carefully?

MR. BROWN: It was not slowly. I tried to -- I was just getting excited to get started.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on no disclosure of all of the arrest history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, you will not be awarded your work card unfortunately because you did not disclose those arrests.

You do have a record of them now with your fingerprints, so you are able to come back in one year from today, right? And reapply. And then make sure that you disclose all of this so that, you know, your process will go a lot smoother the next time around.

MR. BROWN: Okay, no problem.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you. Good luck to you.

MR. BROWN: No problem. Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 37 has withdrawn.

Agenda Item No. 38, Crystal Adams.

Good morning, ma'am.

MS. ADAMS: Morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Blackmore, could you tell us why we're here for Ms. Adams?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Yes. So Ms. Adams was denied for her failure to disclose her arrest history.

Upon receiving the report, I did request some court documents via e-mail. I have since not heard anything back regarding those. There was a 2008 grand theft of a shoplift. No disposition on the fingerprints.

Another 2008 burglary. No disposition for the fingerprint results.

She also was made provisional and she was not added on to a roster. There was a late edit to the report. I didn't -- encounter Ms. Adams at EDC this year. She did try providing an expired provisional in order to work. She was informed that she cannot be working when she is in a denied status.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Ms. Adams?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Just to be clear, the April 17th arrest was disclosed, but not the July 18th; is that --

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Correct. So, yes, she did put that one down on her original application, yes. So that is a yes. So the 2008 for the shoplift, that was disclosed. But the 2008 burglary was not disclosed.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay.

Ms. Adams, is there a reason why you did not disclose the burglary charge?

MS. ADAMS: I don't know of any burglary charge. I had a shoplifting charge that was a felony that was reduced down to a misdemeanor. And I spent a week in jail. I don't know anything else about any other charges. Because I haven't been in any trouble since then.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So, there are two incidents within the same year. You have one on April 17th, that was the shoplifting one that you're discussing today.

And then there was a July 18th, that was the burglary charge, that reportedly you were arrested for this incident as well.

MS. ADAMS: I was not arrested for that. I don't know anything about that.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Investigator Blackmore, do we show that the July 18th or the 21st was, in fact, an arrest?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: As far as that goes, so on the fingerprint report listed on July 18th of 2008 for a burglary. And then three days later there was another hit with the fingerprints for one count of burglary, another count burglary second degree, and then the third count, which was grand theft.

I did reach out to the applicant via e-mail to try to obtain court documentation for those cases, what the final disposition was, but I never received anything.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just because this has happened in the past, is there any way that these are what they call stacked?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: As far as -- I believe I only requested the very first incident, which was the July 18th one. I had kind of a feeling that the three-day later one that was in relation to that original charge on July 18th.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: But the April 17th and the July 18th couldn't be stacked?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Possibly. But I did request court documentation for that just to confirm and I never received anything.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, got you.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Ms. Adams, when you say -- for the shoplifting event, tell me again what, was the disposition? What did you have to do?

MS. ADAMS: That was at Burlington. I was arrested for shoplifting. I served a week in jail. I served a week; they gave me time served. And they let me go on my own recognizance and just said stay out of trouble. And I haven't been in trouble since then. I've been out here in Vegas. I moved out here July 2009 and I've been out here ever since.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Do you happen to know if you have any active warrants?

MS. ADAMS: I don't have any warrants. I don't have any speeding tickets. I don't have --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay, thank you.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer.

Ms. Adams, when they let you out on your own recog, right, what happened after that?

MS. ADAMS: My daughter brought me out here. Nothing. They just said stay out of trouble. I did time served, and it was just stay out of trouble.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Okay. Well, time served and then out on your own recog are two different things, okay? Time served says I'm guilty, I'm charged, I'm guilty and that's it. But then you were left out with own recog. Recog means you're out waiting to go back to court.

MS. ADAMS: Okay.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I'm just trying to figure out if they upped the charge from the misdemeanor, because sometimes shoplifting can become burglary. Depends how it's all written up. And so I'm just -- I think, as the chairwoman asked earlier, they might be together and may not.

And it's just difficult, because if you were -- when you say time served, just redundant, and you say I got out on my own recog, that's two different things. Own recog, you're out free on your own recognition, just so that you can be called back for another trial date. Or a trial date. Or a hearing date, put it that way.

MS. ADAMS: Okay.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: So I'm not sure. I'm more confused about -- I just don't want to see you taking a second rap when you have one rap.

MS. ADAMS: Right.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You only know what happened to you at the court stuff. Stay out of trouble. Yeah, you're out on your own recog, stay out of trouble. There's got to be some more to that. There's -- that's getting to the cliff without falling over. I'm just trying to figure out what happened.

MS. ADAMS: First of all, it was -- like I said, a felony. And because I served time they did drop it to a misdemeanor. And the only thing -- I didn't have to check in with a probation -- first of all, I had no priors. I had no priors of anything. So that was my first time. So it was a felony because the situation -- because I had no priors they dropped it down to a misdemeanor. I didn't have to pay any restitution. I did not have a PO, they just said stay out of trouble.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: It was a felony down to a misdemeanor. I mean, the dates are a little bit -- it's a little messy.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I'm wondering if you were -- when you got detained and arrested, when you say you got released on your own recognizance, I'm thinking, did you get released and then you went back to court?

MS. ADAMS: No. They said I didn't have to come back to court. I didn't have to pay restitution. My lawyer just said -- and the judge said, stay out of trouble.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. So right when you said the judge said, you never appeared in front of court? You never appeared in front of a judge?

MS. ADAMS: When it all happened I did.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That's my question.

MS. ADAMS: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So you get arrested, you get released, and then go to court?

MS. ADAMS: No.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: From jail you went to court.

MS. ADAMS: From jail I went to court. And they were trying to put me on paper and say I had some other stuff. But I had no priors. So --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: When you're saying released on your own recognizance, is that your terminology or did you get that from court?

MS. ADAMS: I got that from court.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Do you have any of that paperwork?

MS. ADAMS: I don't.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And again, the reason why it's two different things. When you go -- when you get arrested and then you go to court, the judge made the disposition saying time -- credit for time served.

MS. ADAMS: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Now you're released, case is done, over. But when you're saying released on your own recognizance, that means you're pending a court hearing.

MS. ADAMS: Oh, sorry.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That's why we need a little bit of clarification. Unfortunately, we don't have the court minutes to read exactly what occurred.

MS. ADAMS: Okay.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: It sounds like you were released credit for time served.

MS. ADAMS: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: But the released on your own recognizance, and then what's also kind of doubling down on this is that you have an incident in July. So a couple months later, which makes it sound like -- okay. So if you were released on your own recognizance, I'm wondering -- there's a court date pending because there's some information that's a possible warrant out. So we don't have -- unfortunately, we don't have the disposition of what occurred in July. You don't recall ever being cited or arrested for a burglary that occurred months after.

MS. ADAMS: No.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Shoplifting event.

MS. ADAMS: No.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Again, it could be because a DA looked at the paperwork and charged you for burglary because the grand theft, the shoplifting was elevated to -- or they added charges. So again, without the court minutes, it's hard to -- to understand what exactly went -- occurred. It sounds like you did credit for time served. But again, we don't have court minutes to verify that.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer

again.

You said burglary, okay?

MS. ADAMS: Huh?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You said it was an arrest for burglary; they changed it.

MS. ADAMS: No, it was arrest for -- for stealing. The charge was for stealing.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Entering a structure with intent to commit becomes a burglary if they want to write it that way.

MS. ADAMS: Okay.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I'm just trying to -- you know, if the burglary happened in April and then the misdemeanor thing was July, that, to me, would straighten it all out with the court. But at this point, I'm just confused. So without, again, the court minutes, find out what happened here. Because it makes no sense at this point. To you or to me.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So, it is your testimony today that there was no burglary --

MS. ADAMS: No.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: -- incident that occurred in July?

MS. ADAMS: No.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Then, Investigator Blackmore, we have on the fingerprints that there was an arrest?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: That she was fingerprinted, yes, but there was no final disposition on it, so that's why I reached out for court documentation to confirm.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Yeah. It's still out there in the wind.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: But as of today, you do not show there is an active warrant, right?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: It doesn't show it on the prints. Normally it will say if it was warrant status.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any further questions?

I feel as though this one's -- you know, we're going to make a decision on it, but I feel like this one still has got some questions that we don't have answered for the Board.

So I think, you know, should you go forward, I think you're going to have to request from Santa Ana the court documents showing exactly what happened, and then provide it to the investigator so that we can move forward, okay? If that makes sense.

So until we can -- we'll make a decision today, but until you can provide that information, that's going to be your challenge. For me, anyway.

Board, seeing there's no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Madam Chair -- this is Board Member Cortez, for the record.

Madam chair, are we willing to entertain postponing versus making a decision of possible denial?

It appears as our investigator did the due diligence and she's also having challenges getting the court documents back. So I'm going to assume that Ms. Adams is also going to come up against the same challenges. Do we want to postpone or just move forward with a decision?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: If we postpone, you have to request it.

MS. ADAMS: Okay.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: If we come up with a decision today, if it comes down negative, we're not going to grant your work card, you have to wait a year. If you postpone it, you can get within the next meeting, with the proper paperwork, and redo this thing.

MS. ADAMS: Okay. Let's redo it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You want to postpone?

MS. ADAMS: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So, then, what we're going to do is go ahead and --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Or maybe she'd like to withdraw and then resubmit once court paperwork is presented.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I think postpone is probably better.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: I think postponing is the best way to do it. That way, then, contact the investigator so we can get you -- if we have any case numbers or anything from the fingerprint report to help you with Santa Ana. And we'll try on our end, too, to look up Santa Ana to see if we can find the court docs as well.

So you might have to go to California to request it, because California is kind of wonky in regards to the court documents. But it's definitely better than if the Board was to rule today, you'd have to wait a year. If we postpone, we get court documents, you come back in September and we've got better action that way. We'll have more answers.

MS. ADAMS: Okay. I can do that.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: But just to be clear, you cannot work because you currently do not have a work card. So as a security officer, you cannot work; is that understood?

MS. ADAMS: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: All right. Until you get all of this cleared up.

MS. ADAMS: Situated.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yeah. So, then, for us there's nothing for me to say other than she's decided to postpone.

DAG DETMER: I would say under the circumstances, it might be cleaner with a vote.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So under these circumstances, it would be -- are we voting on postponing?

DAG DETMER: With this, yes, I would say --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we're going to go ahead and entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to postpone Agenda Item No. 38, Mrs. Crystal Adams applying for appealing the denial of a registration card, giving the applicant an opportunity to obtain the court documents explaining incidents that occurred in April 17th, 2008, as well as July 18th, 2008.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, as soon as you get your paperwork, provide it to Investigator Blackmore, and then we'll be able to get some of this worked out for you at the next meeting, okay?

MS. ADAMS: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You're welcome.

Agenda Item No. 39, Ferdinando Quezada. Do we have Ferdinando?

We'll go ahead and trail that to the end.

Agenda Item No. 40, Nicole Murray. Morning, still.

MS. MURRAY: Morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And I think I've seen you, you were sworn in just a --

MS. MURRAY: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Got you.

Investigator Blackmore, could you please tell us why we're here for Ms. Murray?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Ms. Murray was denied for failure to disclose and being convicted of a felony. She had a 1995 felony conviction. There were four counts total. Counts I through III, forged access card to defraud. Those three were dismissed. The fourth one was a conviction and it was three years' probation, four days in jail. The rest was dismissed under California Penal Code 1203.4. I did request documentation for that, but that was not received. In 1997 there was a felony conviction. Count I was burglary; II, forgery; and III was possession of ID through fraud. There was no disposition for a fingerprinting report. Counts I through VI were going to be the convictions, so false impersonation of other, attempted grand theft, and false ID to a police officer. The rest was also dismissed under California Penal Code 1203.4. Also did request documentation but that was not received.

She was made initially provisional in order to secure a roster, and she wishes to appeal here today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for Ms. Burn (sic)?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez, for the record.

Ms. Burn (sic), why did you fail to disclose your criminal history?

MS. MURRAY: I provided my documentation from California to Investigator Blackmore.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you fill out the application on your own?

MS. MURRAY: I did. It was online.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. And did you read the part -- or there's a page that specifically says to stop and to list all of your arrests and/or criminal history, despite the disposition, even if it includes a dismissal.

So my question to you is, why did you fail to report it on the application?

MS. MURRAY: I filled it out online. And I probably did not pay attention to that part. But when Investigator Blackmore --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I just want to show you just so you see this, this is the online application. There is a specific page, looks exactly like this. Says stop. And it will also list to include the California PC 1203.4 dismissal.

MS. MURRAY: Okay. So I've been here for six years, came from California. I come from a background from Oakland, California. So I was raised by a young mother and, you know, subsequently entered into urban society that, you know, caused me to be around the wrong people and do wrong things.

So I do understand what I did and served my little 28-day sentence. According to the courts, I was -- all my stuff was dismissed. Also, George Cardalas (ph) took in account the subsequent acts that I had done. And under the 1203.4(c) in California, states that I have to wait three years before I can even apply for a dismissal.

So, when I was working with Investigator Blackmore, she said that it's not considered a true dismissal, because at the time of the arrest when I go to court, I'm supposed to apply then. But that is for the State of Nevada, not the State of California law.

So it's sort of like a conflict, because the two states have different rules. So if I'm living in California and I'm going by the California rules where these acts occurred, I have to follow those rules. And then when I came to Nevada, you know, I'm trying to get my card. But she's saying, hey, this one incidence is different. But I'm, like, I wasn't even in the State of Nevada. So what am I going to do?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just so you understand. Each state has its own state laws, right? The Nevada state law clearly, for the license -- purpose of the licensing for the PILB, clearly states on that document that she just showed you, and it -- because we had so many issues with California folks saying that they didn't understand. We actually noted it on there as well. It says even if you have a dismissal of California, whatever that code is. So, you know, we try to make it as simple as possible so that -- if there was some sort of conflict. But unfortunately, as you move from state to state you have to abide by each state's laws.

It's the same thing as, like, for example, you need a driver's license, right? If you go to California -- when you came to Nevada you had to get another driver's license, right? Because the laws here in Nevada are different than California.

So, unfortunately, it asks you to disclose any arrest or convictions, and so that is what we ask for as a part of our licensing.

MS. MURRAY: When you get fingerprinted and you go to the office, they don't ask for that information right there. It's asking for -- it's asking for it on the application online. So if we're not paying attention to that, then that's when the mistake, you're saying, occurred.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yes.

MS. MURRAY: I do work for -- I do work for Clark County as a foster parent, and I've had the background investigation. So I do take care of, like, our most vulnerable kids, high level of care as well. So I also am a care driver and had to do a background check for that as well.

And I'm just confused as to why, if I can take care of these children that I've been taking care of for three years, and work for Clark County, why can't I be a security guard?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Every -- every government agency is different.

MS. MURRAY: Right.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Ours is different. And it clearly states what our expectations are. And I understand that, you know, and we appreciate the work that you do for the county. It's admirable work. But unfortunately, our rules are very clear. And so, as you apply for different agencies, you're going to have to abide by that agency's regulations.

And it's clearly stated.

MS. MURRAY: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Are there any further questions?

MS. MURRAY: One last thing.

And I did, when Investigator Blackmore asked me to get the information from California because she wanted to see the disposition from the judge dismissal, I sent her by e-mail the receipt that I -- that I paid for, $15, for those records from California in March. I sent her an e-mail with that. And they never responded. Because this happened 28 years ago.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Investigator, Blackmore for the record.

She also provided me a copy of her California DPS report, too. And it also states on there, too, it was for (indiscernible) --

THE REPORTER: Can you repeat that?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Yeah. As far as receiving the documentation, I don't recall seeing anything from March being sent to me; however, she did provide a copy of her DPS report from California.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Board, are there any further questions for Ms. Burns?

Hearing no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on failure to disclose the criminal history as instructed on the application.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

So, again, ma'am, you're able to apply again in one year. And, you know, you have all the information, you understand the rules, so hopefully you will come back and see us.

MS. MURRAY: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Have a wonderful day.

Agenda Item No. 41. Douglas Taylor. Mr. Taylor? Okay. We'll trail Agenda Item No. 41.

Agenda Item No. 42, Christopher Jordan.

MR. JORDAN: Morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yeah, good morning. Right, on the cuff, thank you.

Investigator Blackmore, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Jordan?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Yes.

So, Mr. Jordan was denied for his undisclosed weapon conviction. Mr. Jordan has a 2007 CCW in vehicle. He did two days in jail as a conviction. Was later dismissed under 1203.4.

As well as there's a 2003 DUI that resulted in three years' probation. He was being provisional, but not added to anyone's roster and he wishes to appeal here today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for Mr. Jordan?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Jordan, why did you fail to disclose your history?

MR. JORDAN: Well, because in California I was told I didn't have to do it. And I wasn't aware that in Nevada it was different. I didn't even know that. Had I known that I would have disclosed it.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you fill out the application yourself?

MR. JORDAN: No, my girlfriend did it for me. And I -- yeah. She did it online for me. And I wasn't aware of that, I had to put that down. Had I known I would have put it down.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood, thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions for Mr. Jordan? Okay.

I'll entertain a motion hearing there are no further questions.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on failure to disclose criminal history on the application as indicated.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer second --

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Again, sir, you have an opportunity to come back in one year. All the stuff is documented for you. The office will work with you, and we hope to see you again in a year. Good luck.

MR. JORDAN: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 43, Angeline Hoke (sic). Hodge, sorry.

Investigator Blackmore, could you tell us why we're here for Ms. Hodge.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Yes. Investigator Blackmore, for the record.

Ms. Hodge was denied for her undisclosed arrest history, including a felony and temperate habits.

She has a 2008 felony conviction, assault, second degree, intent to cause physical harm with injury -- I'm sorry, physical injury with weapon, slash, instrument. She did five years' probation for that.

There was a 2006 conviction. Charges I and II were assault in the second degree. She did 148 days' confinement. Charges III, IV, and V were nolle prosequi. So it was nondestruction (ph) of property, attempted robbery, and attempted theft.

There was another 2008 conviction. Charges I through III, there weren't any disposition for the fingerprinting report. But it was resisting arrest, obstruction of government administration, and disorderly conduct. Fourth charge was assault in the third degree. She was convicted of 30 days' jail.

There was another 2008 arrest as well. Both these charges, there was no disposition per the fingerprint report. First charge was assault in the second degree. And then the second charge was criminal possession of a weapon in the fourth degree with intent to use.

As well as a 2012 conviction. Charges I through III there was no disposition. First charge was assault in the second degree. Second charge is menacing weapon. Third charge was criminal possession of a weapon. And the fourth charge was disorderly conduct.

She was convicted, and then she had a conditional discharge of a protection order at that time. She was made provisional but she was not added to any roster, and she wishes to appeal here today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Board, any questions for Ms. Hodge?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Ms. Hodge, why did you fail to disclose any of your criminal history?

MS. HODGE: Well, I didn't fail. I didn't say I failed to disclose it. I literally did not bring it up because I didn't think it would be accountable after receiving a security license in New York City.

I do know the State of Nevada is different from New York, which is why I came -- I've been here for one year. So I moved here to see if I can become a security guard of Nevada. I did change my life over since 2012. As you can see, that's the last history of me having any disorderly or any disruptive behavior in regards to not being a productive pedestrian.

In New York City I did change my life around. I was managed to be a security guard in New York. I worked for JFK airport, as well as Allied Universal Security. I did the college campus, as well as JFK airport as a card screener for Delta Airlines.

So I am trying my best to change my life around for the positive of being a good pedestrian. Right now I work as a prep cook at the Venetian in the hotel, as well as Allegiant Stadium guest service experience. I have two jobs.

The reason why I took the -- failed to -- want to get into security, that was something I was reaching to do as a teenager. I ended up detouring myself because, like, life changes. Mom's kicked me out, blah, blah, blah, a bunch of life problems. Has nothing to do with not able to product myself productively in society.

So I do forgive my past for my actions. I was a young teenager. I wasn't really understanding the whole aspect of what law people was talking about when my moms put me out. So I was, like, going off on my experience living in her throne of her castle, then being on my own independently and seeing things for what it is for my tone of eyesight. So I apologize for all of that.

I did not -- intentionally did not want to disclose my behavior of conduct. Because, like I said, in New York I was a security guard and I do know it takes 10 to 15 years before you get the certificate of good conduct release.

So I did manage to get that. So I didn't know it was going to affect the application moving forward because I did know I received that good conduct certificate stating, okay, you kind of all right, on the right path of being out of the destructive path of being a criminal into the state. So that's why I was unaware of to mention it. It wasn't because I was causing anything, I just didn't think it was...

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you fill out the application yourself?

MS. HODGE: Yes, I did, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you go nice and slow?

MS. HODGE: Yes, I did.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you skip the page where it said to stop and list all of your criminal history?

MS. HODGE: I probably did skip, or probably did not mention to write it, yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That's what it looks like, and it tells you to list all of it. Okay? So it's not that -- because of what you've done in your criminal past, it's based on failing to follow the instructions based on the instructions on the actual application. So I just want to make sure you understand that, okay?

MS. HODGE: Yes, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And I do congratulate you for staying out of trouble since then.

MS. HODGE: Thank you.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: No further questions.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

Hearing there are no further questions I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on failure to disclose any of her criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So unfortunately, because you did not disclose you will not be able to get your work card today. But you do have an opportunity to come back in one year.

You've done such great work. We're really proud of you. You've been able to do that. We would really like to see you come back in a year.

Make sure you disclose everything. The licensing office will help you with that because they have everything documented. So they'll have all the dates and times and stuff that happened, okay?

If you want to provide your certificate or anything else along with that, that certainly would help. But unfortunately today, because of the failure to follow the paperwork, we're not able to approve you, okay?

MS. HODGE: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We look forward to seeing you soon.

MS. HODGE: Hopefully be on that side of the bench with you. That's why I was doing it in New York.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you. Take care.

MS. HODGE: Have a great one.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You, too.

Agenda Item No. 44, Jonathan Walker.

Because we've had people come in and out, I just want to make sure, sir, have you been --

MR. WALKER: Yes, I have.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: -- sworn in?

MR. JORDAN: Sworn in.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Investigator Blackmore, would you please tell us why we're for Mr. Walker?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Yes.

Mr. Walker was denied for failure to disclose his arrest history.

There was a 1995 felony arrest on his fingerprint report. It was grand theft prior plus $400.

I did request court documents via e-mail but they were never received.

He was made provisional but not added to a roster, and he wishes to appeal here today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any questions for Mr. Walker?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Walker, do you happen to have your court documents today?

MR. WALKER: No, I wasn't able to get them.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood. Is there a reason why you failed to disclose them?

MR. WALKER: There's no good reason why I failed to disclose them. But the general reason why is because, like some of the other people here, I did have a guard card in California. And I actually went through the whole program where the people actually help you fill it out. And that -- it was a similar question on their form. But I was told not to put that because my prior -- my prior acts was way in the past and it wouldn't come up.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: When you say you were told not to put it, you were told not to put that on a California application or this current application?

MR. WALKER: On the California application. So I just -- my negligence assumed that in Nevada it would be the same thing, but it's not.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And you filled out the application on your own?

MR. WALKER: Yes, I did.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. I'd encourage you to go slow and read every single page in the event -- whatever decision comes out today, you choose to move forward with applying again.

MR. WALKER: Correct.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any further questions for Mr. Walker?

Hearing there are no further questions,

I'll entertain a notion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on failure to disclose any criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So the motion passes.

Sir, again, we hope to see you back in one year.

MR. WALKER: Okay, No problem.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You have all that information. Good luck to you sir.

Agenda Item No. 45, Christopher Crowcraft (sic).

MR. JORDAN: Cocroft.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good afternoon, sir.

Investigator Blackmore -- and I've seen you, but you've been -- to confirm, you've been sworn in?

MR. COCROFT: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator

Blackmore, why are we here for Mr. Cocroft?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Yeah. So Mr. Cocroft was denied for failure to disclose a weapons conviction.

I do want to make a note that he was previously denied in 2011 for the weapon conviction, but it looks like -- considering the record is so old, he did not go before the Board at that time. It was a 2005 conviction. He did $500 for the fine, 26 days' confinement.

There was also a 2008 possession of marijuana conviction. He did 12 months' probation. Since a note was pretty old, he was made provisional but he was not added to a roster.

Since then, he has provided court documents; however, the court documents is only the sealment of his Nevada records, nothing from California.

MR. JORDAN: Georgia.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Georgia. Sorry about that.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Mr. Cocroft?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Cocroft, you know my question.

MR. COCROFT: I do know your question.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Why did we fail to disclose it on this application?

MR. COCROFT: UnFortunately, again, it happened when I was a lot younger. I've been filling out background documents for quite a while. And usually, the question is for the last seven years. So I didn't read the bold print after I looked over it and it said all. I didn't see that part. So I disclosed everything within the past seven years. And I -- again, it was so long ago, I -- I figured I didn't need to put it on there.

Once I received my denial I remembered, okay, I looked it over again and saw the "all" in bold letters and I was, like, oh, shoot. Look at that. So, I just -- I didn't -- like you've been mentioning all day, I didn't take my time looking at the information that was clearly right in front of my face.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Mistakes happen.

MR. COCROFT: Again, I've been doing security since 2008 as of right now, and my most recent role is an assistant director of security. And I've been doing background things since then.

And most of the time, even when I did my gaming registration, that all just -- I didn't see it all.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood, thank you.

MR. COCROFT: My apology.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any further questions?

Hearing there are no further questions I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on failure to disclose criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You have one year and we look forward to seeing you again.

MR. COCROFT: Sorry. Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 46, Stephanie Powell. Ms. Powell? We'll trail that.

Agenda Item No. 47, George Cocucci. We'll trail.

Agenda Item No. 48, Gerald Defrance. Trail.

Before I go any further, is that past the time?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Madam Chair, Agenda Items 34 through 47 were told to be here at 10:30. So from that block, we have trailed item 35, 39, 41, 46 and 47.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: 48.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: When is the next block?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: 11:30.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Which we're into now.

So we'll go back. Let's close out the first block of time that we had.

So as it stands right now, we have trailed 35, Patrick Hamilton. Are you here, sir? Okay.

We've also trailed 39, Fernando Quezada. Okay. Not here.

We've trailed Douglas Taylor. Not here.

And we've trailed Stephanie Powell. Not here.

And the last one was George Cocucci. Not here.

So, since they were supposed to be here from 10:30, it's now 12:16, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denials for Agenda Items No. 35, 39, 41, 46, and 47. All were told to be here by 10:30, it is now 12:16 p.m.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Now we're into block -- second block, starts at 11:30 and goes to when?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: 12:30.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We should have everybody here.

Okay. Agenda Item No. 49, Mary Johnson.

Good morning, ma'am.

MS. JOHNSON: Good morning.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to verify, have you been sworn in?

MS. JOHNSON: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Investigator Cuevas, could you tell us why we're here for Ms. Johnson?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: Yes. Investigator Cuevas, for the record.

Ms. Johnson was denied for the conviction of CCW on person from 1994. She did disclose this arrest on her application. This is the only arrest she has. She received a 36-month probation period and a work program. She was not made provisional and is here to appeal.

THE COURT: Okay. Board, any questions for Ms. Johnson?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant Mrs. Johnson her work card based on full disclosure of her criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer second.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Congratulations, ma'am. Good luck to you.

MS. JOHNSON: Thank you, so much.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good luck to you.

MS. JOHNSON: Thank you, so much. Because I did a transfer from California in January and I've been working with them for 13 years. And I wasn't explained this process, so I've just been waiting patiently. Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You're very welcome. Good luck.

MS. JOHNSON: So, do I go back to the office for the card?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: I'll call you tomorrow and tell you how everything will be set up for you.

MS. JOHNSON: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 50, Thomas McNeely.

MR. McNEELY: Good afternoon.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good afternoon, sir.

Investigator Cuevas, could you please tell us why we're here for Mr. McNeely?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: Yes. Mr. McNeely was denied for a felony conviction from 1992 for ex-felon in possession of a firearm. He also has a 1984 felony for assault, second degree. And then a 1979 felony for armed assault with intent to murder. And then a misdemeanor from 2000 for obstructing a peace officer.

He did disclose all arrests on the application. He was not made provisional and does wish to appeal.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for -- is it McNeely?

MR. McNEELY: McNeely.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Mr. McNeely.

Okay, hearing there's no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. Make a motion to grant Mr. Thomas McNeely his registration card for full disclosure and time and distance.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

Aye.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Aye.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Aye.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board Member Cortez is indisposed at this moment, so it's three to one, I guess.

DAG DETMER: It would be a no vote. It's still a majority.

This is Mike Detmer for the record.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a no vote on Board Member Cortez. The vote passes.

Congratulations, sir.

MR. McNEELY: Thank you, so much. Thank you, guys.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good luck to you.

Agenda Item No. 51, Pam Fitzgerald.

MS. FITZGERALD: Yes, ma'am. How you doing today?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good. How are you?

MS. FITZGERALD: Nervous. See how this goes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Have you been sworn in, ma'am? Did you stand up and get sworn in?

MS. FITZGERALD: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: No, she did not.

MS. FITZGERALD: I did that when you --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: What she's asking is if you stood up and taken a sworn statement that you were going to testify to tell the truth today. So you need to be sworn in because you have not done that.

MS. FITZGERALD: Okay. So what...

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Hang on.

Is there -- because I've seen people coming and going. If anybody else is going to testify today and they have not been sworn in, please go ahead and stand up and raise your right hand.

AUDIENCE MEMBERS,
having been duly sworn,
testified as follows:

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Now you can sit down.

Investigator Cuevas, could you tell us why we're here for Ms. Fitzgerald?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: Yes.

Ms. Fitzgerald was denied for illicit weapon conviction. She was previously denied in a September 2023 Board meeting for failure to disclose. Since then, she is now reapplying and has disclosed all arrests and she wishes to appeal.

Those arrests, as I mentioned, was for carry concealed weapon without a permit from 2021 for a misdemeanor. She did receive credit for time served. In 2018, violation of domestic violence TPO. 2018 domestic battery. And then a 2018 assault with deadly weapon. And lastly, a 2017 misdemeanor, trespass, not amounting to burglary.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just so -- all of those were disclosed.

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for Ms. Fitzgerald?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez.

Ms. Fitzgerald, thank you for disclosing your criminal history, No. 1.

Talk to me about your 2021 carrying a concealed weapon without your permit.

MS. FITZGERALD: I live -- I live in a rough neighborhood. I already been jumped, already been beat up, somebody tried to rape me in there. So I have to have some kind of -- you know, some kind of protection. I work, I come home. I take care of my grandmother. She's, like, 88. And I just -- I don't know. The neighborhood we live in is not so good. We're working on getting a new house. So...

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Have you obtained your CCW yet?

MS. FITZGERALD: What's that?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That's your concealed weapons permit.

MS. FITZGERALD: Oh, no. I don't even carry weapons any more.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That was my next question. Because it sounds like you were giving an excuse as to why you were carrying the weapon. While I understand what you're saying --

MS. FITZGERALD: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: -- there are regulations that you have to have prior to you carrying a weapon just freely.

MS. FITZGERALD: I know that.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So you understand you cannot carry a weapon.

MS. FITZGERALD: I understand. I haven't carried one in, like, over two years.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Perfect.

No further questions.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions for the Board?

Hearing there's no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant Ms. Fitzgerald her work card based on full disclosure of her criminal history this time around.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, motion passes. You'll get your card and the office will contact you tomorrow, okay?

MS. FITZGERALD: You have my phone number? You have the right phone number?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: It would have been the one that I sent your e-mail. I'm going to e-mail you tomorrow.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good luck. Congratulations.

Agenda Item No. 52, LaTasha Broom.

MS. FITZGERALD: I keep this stuff, right?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yes. You're fine, ma'am.

LaTasha Broom? We'll trail.

Agenda Item No. 53, Nikolas Mendez.

MR. MENDEZ: Yes, hi. How are you guys doing today?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good. How are you?

MR. MENDEZ: Very good. Thank you for asking. God bless you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Cuevas, could you please tell us why we're here for Mr. Mendez?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: Yes. Mr. Mendez was denied for failure to disclose his 2020 arrest for assault. He did not disclose the arrest. And I'm not sure if you read the summary report, if you have questions.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You're okay.

So Board, do you have any questions for Mr. Mendez?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Before we start, Madam Chair, I do have a question for Mr. Mendez.

Did you happen to do any juvenile correction time here in Nevada?

MR. MENDEZ: Yes, but they never said that --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Hang on one second.

What unit were you in?

MR. MENDEZ: I don't remember. This was a long time ago. I'm --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Hang on one second. There's a reason why I'm asking.

MR. MENDEZ: I don't remember, no. They never told me this would go on my adult record, that's why.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Do you happen to recall what years you did time in juvenile detention? And that was here in Nevada.

MR. MENDEZ: 2018, yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You don't recall the unit? You said 2018?

MR. MENDEZ: Yeah. It was a long time ago. I mean --

THE REPORTER: Can you slow down, please? I have trouble keeping up with you.

MR. MENDEZ: I'm a good guy --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We just --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Hang on.

The reason why I'm asking is because I worked there. Do I look familiar to you?

MR. MENDEZ: I don't remember you, no. I mean, I changed my license --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Hang on one second. I'm asking you reasons for this because I used to work there.

MR. MENDEZ: I don't remember you --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I need to make sure if I need to recuse myself from this decision.

MR. MENDEZ: No. I don't remember you. This is a long time ago. That's why -- I've completely moved on from this situation. Look, I'm a good guy. I don't do drugs, I never smoked --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I understand that. Just give me a second, because there are things that I need to take care of before I can move forward.

I do not -- he's not coming to me immediately within my memory, so I do feel that I can move forward in making a decision without any conflict.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have that for the record.

Are there any questions for Mr. Mendez?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Again, this is Board Member Cortez for the record.

Could you give me a brief description of what occurred on the 2020 case? It was an assault case?

MR. MENDEZ: Can I say my part?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yes, sir.

MR. MENDEZ: So, in 2020 I had a heated argument with my adopted dad. We had an argument. He doesn't like me. I'm a good guy --

THE REPORTER: Sir -- sir, I'm going to interrupt you. I need you to try to please slow down.

MR. MENDEZ: So, he lied to police. He called Metro. He made up a lie. I knocked over a small plastic chair, like, a red small plastic chair. And he lied to police, called police. My mom, who was a witness of the situation, she wouldn't -- she went to court with me and I was proven innocent. They dropped the case. I never did any jail time. I was arrested for five hours. They released me after five hours. I went to court, they dropped the case. I mean, even the lawyers told me that I would not have this on my record because they just dropped the case. I didn't do anything. I was never convicted. I don't have any felony. I never did anything. So, I mean, I was innocent and vindicated of the situation. That's why I never did any jail time. I have a witness. My mom was there. She saw the whole entire thing unfold. Metro never got my side of the story, they just arrested me. And I was proven innocent. So, I mean, this was a very complex situation back -- I see your perspective, (indiscernible) paperwork, but I never was proven guilty. There's a difference between arrested and guilty.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. If -- mom, if you want to come in and sit, I just don't know, unless the Board indulges that they want to get your statement, then they'll ask, okay?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I do have further questions.

Nikolas, is there a reason why you did not disclose on this application that 2020 incident?

MR. MENDEZ: Because I was proven innocent. And also, I was a little skeptical because the lawyer told me that this is not going to go on your record. You're going to be removed of this. It's not going to have any record. Because they dropped the case. I was, like, a little confused.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you fill out the application on your own?

MR. MENDEZ: Yes, I did.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. Did you see that there was a page that said to stop, list all of your arrests --

MR. MENDEZ: Yes, I did see that.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: -- for criminal history?

MR. MENDEZ: Yes, I did. But I was skeptical because the lawyer told me perfectly after they dropped the case that this is not going to be on your record at all. And you're not going to have a record at all. So I was confused. So I didn't understand that.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. Mom, can I get your name for the record?

MS. MENDEZ: Yes, Joann Mendez.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Was your son on probation, in juvenile probation?

MS. MENDEZ: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Out of what center?

MS. MENDEZ: I never went there. I never went there at all. Except for the court trial when they released him.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Again, I just want to get clarification whether or not I need to recuse myself or not.

But I -- we can move forward.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, you know, you've been here, I see you guys have been in the audience for a while. And Councilperson Cortez has shown everybody -- Board Member Cortez has shown everybody that there is a page in there that says stop, fill it out whether or not you've been arrested or convicted. You have to disclose everything. Unfortunately, that's just part of the process. Whether or not you're skeptical --

MR. MENDEZ: I put it in the appeal, though. I put it in the appeal. I put it back in the appeal.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: What is the PO (sic), sir?

MR. MENDEZ: The appeal letter. Appeal letter. I'm not (indiscernible). I don't drink, I don't smoke, I don't do drugs, I don't party. I'm very committed to God and Jesus Christ. I'm a very good guy. Mom can see this --

THE REPORTER: Excuse me, I'm sorry. I do need you to try to slow down, sir.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: She's a court reporter. She's taking everything down.

MR. MENDEZ: I train six days a week. I'm very disciplined. I can run five miles in 30 minutes. I mean, I'm literally very committed to God and Jesus Christ. I'm not a bad guy at all. I don't break any laws. I mean, I don't even -- I'm a very righteous person. I don't do sin. You may not believe me. I have it, proof. I have my -- my own book. I'm a book author. It's called Beyond some pages for the heavenly book of life (ph). I know how to correct all sins permanently prior to the imminent destruction of earth. I'm a book author. I'm a good guy. I set good examples for other people. So I'm not a bad guy by any means.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I understand that, sir. I understand that and I appreciate your efforts.

Unfortunately, we have to go by the rules that are stipulated because you see everybody before you had gone through the same thing, right? So we have to --

MR. MENDEZ: But there's, like, intra -- it's like an asterisk next to it, so it's a little more complex.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: There's not, sir. Unfortunately, we have to be firm, fair, and consistent.

MR. MENDEZ: So there's no chance of me?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, we have to vote on it still, but at this point, we've asked our questions, okay? All right, thank you.

Board, are there any other questions for Mr. Mendez?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning -- go ahead, Mr. Bezick.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I move we uphold the denial based on failure to disclose the arrest record.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So unfortunately, sir, based off of the paperwork we have to follow the rules.

MR. MENDEZ: There's no chance, like, zero chance I could ever receive a card.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, you have an opportunity to reapply again in one year. Just like

I told everybody else. It's -- again, it's the consistency. You have an opportunity to apply again in one year.

MS. MENDEZ: Excuse me, I wasn't here. I don't exactly know what's going on. What did he not do?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: He did not fill out the paperwork correctly. He not disclose his arrest.

MR. MENDEZ: But I put it on the appeal though, right?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: On the appeal --

MR. MENDEZ: That's why I couldn't have an interview.

MS. MENDEZ: They didn't -- on the --

MR. MENDEZ: They appeal it, though.

MS. MENDEZ: They did not request that on the paper that --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Ma'am, so we have a -- the paperwork that you fill out when you originally apply, it has that big paper there, right? And it says stop, and then it lists a bunch of things that you have to make sure that you disclose.

MR. MENDEZ: So is it mandatory to put your juvenile record, too? Because --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yes. It says any arrest.

MR. MENDEZ: Even if it's not considered adult --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any. Any.

MR. MENDEZ: Even as an adult?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any.

MR. MENDEZ: I mean, that was when I was a teenager.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, it says any.

MR. MENDEZ: It --

THE REPORTER: Excuse -- I --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, it says any. It's very clear. It doesn't delineate between juvenile or adult. It says any.

MR. MENDEZ: Trying to verify, because I guarantee you, you do sins behind closed doors that (indiscernible) -- find fear fascinating. You pretend like you're these hierarchy beings when you don't even follow the Lord Jesus Christ properly. So I find it very ironic.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you, for your time. You have an opportunity to apply again in one year.

MR. MENDEZ: So what day can I reapply?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: In one year.
MR. MENDEZ: From today?
MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yes, sir.
MR. MENDEZ: And the juvenile list and -- they told me that wouldn't count.
MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, when you reapply you can work with the office. They'll help you fill out the application. Because they do have everything now. As long as you don't get into any trouble in between now --
MR. MENDEZ: I don't. I'm very committed to God and Jesus Christ. I don't do sin.
MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I understand that, sir.
MR. MENDEZ: I have been very committed. I train six days a week. I can lift approximately 1,080 pounds, I can bench press 225 pounds (indiscernible).
MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir --
THE REPORTER: Sir --
MR. MENDEZ: (Indiscernible.)
MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir. Thank you for your time.
MR. MENDEZ: Farewell. God bless you. Hopefully you follow the truth, because the truth will set you free. Jesus loves you. Remember Jesus Christ before the world ends. Farewell.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 54, Jeffrey Williams.

Mr. Williams, are you here?

MR. WILLIAMS: Good afternoon.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good afternoon. And, sir, you've been sworn in?

MR. MENDEZ: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, thank you.

Investigator Cuevas, why are we here for Mr. Williams?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: Yes. Mr. Williams was denied for his disclosed felony conviction. He was on provisional and wishes to appeal.

That felony was from 2007 for possession of cocaine. He was sentenced to five years' prison. And then he did have an arrest only that was in the same time frame from 2005 for prohibited acts, drug paraphernalia. And then a 2004 misdemeanor, possession of a controlled substance. A 2002 petit larceny. A 1995 misdemeanor simple battery. 1987 misdemeanor, simple battery. And a 1987 operating vehicle while intoxicated.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm, everything was disclosed?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Board, are there any questions for Mr. Williams?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer.

Good afternoon, sir. You have quite a lengthy history in drugs. How have you been doing with that? Taken any classes or anything else?

MR. WILLIAMS: I've been clean since -- I think it was September '08, back in Louisiana. I was on probation. I completed my training and everything. Disabled veteran. I moved to Las Vegas with my daughter and my grandkids. My life has been straight. I work for myself. I'm a handyman. I like handyman work, but I've been trying to find me something steady every day. I also completed paperwork sent to Maryland, and that's my stuff -- what they call it? Expunge in Maryland. So I've been living a good life. I don't do that, take care of my -- got my first son, he's 13. 14.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I appreciate that. Did you fill out the application?

MR. WILLIAMS: I went to the -- BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You did a good job.

MR. WILLIAMS: I brought my -- I had applied for a firearm. And what happened is, somebody in the neighborhood, kids jumped over the fence and there was a kid hiding there. So I decide I have to get a gun. But that's how I feel, I got it --

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Right now we're talking about this work card, okay?

MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, sir, I understand.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I want to congratulate you for getting it all together.

MR. WILLIAMS: Thank you, very much, sir.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: What branch of service?

MR. WILLIAMS: I served in the United States Army. Three years, telecommunications.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Nice. Thank you for your service.

Board, any further questions for Mr. Williams?

Hearing no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I move we grant the appeal based on full disclosure of criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Congratulations, sir. The office will contact you tomorrow for next steps, okay?

MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, ma'am. Thank you, very much. God bless you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Are we still in the right block?

Agenda Item No. 55, Patrick Branch.

Sir, just to confirm, you've been sworn in?

MR. BRANCH: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you. Investigator Cuevas, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Branch?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: Yes. The applicant was denied for failure to disclose arrest and a felony conviction. He was not made provisional. And as the report that you have, it does state that he had an active case from Henderson Justice Court for a DUI. As of yesterday he has gone to court. He did plead nolo contendere to the DUI and is currently completing DUI classes, Victim Impact Panel. And then once completed it would be amended to a misdemeanor reckless driving.

And then, so the felony did occur in Nevada for 1996 for attempted burglary. He was sentenced to 32 months prison and four years probation. And then the DUI from 2024, as I mentioned, was pending and he has gone to court. 2010 misdemeanor for reckless driving. He was sentenced to pay a fine, complete DUI program, the Victim Impact Panel class and a suspended sentence of 90 days. 2003 misdemeanor from Nevada for a DUI. He was sentenced to pay a fine and given credit for time served. And a 2002 misdemeanor for domestic battery violence. He was sentenced to pay a fine, counseling, and community service.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, any questions for Mr. Branch?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Good afternoon, Mr. Branch.

MR. BRANCH: Hi.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Is there a reason why you failed to disclose your criminal history?

MR. BRANCH: I wanted to make sure I had all the dates right. So I went and got a SCOPE. And I did see that it said stop. And that's when I said, well, I got to make sure everything is right. So I went and got a SCOPE. And I wanted to staple it to the application, but I couldn't staple it and I had got a ride there. And I just -- I didn't have enough time. But they -- I got the SCOPE. And so now I got all the information. And I only appeal -- I explained everything. Felony, the -- and everything. I was -- it was stupid. I was at a strip club, going through a divorce, lost a lot of money. And I sobered up, got some of my money back. It was just young and stupid.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood. You provided your criminal history after the denial, correct?

MR. BRANCH: Well, I -- when I didn't hear from them, that's when I said something -- something's not right. So I said, well, I go to go get a SCOPE, a printout. That way I have all the correct dates and all that. So at the end when I went back there to ask what was going on, they said, oh, no, you need to -- you didn't list nothing. But I said, I saw everything. It says stop. I just wanted to make sure I had the right dates. And then I said, well, can I staple this to it? And they was going, like, no.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Because it was after the fact.

MR. BRANCH: But I just -- I saw it. I -- the big stop sign. I got a ride there. I was -- I live on the other side of town. They was going to leave me. I would have been stranded. So I, like -- I turned it in and just say I got to get a SCOPE. That's what I did.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood, thank you.

MR. BRANCH: But I know. I've been here. Everybody that didn't disclose. Oh, man.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any more questions for Mr. Branch?

MR. BRANCH: Please, will you just -- I mean, consider it? I'm trying. I'll be 62 August. Born and raised here, lived here all my life. Did all construction. I just -- it's just time for me to do something that's not that hard on the body.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, we appreciate that. Our goal is to put everybody to work, it really is. Because there's more than enough jobs out there for folks that want to work. So that's our goal. But we have to abide by --

MR. BRANCH: All right.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any more questions for Mr. Branch?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on two issues. First, failure to disclose any of the criminal history. And second, we have a case out of 2024, citing time and distance. The case is still pretty open with court conditions pending completion.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Unfortunately, sir, at this time we have to remain consistent.

MR. BRANCH: Yeah, yeah.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: If you like -- if you were here before, you heard us say come see us in one year. They've got all your times and dates and all your stuff. We've granted folks that came back, so we look forward to seeing you again.

MR. BRANCH: A year from today's date?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yes, sir.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Make sure you finish all your court conditions.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We look forward to seeing you, sir.

MR. BRANCH: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good luck to you.

Agenda Item No. 56, Anton Houston.

Good afternoon, Mr. Houston.

MR. HOUSTON: Hello.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Cuevas, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Houston?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS: Yes. So, the applicant was denied for his listed felony and weapons convictions. He was not made provisional. Felonies would include a 2021 felony from Nevada for attempt stop required signal of police officer while under the influence of intoxication. Then he has a 2018 felony for robbery. 2017 felony for ownership or possess a firearm by prohibited person and transport of a controlled substance. 2017 conspiracy to commit robbery. 2006 felony for fleeing a police officer. 2004 felony, possess a pistol or assault weapon by ineligible person. 2003 felony for drugs in the fifth degree. 2003 felony for drugs in the fifth degree. Those did run concurrent with each other. 1999 felony for drugs in the third degree. 1998 felony for drugs in the fifth degree. 1998 felony for drugs in the fifth degree. A 1996 felony for drugs in the fifth degree. A 1996 felony for drugs in the fifth degree. The most recent arrest, if you take a look, was in 2021. He was sentenced to 19 months, a maximum of 48 months for prison. He was released on patrol in February -- or sorry, December 2nd of 2023 and discharged a year later.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And everything was disclosed?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there questions for Mr. Houston?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Good afternoon, Mr. Houston.

This is Gronauer.

Are you on paper now?

MR. HOUSTON: No.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Completely free from Parole & Probation.

MR. HOUSTON: Yes. I actually brought two photos. I didn't know it was going to be so many.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: It's okay. How much time did you build in prison? How much time did you serve?

MR. HOUSTON: 18 months.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Total?

MR. HOUSTON: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: What do you plan on doing if you're granted a work card?

MR. HOUSTON: Basically, help people and best of my own time from my corporation to help child abuse kids and kids that's in school. Basically, how to defend theyself (sic) from predators. So I have a whole plan. I defended several predators at school that look to work there later on in the future. But basically, work card is just to help people not drink when I do bars at night. I just really like the job.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Work card is not a license. It's a work card. You can work for somebody else.

MR. HOUSTON: Correct.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: In the security business.

MR. HOUSTON: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: So what do you plan on doing?

MR. HOUSTON: As far as right now? Just working at restaurants. Basically I have a couple opportunities to work at a couple hookah lounges. But right now is Lotus of Siam. They actually asked me to work with them.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Is that as a security officer or bouncer?

MR. HOUSTON: No, no, just to watch cars, make sure people don't break into cars.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Security in the parking lot.

MR. HOUSTON: Yeah. Something, yes.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: So you're hired by a private company, Lotus of Siam.

MR. HOUSTON: Yes, but they want to hire me on. If I do, they called and told me -- I'm not working right now, just mentoring juveniles at the moment.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Appreciate you divulging all your history. Your history is suspect to me because of all the weapons involved, things like that, okay? It bothers me, that's all. You get a work card, you know you're not -- probably as an ex-felon, you're probably not -- you are an ex-felon, correct?

MR. HOUSTON: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You're not allowed to carry a weapon anyway, or have a weapon in your possession.

MR. HOUSTON: Correct.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I just want to make sure that you understand all the rules that go with everything. With the work card, the ex-felon thing, the whole bit.

MR. HOUSTON: Yes. That's why I did --

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: All right. Again, I appreciate you putting it all down on paper. That's pretty good. Thank you.

MR. HOUSTON: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Houston, were you discharged honorably, positive termination?

MR. HOUSTON: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I also am going to share the same concern. You do have a lengthy background. You were just released off parole six months ago. If you are granted the card, I would like to see that you stay out of trouble and you don't come back in front of us for any kind of revocation, okay?

MR. HOUSTON: Of course.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any more questions?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: And this is Bezick.

I move we grant the work card based on full disclosure of criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So we have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So the office will get in touch with you tomorrow and they'll tell you the next steps, okay?

MR. HOUSTON: Okay. Appreciate it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Don't disappoint.

MR. HOUSTON: Have a great evening.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 57, Theodore -- I'm not going to get this one right. Sorry.

How do you pronounce your last name?

MR. D'ADDARIO: D'Addario.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: D'Addario, okay.

Investigator Cuevas, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. D'Addario?

MR. HOUSTON: Yes. Mr. D'Addario was denied for his listed weapon conviction from 1994 of discharge of a firearm. He was sentenced to pay a fine. The only other arrest he has is from 1990 in California for misdemeanor petty theft, where he was sentenced for 36 months probation and a fine. He did disclose all arrests, was not made provisional, and would like to appeal.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. And you were sworn in, yes?

MR. D'ADDARIO: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Board, any questions for Mr. D'Addario?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant Mr. D'Addario his work card based on full disclosure of criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes, sir. Congratulations. The office will contact you tomorrow.

Agenda Item No. 58, Cahill Lane.

MR. LANE: Cahill Lane.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sorry. Can you say that again?

MR. LANE: Cahill Lane.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, thank you.

Investigator Cuevas, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Lane?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS: Yes. Mr. Lane was denied for his listed felony and weapon conviction from 2020 for aggravated unlawful use of weapon in a vehicle. He was sentenced to three years' probation. And then he was not made provisional and would like to appeal.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Sir, you were sworn in, right?

MR. LANE: Yes, I was.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Mr. Lane?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Lane, thank you for disclosing your criminal history. Could you give me a brief history, background on your 2020 case, the aggravated unlawful use of a weapon in a vehicle?

MR. LANE: Yeah. So basically, the firearm wasn't mine and it was placed under my seat from a -- my little brother's friend from behind. So, yeah, that's...

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That's the weapon in the vehicle. But what's the aggravated unlawful use of?

MR. HOUSTON: I don't -- I think because it was -- one -- a shell in the chamber. So they count that in Chicago as unlawful.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Was it pulled out? How was the weapon discovered?

MR. HOUSTON: It was under the seat. I don't know. I was in the passenger seat, and I don't know. Somebody was behind me and I think they scooted it, like, pushed it underneath the seat with their foot.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Investigator Cuevas, do we happen to have the police report or any kind of minutes? Generally speaking, that's a possession of weapon charge. It's the aggravated unlawful use of that I'm having an issue with.

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: No. From Chicago, Illinois, I don't have the police report.

MR. LANE: I think they charge you with unlawful use of weapon if it's one in the chamber and it's attempt to kill, I guess.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: How many people were in the vehicle?

MR. LANE: Four.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So again, I'm having a little difficulty understanding it. Because you just said you were a passenger. So that will get you the possession of a weapon charge. But the aggravated unlawful use of, at some point that weapon had to be drawn. Did you draw the weapon? Was it brandished?

MR. LANE: No.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. Because three years of probation is very long time for just being in the vehicle.

MR. LANE: It was two years of probation, 24 months.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Investigator Cuevas, do we want to -- is that -- is it -- was it three years or two years?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS: It was three years, according to the fingerprint result. It does show he completed probation March 12th of 2024.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So that's three years, not two.

What were the conditions of your probation?

MR. LANE: Just stay away from felons and no firearms. And I had to do community service for another two years.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: When did you move to Nevada?

MR. LANE: I just moved out here -- I believe March.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Of this year?

MR. LANE: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And you had zero contact with law enforcement?

MR. LANE: No.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: What are your intentions to do if you were granted the work card?

MR. LANE: Just get a job and start a new life.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Do you have one pending?

MR. LANE: What?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Do you have a job lined up? Is there a company that you're looking for, or you're just getting the work card and then going from there?

MR. LANE: Yeah, getting a work card and going from there.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: No further questions from me.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, any further questions?

Okay. Hearing we have no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. Motion to grant Cahill Lane his work card. I believe probation time and distance, I'm okay with it.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez. I second the motion based on full disclosure.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

The office will get in touch with you tomorrow on the next steps, okay?

MR. LANE: Okay. Thank you, so much.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Patrick Farris, Agenda Item No. 59. Mr. Farris.

Confirming, Mr. Farris, you were sworn in earlier.

MR. FARRIS: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Investigator Cuevas, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Farris?

MR. LANE: Yes.

Mr. Farris was denied for his undisclosed weapon conviction from 1986 in California. Was a misdemeanor possess dangerous weapon. He was just sentenced to pay a fine. He was made provisional and added to the roster for Safe Management of Nevada, LLC. And he wishes to appeal today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm, did not disclose.

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: Not on his application.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Mr. Farris?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Farris, why did you fail to disclose your 1986 case?

MR. LANE: To be honest with you guys, I just didn't remember it. It's 39 years ago. I don't remember that specific day. I'm still kind of curious what weapon they're talking about. Because I wracked my brain and wracked my brain. I just can't remember that far back. I know I never had any guns, so I know it can't be something like that. But maybe they can tell me a little later.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Do you remember getting arrested?

MR. LANE: You know, I was right out of high school. I remember a baseball bat incident in the back seat of my car. But I don't remember when. I just know I was probably in that time frame.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sounds like that's what it was.

MR. LANE: I know I didn't go to jail for it. I think they just took it and I think I was getting a speeding ticket. I'll be honest with you. That -- it wasn't just an ordinary baseball bat. It had some dings in it. Because back then we had to create our own fun. So, I mean, I'm not here to buffalo anybody or anything. I just simply didn't really remember those -- specific date.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any more questions?

Hearing no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez. While I assume that that's -- I figured that was the case because of the time, unfortunately I am going to motion to uphold the denial based on failure to disclose criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So we have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You have an opportunity to come back in one year. It is unfortunate because it's been --

MR. LANE: 39 years ago? Wow. Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good luck to you. Come see us in a year.

MR. LANE: Thanks, guys.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 60, Jacob Williams.

Good afternoon, sir.

MR. WILLIAMS: Good afternoon, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigate Cuevas, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Williams?

MR. WILLIAMS: Yes. Mr. Williams was denied for his listed felony conviction from 2005 in Florida for unemployment compensation fraud. He was sentenced to two years' probation, to pay fine and restitution. He listed a misdemeanor conviction, but the fingerprint results showed the conviction was actually a felony. He was made provisional but not added to a roster, and he wishes to appeal.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So he did disclose, but he disclosed it as a misdemeanor instead of a felony. So he was made provisional.

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for Mr. Williams?

I have one.

So, was there some confusion between -- because you listed it as a misdemeanor.

MR. WILLIAMS: Unemployment compensation? Yeah, I wrote felony on there for sure. Because I was being hired with Best Crowd Management. And the lady there even helped me fill it out. And I definitely wrote felony on there. I don't know how that --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So you did a paper application.

MR. WILLIAMS: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Do we happen to have that?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: No. So we have where it was completed online. So it does make sense that he might have filled out an application. I know that Best Crowd Management uses a company to help them fill out applications, fingerprint all at once. And then that company inputs the application through our online website and that's how we receive it. So it's on the online website, it did show misdemeanor. We don't have that original application that he would have filled out.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Oh, boy.

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: If you recall, we ran into issues like this before.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Disclosed.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yeah. Okay.

THE WITNESS: I knew it was a felony. I wasn't trying to lie to anybody.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, Board, you know, we've had this issue before. And that's something that, you know, the office has followed up with. And I think we'll again -- so, it sounds like it was disclosed. But we'll go from there.

So are there any further questions for Mr. Williams?

Hearing there's no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez. I am going to motion to overturn the denial and grant Mr. Diamond (sic) his work card based on disclosure -- oh, I'm sorry, it's not --

Mr. Williams, based on disclosure. I understand that there is a discrepancy on the felony versus misdemeanor, but it sounds like it's possible third-party error.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Congratulations. The Board will get in touch with you for next steps.

We're going to do one more and then we're going to take a break.

No. 61, Larry Diamond.

MR. DIAMOND: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Is Mr. Diamond here?

MR. DIAMOND: Good afternoon.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good afternoon. Can I confirm you've been sworn in?

MR. DIAMOND: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Investigator Cuevas, could you please tell us why we're here for Mr. Diamond?

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS: Yes. Mr. Diamond was denied for his listed weapons conviction. That would include 1986 from California, misdemeanor carry loaded firearm in a public place where he was sentenced to 18 months community service and a fine. And then he has another misdemeanor from 1985 also in California for possess, manufacturer, or sell a dangerous weapon, where he was sentenced to 24 months' probation. The above arrest from 1986 occurred while he was on probation for the 1985 arrest. So he was arrested in 1985, on probation, and then he had the 1986 arrest.

He disclosed all arrests, was not made provisional, and wishes to appeal.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So Board, are there any questions for Mr. Diamond? Okay.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Sorry, Madam Chair. This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Diamond, what was the circumstances of the dangerous weapon, the manufacturing of it?

MR. DIAMOND: Which year was this?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This was in 1985. It was a possession, manufacture, sell dangerous weapon. You were sentenced to 24 months' probation.

What was the weapon?

MR. DIAMOND: Actually, that -- that particular case was actually thrown out by the court all together. I wasn't sentenced on that, unless I'm confused with the case. Because the one in 1985, if I'm not mistaken, was -- 245A2PC; is that correct?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I guess, sir, what we're asking is, what was the weapon?

MR. DIAMOND: Oh, it was a .357 magnum Ruger.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You manufactured it?

MR. DIAMOND: No. That's why I don't understand the -- I don't understand that manufactured.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Got you.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So the charge is listed as possession, manufacture, or sell dangerous weapon. So it sounds like you were in possession.

MR. DIAMOND: I was in possession, yes, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And it was a firearm.

MR. DIAMOND: Yes, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Got it. Thank you.

MR. DIAMOND: That's why I was confused on the manufacturing. I don't -- I'm not that smart.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. Motion is to overturn the denial and grant Larry Diamond his registration card.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez. I'll second the motion.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

So the office will get in touch with you tomorrow and we'll move forward, okay?

MR. DIAMOND: Thank you. I appreciate it. Thank you, Board.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So before we take a quick break, this closes out this portion. We're going to go back through the trailed items. If my notes serve me, it's item No. 47, 48 -- item No. 48, 52. That's it. So we have two items.

Item No. 52, LaTasha Broom. Are you here?

Okay.

And the second Agenda Item is -- oh, my gosh, 48, Gerald Defrance. Mr. Defrance, are you here? Okay.

So those folks were supposed to be here at 12:30 -- or 11:30. It's now 1:08 and they are not here.

I will entertain a motion from the Board.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold said Agenda Items 48 and 42 based on no call, no show, upholding the denial.

DAG DETMER: 48 and 52.

Mike Detmer, for the record.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Items No. 48 and 52, correct.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, the motion passes.

We're going to take a quick ten minutes, and then we'll come back in, swear in anybody that has just arrived, and then continue.

(Off record.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We're going to move forward, Agenda Item No. 62, McQuester Walker.

Good afternoon -- oh, wait a minute.

Before we get started, anybody that's come in and has not been sworn in yet, Counsel Detmer, could you please swear them in?

Go ahead and please stand and raise your right hand.

AUDIENCE MEMBERS,
having been duly sworn,
testified as follows:

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Cuevas, last one.

So you can have a seat, I'm sorry.

Please tell us why we're here for Mr. Walker.

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS: Yes. Mr. Walker was denied for his listed weapons conviction from 2019. A misdemeanor committed with concealed weapon in a prohibited public building. He was sentenced to pay a fine, forfeit the firearm, and a suspended sentence of 60 days. He also has a misdemeanor from 2006 for possession of unregistered firearm. He was sentenced to pay a fine and forfeit the weapon. And then 2014 misdemeanor for DUI where he was sentenced to pay a fine, complete Victim Impact Panel, DUI program, and credit for time served.

He listed all arrests, was not made provisional, and would like to appeal.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, thank you.

Board, are there any questions for Mr. Walker?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Good afternoon, Mr. Walker.

MR. DIAMOND: Hello. How are you?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Good, thanks.

Talk to me about the 2019 case, the possession with concealed weapon in prohibited public building.

MR. WALKER: So, (indiscernible) --

THE REPORTER: Can you speak up, please?

MR. WALKER: I'm sorry. I don't talk that loud.

I was actually outside. I let a friend of mine use my car. He was supposed to go to the laundromat. He gets pulled over. I'm walking. I'm walking down J Street on the west side of Las Vegas. I see my car. I go to walk up to my car. Don't know where J Street is, it's right there on MLK.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That's why I'm thinking of the buildings. Go ahead, I'm with you.

MR. WALKER: I'm walking towards the laundromat he's supposed to be at. I see him in those houses a couple blocks down from the laundromat. He hasn't made it. And I see the police car.

So I'm walking, and at the time they had just gave us the open carry permit where we can carry our guns openly. I had my Taurus, Judge. And to my understanding, I was, like, oh, well, as long as the handle's showing I'm fine.

Well, when the officer sees me, I walk up to my car to get my card and he -- we start talking. And I tell him, and I'm, like, you know, I have no problem if you're nervous. Just put me in cuffs and take the gun. So I told him to put me in cuffs, he takes the gun. And when I get there at the top I start talking to him. He starts talking more to her instead of dealing with me. And then when me and him start talking back and forth, he sends me to jail to talk to her. And that's how I ended up with that. Because I never understood how I ended up in jail.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So you were outside -- and I think I have it. But, the buildings surrounding, are you talking about right --

MR. WALKER: Right there where the purple church is. Literally across from there, in that neighborhood. You know how --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Because the only thing up there at MLK and Carey, that's where your courthouse is and that's where probation is.

MR. WALKER: Do you know where the Starbucks is?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Yeah.

MR. WALKER: Right across the street is the tire shop? And if you go behind the tire shop and turn right and you go down the street, because at the time I was talking to the girl that worked there at Mary Crystylez, which is across the street from that Starbucks. He was taking the towels from Mary Crystylez to that wash house over there by Soul Foo Young. So, I was walking --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: The FBI building is there. Got it.

MR. WALKER: So I was walking to go get my car and I couldn't find him. He wouldn't answer the phone. Assumed he got pulled over. So I was just going to go look for him. And that's how everything -- from there.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: The firearm was forfeited?

MR. WALKER: Uh-huh.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Got it, thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions for Mr. Walker?

Hearing there's no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer.

Make a motion to overturn the denial and -- 62, right? And to grant McQuester Walker his registration card. Time and distance.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez. I'll second that motion.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

The office will contact you tomorrow for next steps, okay?

MR. WALKER: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: All right. Good luck to you.

Okay. Agenda Item No. 63, Daniel Cordova. Mr. Cordova. Good afternoon, sir.

Investigator Diaz, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Cordova?

INVESTIGATOR DIAZ: Yes. Investigator Diaz, for the record.

The applicant was denied for a misdemeanor, unlawful carrying of a weapon and evading arrest conviction out of Houston, Texas in 2002. The applicant was sentenced to two years' probation. He also has a 2007 misdemeanor conviction for possession of marijuana and was sentenced to one year probation. This arrest was disclosed.

The applicant did disclose all arrests and was aware he will be denied and later submitted a written letter of appeal. He was not made provisional, but is here to appeal today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any questions for Mr. Cordova?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant Mr. Cordova his work card based on full disclosure.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So the motion passes.

Sir, you will get your work card. I thank you for filling out the application completely, okay?

MR. WALKER: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Congratulations. They'll contact you tomorrow.

Agenda Item No. 64 De Anthony Reaves.

Good afternoon, sir.

MR. REAVES: Hi. How you all doing?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good.

Investigator Diaz, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Reaves?

INVESTIGATOR DIAZ: The applicant was denied for a misdemeanor carry concealed weapon in a vehicle conviction out of Stockton, California in 2022. The applicant was sentenced to one year probation and a 30-day suspended jail sentence.

The applicant did disclose the arrest and was aware he would be denied and later submitted a written letter of appeal. He was not made provisional and is here to appeal today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Mr. Reaves?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez, Mr. Reaves. Good afternoon.

MR. REAVES: Hi. How you doing?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Could you tell me about the 2022, the carry concealed weapon in a vehicle? Talk to me about that case.

MR. REAVES: It was my cousin's birthday. He asked me to come over and -- well, I'm aware me not having a gun license carrying a weapon. But Stockton, California is terrible. It's not good if you're not carrying a firearm. Wanted to do stuff, like party and the nature of that in that place is terrible. So when I went there, was hanging out, chilling.

And when it was time to take everybody home, I'm the only designated driver. I'm the only one driving. I'm not drinking, smoking, none of that type of stuff. So everybody gets in the car with me. I drive everybody home.

We get pulled over. And at the time I was going to trucking school. Pulled over. I showed them my license, showed them everything. But I had -- there was four of us in the car. I had somebody in the back seat and they had their own firearm. The cop seen the firearm. I told him my firearm -- I told him mine is here, like, inside the car. He had his own. And that's kind of how it happened.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Probation terminated positively?

MR. REAVES: What you mean?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: When you finished probation, was it a positive termination or a --

MR. REAVES: I completed everything they said. Everything. Stayed out of trouble. Instead of staying there surviving, I moved out here where I don't have to be around it at all. It was the easiest thing to do.

I just made a mistake by having a firearm in the first place. So I had to pay for that. I went to court. I told them I'll do whatever needs to be done. I'm just tired of going to court. So I agreed to do the jail time. Just every month going there, that was too much for me.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood. How long have you been in Nevada?

MR. REAVES: Since last year in March.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: No incidences, no contact with law enforcement?

MR. REAVES: No.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: What do you plan to do with your work card?

MR. REAVES: I wanted to -- I want to get it so I can work for InterCon, the convention, and what's the -- I'm still learning the name, SST, the strip transit thing. RTC. I was trying to work for them because my brother, he a armed security guard. And talked to the person in charge of that. And I was, like, even though I had the case -- well, I assume he didn't know. But, like, is it possible to become, like -- is this the only step or can I go further, like, be armed security guard for him? That's what I was asking him. But he told me I had to come to the Board. She told people get denied. So I did it anyways, paid for it, whatever. Just --

I didn't want to just sell myself short.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You understand that this -- the card you're applying for is unarmed.

MR. DIAMOND: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay, perfect.

MR. REAVES: My question was, if I can go further than that or I do have to stay at there because of my record?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: That's something you work with the office with after this part. Because this is the first step.

MR. REAVES: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

There's no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant Mr. Reaves his work card based on full disclosure.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Time and distance.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Congratulations, sir. And you can work with the office for next steps, okay?

MR. REAVES: Okay, thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you. Have a good day.

Agenda Item No. 65, Alan Scott.

Good afternoon, sir. Just to confirm, you've been sworn in?

MR. SCOTT: Yeah.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Perfect.

Investigator Diaz, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Scott?

INVESTIGATOR DIAZ: The applicant was denied for a felony possession of methaqualone conviction out of Dublin, California in 2004. The applicant was sentenced to five years' probation. The applicant also has a 2007 misdemeanor conviction for solicit or engage in prostitution and was sentenced to three days in jail. This was not disclosed. The applicant did not disclose all arrests and was aware he would be denied and later submitted a written appeal. He was not made provisional and is here to appeal today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, do we have any questions for Mr. Scott?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Scott, why did you fail to disclose your 2007 charge?

MR. SCOTT: I didn't even know it was -- not filled out. I didn't --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You didn't know -- I'm sorry, what?

MR. SCOTT: I say I bailed out, so I didn't think there was no thing. No probation, nothing after that.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Were you arrested?

MR. SCOTT: Yeah, I was arrested.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. So were you aware -- did you fill out the application on your own?

MR. SCOTT: On my own. Can I say one thing? I never -- I went to jail in Oakland, California. I never been to jail in Antioch in my life. Whatever they got on there, on the thing saying that I did that, I did not do that.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. So the

Oakland, California one, are you talking about --

MR. SCOTT: Yeah, possession and sale --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Possession of methaqualone?

MR. SCOTT: I don't even know what moloquane (sic) is. I never heard of that in my life. I know what crack is, but that's because that's what I went to jail for.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: There it is. So there is a 2007 charge out of Nevada. And you're saying that you did or did not get arrested?

MR. SCOTT: Yeah, I did.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So, then, because you were arrested, that needed to be disclosed.

MR. SCOTT: I didn't know that. I thought it was, like, the felonies that -- you know what I'm saying? Like, what you actually went and did time for. I didn't know.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Going to jail is considered doing time for. You did three days in jail, correct?

MR. SCOTT: I don't even remember 2007. Been so long ago. But to me where I'm from, going to jail is doing the county bullet, going --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I understand why you think that.

MR. SCOTT: Going to San Quentin.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Unfortunately, on our application, there is a page that says you need to list all arrests. All of it, despite --

MR. SCOTT: Then can I say one --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: -- or how long you did.

MR. SCOTT: When I drove for Lyft, I worked a lot of good jobs out of here. That's never popped up on nothing.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, unfortunately, we -- because you're put in a position of trust when it comes to security, there's a different application that requires that you disclose everything that ever happened. And it's very clear in the application. So that's why we're asking these questions. So obviously you -- you know that something happened, you remember being arrested.

MR. SCOTT: Now that she said. What I'm trying to say is, I didn't think that if it wasn't no felony, that it --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Understood. But the paperwork is very clear. It says anything, all arrests.

So, Board, any further questions?

Okay. Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on nondisclosure of all arrests, criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

MR. SCOTT: So can you all get that --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, we need to finish.

So, we have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, unfortunately, at this time you will not get your license. You do have an opportunity to come back in one year from today and reapply. It has all your information on your current application. If you work with the office they will make sure that you get all of that stuff in there. And then you're able to go through the process again.

MR. SCOTT: Can I just say one thing? How you all got that on my record, though?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We ran your fingerprints, sir.

MR. SCOTT: No, I'm talking about -- wherever you say some meloquane (sic) or something. I went to jail for selling crack. I didn't go to jail for -- I've never been to jail --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, we ran your records. I don't know if meloquane is crack. I don't know the answer to that question. You're going to have --

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Just another word.

MR. SCOTT: Okay. Well, in Oakland, I don't know how you all --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: It's a federal law enforcement check, sir, through your fingerprints.

MR. SCOTT: Ma'am, I drove Lyft for, like, five, six years. That's a federal background check.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you. Good luck.

Agenda Item No. 66, Demonta Harris. Demonta Harris. We'll trail that.

Agenda Item No. 67, Jessika Price.

MR. HARRIS: You say Demonta or Dominique? I'm a Harris, but my name is Dominique.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: It says D-m-o-n-t-a.

MR. SCOTT: I'm D-o-m-i-n-i-q-u-e.

UNKNOWN SPEAKER: He's 78 on the agenda. The 1:30.

MADAM CHAIR HARRIS: Okay. So it's just another Harris, sorry. Not you, not yet. Sorry.

Jessika Price? Is that --

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: She's up here in the north.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Got it.

Investigator Dumas, could you please tell us why we're here for Ms. Price?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: Yes. Ms. Price was denied due to a 2018 felony for the use of a credit card and another person's ID. She served 28 days in jail, three years probation. She has received a 1203.4 dismissal. She provided all documents. She was not made provisional and is here to appeal today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm, she did disclose.

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: Yes. So, she followed through. She also provided the documents upon applying.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, thank you.

Board, are there any questions for Ms. Price?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick.

I move we grant the appeal based on full disclosure of criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes. Congratulations, Ms. Price. The office will contact you tomorrow for next steps.

MS. PRICE: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You're very welcome. Thank you. Have a great day.

Agenda Item No. 68, Isaiah Washington. Mr. Washington. Isaiah Washington. Trail that.

Agenda Item No. 69, Lekesha Thomas.

MS. THOMAS: Hello.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good afternoon.

MS. THOMAS: How are you doing?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good.

Investigator Dumas, could you please tell us why we're here for Ms. Thomas?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: The applicant was denied due to a 1998 felony conviction for vehicular manslaughter with gross negligence. She served 60 days in jail with 36 months probation. She also had a 2003 felony burglary which she served 40 days in jail and three years probation. In 2005 she had -- she was convicted of a misdemeanor, received known stolen property, which she served 365 days in jail with 36 months probation. And in 2007 she had a felony for purchasing cocaine base, which was dismissed, out of California.

The applicant did disclose all these arrests. She was not made provisional and is here to appear today -- to appeal.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Board, are there any questions for Ms. Thomas?

Okay. Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer. I'm going to motion to overturn the denial of Lekesha Thomas and grant her her registration card.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Time and distance.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

I'll second that motion.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes. Congratulations.

MS. THOMAS: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: The office will contact you for next steps, okay?

Agenda Item No. 70 is postponed.

Agenda Item No. 71, Brian Morris.

Mr. Morris, are you here?

MR. MORRIS: Yes. Afternoon.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good afternoon, sir. Have you been sworn in?

MR. MORRIS: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Investigator Dumas, could you please tell us why we're here for Mr. Morris?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: Mr. Morris was denied due to a felony 2017 child abuse, neglect with bodily harm charge out of Nevada. He was sentenced to four years in Nevada State Prison. Which this was disclosed. In 2020 he was convicted of felony arrest for violation of this -- offenses probation conditions which was not listed in the application. And in 2015 he was convicted of a misdemeanor wrongful use of marijuana, which he also did not disclose. He was not made provisional and is here to appeal today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So -- just so I'm clear, everything except for the 2015 was disclosed?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: He only disclosed his 2017 felony. The other two were not disclosed.

MR. MORRIS: I was in the military in 2015.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: That was -- the other two were not disclosed, okay.

Board, are there any questions for Mr. Morris?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Morris, as you heard, 2015 wrongful use of marijuana was undisclosed, and a 2020 felony arrest for violation of probation was undisclosed.

Is there a reason while you failed to disclose those two?

MR. MORRIS: 2015 I was in the military. I was in the Army in Fort Hood. I was in a program for a drug relapse charge, marijuana. My mother had cancer, so I was going through a depression. I didn't know that that was actually going to be charged on a -- they didn't tell me anything about that. But that's the 2015.

As far as the 2020, that, I was -- actually, I was still on probation. I was in the program where I had to check in every three months on the computer. It was a random inspection, but I had company. This person had marijuana on them. I didn't know, but because it was in my vicinity they charged me. But --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you get arrested?

MR. MORRIS: A week later, yes, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And you appeared in front of a judge?

MR. MORRIS: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. So it was a technical -- you were arrested, correct?

MR. MORRIS: Yeah. Because it was a violation on my probation charge.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And is there a reason why you did not list that arrest?

MR. MORRIS: No, I had put that on the original application. Because that's what the lady had told me. She was, like, because you have disclosed everything, you have a felony, you have to appeal it.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So the investigator indicated that you did not disclose that. You only disclosed the 2017 case. It's okay. Mistakes are made.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Did you do a paper application?

MR. MORRIS: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: For the military, were you honorably discharged?

MR. MORRIS: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You were.

MR. MORRIS: Yeah. I have -- I'm -- I won't tell my percentage, but I am disabled medically for bodily things. But it's -- it's good. But, yeah.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, this 2015 conviction didn't get you kicked out.

MR. MORRIS: No.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Were you arrested for that? In the Army in 2015.

MR. MORRIS: No. I never went to Fort Leavenworth or anything. It's a program called ASAP. It's rehabilitation for some soldiers who go through relapse of pill, drugs, alcohol. It's kind of like AA/NA for the military. But they assess you to see if you're okay to be turned back to active duty and I was returned to active duty by the end of the year. Later I was released on conditions.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: In the 2015 -- this is Board Member Cortez, for the record.

In the 2015 while you were in the Army, was it more like a citation?

MR. MORRIS: Yeah. It's called an Article 15. You get written up, you get a little extra duty.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay, got it. Just wanted to understand if it was just a citation versus an actual arrest. Being you're in the military, there are different...

MR. MORRIS: Yes, ma'am. I didn't know they would actually put that on a civilian record or -- as a whole. That's very --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood, thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We're waiting to take a look at your application real quick.

MR. MORRIS: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, looking at his actual written record, it looks like he did list both of them. Probably didn't get the dates right, but he did list them. The only thing that wasn't listed was the 2015, which we all understand to be an Article 15, is usually a civil citation, you said?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Civil arrest, really.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: That was listed.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That's a typo.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yeah. So that's a typo.

Any further questions for the Board?

Okay. Seeing there's no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez. I am going to motion to overturn the denial and grant Mr. Morris his work card based on the new information that the incident of 2020 is -- was actually disclosed. And the 2015 was more of a citation based off military standards, not so much of an arrest. So it's understandable as to why that was not listed as an arrest.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you, sir, for listing everything, and good luck to you. Thank you, for your service.

Agenda Item No. 72.

MR. GAYLOR: Yeah, I'm here.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Codey Gaylor?

Sir, you've been sworn in?

MR. GAYLOR: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to verify.

Okay. Investigator Dumas, could you please tell us why we're here for Mr. Gaylor?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: The applicant was denied due to a 2015 felony which he was convicted of out of Ohio for domestic violence (indiscernible) cause physical harm, which was disclosed. In 2015 he was also convicted of a misdemeanor domestic violence, also disclosed. And a second 2015 misdemeanor for violation of the protection order, which he was also convicted out of Ohio. The applicant initially applied in November of 2023. He chose to withdraw at that time. This time the applicant disclosed all his arrests, he was not made provisional, and is here to appeal today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, any questions for Mr. Gaylor?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. Motion is to overturn the denial and grant Codey Gaylor's registration card. Time and distance.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez. Second the motion.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes. Congratulations, sir. The office will contact you.

MR. GAYLOR: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good luck to you.

Agenda Item No. 73, Mara Landinguin.

Good afternoon, ma'am.

MS. LANDINGUIN: Hi.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm, you've been sworn in.

MS. LANDINGUIN: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Investigator Swarthout, can you please tell us why we're here for Mrs. Landinguin?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for a felony conviction. Originally it was use or possession of dangerous weapon, failure to disclose arrest history. Out of California in 1998, felony conviction for grand theft money, property, greater than $400. Sentenced to two years prison. '93 out of California, robbery with use of a weapon. Felony, sentenced to six months jail. On the (indiscernible) weapon, three years probation. '93, this one is in March from California, misdemeanor battery, completed a deferred program. '92 out of California, misdemeanor possession, narcotics, controlled substance. Sentenced to 48 days jail, three years probation. None of these arrests were disclosed. She did disclose them when she did send in her appeal, but they weren't disclosed on the initial application.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

Board, any questions for Mrs. -- Ms. --

MS. LANDINGUIN: Landinguin.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Landinguin, thank you.

MS. LANDINGUIN: You're welcome.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Good afternoon, Ms. Landinguin.

MS. LANDINGUIN: Good afternoon.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Is there a reason why you failed to disclose it at the application?

MS. LANDINGUIN: Because I'm an idiot. I think because -- no, it's true. Because every time I fill out an application and everything, it always said, if you haven't done anything in the past seven years. As soon as I read have you been -- I just bypass it. Because I already know what it's going to say. But I didn't realize because I didn't actually take the time to read this one. So I kind of messed up on that. But I was actually working at LA Universal at the time doing security. So then when it came back, I was, like -- I still didn't know what happened. And then I got the letter, and I was, like, "Oh, God. What happened?" So, yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood. I don't think it makes you an idiot, so thank you.

MS. LANDINGUIN: Yes, it does. Because I wouldn't be here.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any other questions?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is is Board Member Cortez. I'm going to motion to uphold the denial based on failure to disclose criminal history at the time of submission of application.

MS. LANDINGUIN: That's great.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, I have a motion. Do I have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Ma'am, you have an opportunity to come back in one year.

MS. LANDINGUIN: No.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

MS. LANDINGUIN: Thanks.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Congratulations -- or good luck.

Agenda Item No. 74, Leamon Rhodes.

Investigator Swarthout, why are we here for Mr. Rhodes?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Applicant was denied due to the conviction of illegal use of -- possession of a dangerous weapon and failure to disclose arrest history. 2022 out of Nevada, misdemeanor, convicted for -- this one wasn't disclosed, assault and carry concealed weapon without a permit. The applicant was sentenced to six months jail suspended --

THE REPORTER: Can you slow down, please?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Forfeiture of the weapon and gun safety class and 48 hours of community service.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for Mr. Rhodes?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Rhodes, why did you fail to list your 2022 conviction?

MR. RHODES: That day I had a -- I had an infection, I had a tooth pulled. And I was on medication. I actually disclosed a prior arrest and I forgot to disclose that arrest. I paid for a lawyer for that case. And the assault charges were dropped. I was only charged and pled guilty to carrying a concealed weapon in a vehicle. It was a self defense case.

I called the next day. I called the PILB and they told me that I could not change my paperwork once it was already given. And they said that I could apply for an appeal. So that's what I did. It's all I could do. I honestly forgot to put it there. It wasn't intentional to try and hide anything.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood. Did you fill out the application on your own?

MR. RHODES: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: My second question is, is that there's a specific question in which it asks if you've been convicted of a felony, a crime of moral turpitude, domestic violence, or the illegal use of a firearm or other dangerous weapon offense. And this was all under the penalties of perjury. You listed that you have not been convicted of such on three different occasions. Is there a reason why you listed that?

MR. RHODES: Three different occasions?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: There are three different forms. And on all the -- all three forms you listed that you have not been convicted of felonies.

MR. RHODES: From my understanding -- hang on. What was it again?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: If I can. Were you --

MR. RHODES: I don't understand it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Were you formally an armed officer?

MR. RHODES: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. And when you signed your VEAS form as an armed officer to do your requalifications, do you remember those?

MR. RHODES: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: On that, it has that statement that you understand that you've -- that you --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Certify that I have not been convicted of a felony, a crime of moral turpitude, domestic violence, or the illegal use of or possession of a firearm or other dangerous weapon offense under the penalty of perjury.

MR. RHODES: Well, it probably would have been only once. Because that just happened. That charge was the last time I ever reapplied to be an armed guard. So the prior to, I didn't have that charge.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: When was your charge?

MR. RHODES: Just two years ago.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: In 2022 --

MR. RHODES: Two or three years ago.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: When did your guard card expire.

MR. RHODES: A year ago.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So --

MR. RHODES: And I had that -- I think it was four years.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So for -- so every six months you have to requalify, right? You sign your VEAS.

MR. RHODES: I wasn't completely an armed guard the entire time. I was an armed guard for about a year after getting my card, and the company switched contracts. We went from doing city contracts in public housing to a water plant and it was totally unarmed. And I also had an armed card at the time.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, each time you requalified and you signed that paperwork, you had that domestic, that DB charge, right?

MR. RHODES: No, I don't have a DB charge. It was a concealed weapon in a vehicle charge. It was a self defense case. I was attacked. I pulled my gun, I called the police, and they charged me. For defending myself. And I had to hire a lawyer and cost me tens of thousands of dollars to not become a felon.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Got you.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: But I just want to clarify, you were convicted of the weapons charge in 2022. When you requalified, you had your initial -- when you requalified your initial qualifications were November of 2022, and then again March of 2023 and then May of 2023. So you had two times after your conviction that you indicated that you were never convicted of a possession of a firearm.

MR. RHODES: I'm not 100 percent sure on that. I just know I went to the same resource when I did the court mandated gun safety course. And that's what they did it all as. But I wasn't working as an armed guard, and I didn't need an armed guard card. I was applying for a --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: But the question is not asking whether you were working. The question -- the statement indicates that you have certified that you were -- have not been convicted of a felony, crime of moral turpitude, domestic violence, or the illegal use or possession of a firearm. And in 2023, and in -- two times in 2023, March and in May, you indicated that you have not been convicted --

MR. RHODES: It must have been a mistake. Because I was -- I was doing unarmed work. And -- and I don't know if I just breezed through the paperwork and accidentally did that. Because my trainer, everybody knew. The company I worked for knew. They knew of the charges. They -- everybody knew.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Understood. Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Any further questions?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on nondisclosure of the 2022 case.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do

we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So unfortunately, because of the nondisclosure we're going to have to deny at this time. You do have the ability to come back in one year. Make sure you disclose everything, and we look forward to seeing you again.

MR. RHODES: I have a question to ask. I'm actually in the process of getting that -- getting it sealed.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: It would still have to be on there.

MR. RHODES: I know it's going to have to be disclosed, but am I just going to be denied again because of the nature of the charge or --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You would be initially because it's a weapons charge. But you would be able to come back before the Board. And as you see, we've gone through a couple of people that have disclosed things. We've been able to make changes.

MR. RHODES: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

So we have one more and go back and address trailed items.

Agenda Item No. 75, Robin Torricer.

Good afternoon, sir.

MR. TORRICER: Hi.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Swarthout, could you tell us why -- go ahead and have a seat.

Were you sworn in, sir?

MR. TORRICER: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Tell us why we're here for Mr. Torricer.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for conviction of the illegal use or possession of a dangerous weapon. 2015 out of Nevada, misdemeanor conviction for permittee with concealed weapon in prohibited public building, possession of drugs not for interstate commerce. The applicant was sentenced to 60 days jail concurrent per count, 86 hours of community service, and drug counseling for six months. The applicant also had a 2012 out of Nevada misdemeanor, animals no permit, which was a $200 fine.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to be clear, Investigator, all of this was disclosed?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, do we have any questions for Mr. Torricer?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I move we grant the appeal based on full disclosure of criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Congratulations. It's been approved. They'll contact you tomorrow, okay?

So to close out the current block of appeals, 12:30 appeals, we have Agenda Item No. 66 that was trailed. Demonta Harris. Okay. Demonta is not here.

The second one was Isaiah Washington. Is there an Isaiah Washington? Okay.

Seeing that they are not here for the 12:30 block, it is now 2:05, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial for Agenda Items No. 66 and 68 based on no call, no show. They were told to be here at said time. It is now 2:05 p.m.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Agenda Item -- is everybody still good?

Agenda Item No. 76, Marilyn Brown. No Brown.

Agenda Item No. 77, Kyle Kapuniai.

MR. KAPUNIAI: Kapuniai.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you, sir. Good afternoon.

MR. KAPUNIAI: Good afternoon.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Swarthout, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Kapuniai?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for a felony conviction. 2010 out of Hawaii, two counts of promotional marijuana. Five years concurrent, one year in prison, suspended seven months and $150 fine.

The applicant, after he was denied, did provide court documents for this case. And he did disclose it on his app.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So he did disclose it, but then he provided the paperwork afterwards.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Yeah.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Got it.

Board, are there any questions?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant Mr. Kapuniai his registration card based on full disclosure.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes. Congratulations. You will get your work card. The office will contact you tomorrow.

MR. KAPUNIAI: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Agenda Item No. 78, Dominique Harris.

Good afternoon, sir.

MR. HARRIS: Good afternoon.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Swarthout -- you've been sworn in, sir, just to confirm?

MR. HARRIS: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Swarthout, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Harris?

MR. HARRIS: The applicant was denied for the conviction of the illegal use or possession of a dangerous weapon. Out of Nevada, 2014 misdemeanor, domestic battery, and second charge, possession of dangerous, slash, deadly weapon. Sentenced to jail for three months, DV counseling for six months, and 48 hours of community service. Nevada 2023, gross misdemeanor, conspiracy to commit a crime. Sentenced to ten days CCDC. Nevada 2021, misdemeanor contributed to the delinquency of a minor. Credit for time served. Nevada 2022, gross misdemeanor, child abuse, neglect, or endangerment.

Sentenced to 180 days jail, CCDC, and 12 months probation. Out of Nevada, 2018, misdemeanor, battery second offense. Sentenced to 179 days jail suspended, 20 days jail imposed with credit for five days, 48 hours of community service, and a fine of $810. And then out of Nevada, 2013 misdemeanor, destruction of property of another. $25 to 250. Sentence is six months jail suspended, impulse control counseling, and stay out of trouble. And they were all disclosed.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: They were all disclosed. Okay.

Board, any questions for Mr. Harris?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. Good afternoon, Mr. Harris.

MR. HARRIS: Good afternoon, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Can you explain to me the gross misdemeanor and conspiracy to commit a crime in 2023?

MR. HARRIS: Yes. I was -- the -- I was at the bus stop. It was an altercation, little altercation. The dude -- the dude took off on me and I had the gun -- the gun, whatever. And I pulled that on him and that was it. And police was right there and the police came. I dropped it, put my hands up and stuff like that.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That sounds like a weapons charge, not conspiracy to commit crime charge.

MR. HARRIS: But I -- what, 2023?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: He's asking about your 2023 case. It was -- the charge was gross misdemeanor, conspiracy to commit a crime. Which you testified is that there was a weapon involved.

MR. HARRIS: Oh, I know what he's talking about. I think I wanted to say -- I was a phone -- I had a phone. It was a phone.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: My apologies. I am looking further. It says your original charge was carrying concealed weapon without a permit. And then possession of a gun by a prohibited person.

MR. HARRIS: Yeah, That's the one.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So there's a weapon charge.

MR. HARRIS: That's what I was talking about at the bus stop with that one. Police seen me. It was on me. Police seen me, pulled me over, you got your permit? I, like, no, sir. Put your hands behind your back. And I did what he did and that's what happened on that, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

It's not so much of a question, Mr. Harris. I do have a couple of concerns with your frequency of your criminal history. My concern is that you've got 2018, 2020, 2021, 2023.

MR. HARRIS: Yes, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: It's not too far from where we're at today. My concern is that -- are you capable of staying out of trouble in a consistent manner --

MR. HARRIS: Yes, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: -- for at least three years. Because right here, it's back to back.

MR. HARRIS: Yes, ma'am. Yes, ma'am, I can. I got counseling. I had went to parenting counseling. I talked to church people. I go to church now every Sunday. Bible study. My kids, my daughter, my younger daughter just turned 11. She keep me going. I have to stay away from bad people now.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: It's time to make a change.

MR. HARRIS: Yes, ma'am. Like I said, everything I did, I can accept that and it's time to change. And I've been praying every day to keep me going, keep me away from bad people and negative energy.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Perfect. Because if you are granted this work card, I would hate for you to come back in front of us for a revocation of that card because you failed to stay to track. It sounds like -- I would like to believe that you've learned your lesson. This is way too frequent.

MR. HARRIS: I understand.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Enough is enough already.

MR. HARRIS: Yes, ma'am. That's why I pray every day so I be on the right path. Because if I'm not here for my kids, who going to be here for them? That's why -- I got to be here for them. I here for them. I here from myself, I'm here for my kids.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any more questions for Mr. Harris?

Hearing there are no further questions I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant

Mr. Harris the work card based on full disclosure. Don't disappoint me.

MR. HARRIS: I won't let you down, I promise. I promise.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: The motion passes.

You will get your card. The office will contact you for next steps.

MR. HARRIS: I already got a job lined up, too. I was just waiting for that. I promise I ain't going to let you down. You ain't going to see me any more.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Hold you to it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 79 was a duplicate, so we have Agenda Item No. 80, Dwayne Brown.

So can I -- Board indulgence, ask a few questions real quick?

(Off record.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, back on the record. Thank you.

So, Mr. Brown, you're here in front of us.

Investigator Swarthout, could you please tell us why we're here for Mr. Brown?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant's card was revoked due to an incident that happened when he was working for Kinetic Force, Inc., dba Arcadia Security. On the night shift of November 28th going into November 29th at about 0435 hours there was an incident involved where he was found using force on a subject that had been taking a case of beer from the Walgreens on the corner of Las Vegas Boulevard and Sahara. We do have body cam footage of that incident, in which the applicant is seen deploying a taser, availing to deploy a taser, and then seen drawing a firearm and waiving it on Las Vegas Boulevard and pointing it towards the individual.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Mr. Brown?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Brown, can I get the testimony of what occurred this day?

MR. BROWN: So, it was Thanksgiving night -- well, ending of Thanksgiving. Doing night shift. It was early in the morning.

We had a shoplifter. He was a frequent homeless guy, comes through all the time. He tried to take a couple of people when I'm not around. So when I come, I'm working, talking to a -- one of the cashiers. Me and her is talking, we not really paying attention to him. So when he comes through, he walks through the back, come out with two big 24 beer and he walks up to me, like, I kill mother -- if you try to stop me. At first it didn't dawn on to me what he was saying because I'm talking to her and I'm, like -- then I look -- I'm, like, oh, he said this. And then he walks up closer, so I'm, like, stop.

I admit, I even told my captain when he came, like, I tased him when he went outside the store, which I shouldn't have done. Yes. And I also admitted that I had -- when he went across the street, he was talking mess with a group of his friends. I told him come back, whatever. It was just yap, yap on my -- press my holster and all that stuff. I admitted everything. My wrong.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: When you said you pressed on your holster, is that your --

MR. BROWN: My firearm.
BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Loaded firearm.
MR. BROWN: Yeah.
BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you pull it out at any time?
MR. BROWN: Not that I remember, no.
BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And your testimony is that you did tase him, though, with --
MR. BROWN: I shot the taser, but he didn't even get tased. He -- he, like, oh, and walked across the street.
BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. And it's your testimony that he approached you and verbally threatened you.
MR. BROWN: Yeah. Basically said, I kill you. But, at the end of the day, I admitted my wrong, that I tased him outside store property, like, as soon as he walked out the door, I followed him, like, right as soon as he walked out the door. And I admitted to it, my captain as soon as he came. I called them, everything, and told them everything and all that stuff.
BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So at what point did you feel that you were in imminent threat that caused you to pull out your taser?

MR. BROWN: When he first had came. But, like I said, I admitted my wrong. Because I tased him as he was, like -- well, I deployed the tase as soon as he walked out. Because I was right here by the door. I'm posting -- stationed right here at the entrance and exit door.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And then after you tased him, the taser didn't get to him.

MR. BROWN: He ran across the street. Me and him and his friends or whatever mouthing off at each other. And I pressed on my holster.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Why did you feel that you needed to do that part?

MR. BROWN: It was also macho man stuff. Just going through -- like I said, I admitted it to my captain as soon as he came.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I absolutely appreciate that honesty right there. Because that is a very honest statement. However, I do have concerns with that.

MR. BROWN: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Because you are held to a higher level of standard and responsibility. Especially as an armed guard.

MR. BROWN: Yeah. I had learned from my lesson. I ended up getting a second job after that at a marijuana dispensary. I was armed there, and I had like other people around me. And I learned from my mistakes. Anyway, so, it was -- I was very regretful immediately after everything.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You were what?

MR. BROWN: Regretful. I regret it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, I mean, he was walking away from you. So I have to ask, you know, the same thing that Board Member Cortez asked. Like, it was just ego that made you --

MR. BROWN: Yeah, like I said, it was, like -- it was, like, basically egotistic, macho man. I was -- my grandma just died from cancer and it was Thanksgiving. She died that day. So I was, like, going through a whole lot. I'm from California. I'm the only person out here, me and my kids. So just, like -- I been -- yeah. Like I said, it was egotistic, macho man.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So are you still working as an armed officer or --

MR. BROWN: Well, the company that I was just recently with, they got a message from PILB, told them to terminate me. But they told me, like, they're willing to set me back immediately if things is worked out. Because I been doing, like, a phenomenal job there. They trust me.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I guess, Executive Director, was he notified that he wasn't supposed to work as an armed officer or is it just --

MR. BROWN: No, I was never notified. Sorry.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: I have to check with Mr. Swarthout, because he would have sent out the notification.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Yes, he was sent a denial letter, the revocation letter, on March 18th of 2025.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And you're saying you didn't get the letter --

MR. BROWN: That was after I did my recoil. After I started working for the next company.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. But when they notified you, did you stop working for them?

MR. BROWN: Yeah. I got terminated the exact day I was supposed to go to work.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I got you. So once the letter went out, it got to the qualifying agent as well.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Yeah.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I got you.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: What's the store policy on an individual who is in -- who's taking merchandise from the store?

MR. BROWN: We got a choice to either say stop, drop it. If it get to, like, a point where it get aggressive with -- supposed to defend ourselves, like I said. If they go out the store, I wasn't supposed to do anything. Like I said, I stated my fault where as soon as he walked out the store I tased him. I shot the taser. I wasn't supposed to do --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So here's the other problem. We have body footage.

MR. BROWN: Yeah, I know.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: The individual was already outside of the store.

MR. BROWN: Yeah, that's what I say. He was already outside.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: When you deployed your taser.

MR. BROWN: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CASTRO: So you broke policy.

MR. BROWN: Yeah, that's what I said.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That is a huge problem. Again, while I can appreciate you admitting your fault, that ego -- it's a very fine line to check your ego.

MR. BROWN: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And I'm not sure that this incident may not happen again.

MR. BROWN: I'm understanding. But it's --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And I'm going to be very transparent with what I'm about to say the next time.

You are an African-American male, and so was the customer.

MR. BROWN: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Let's switch that around. Now you're a white individual and it was a black customer. How do you think that would look?

MR. BROWN: You know, racism.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: The race card would get pulled really fast.

MR. BROWN: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: There's not a doubt in my mind that, game over, you're done, revoked.

MR. BROWN: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Why shouldn't the standards be the same now?

MR. BROWN: I learned from my lesson. I've grown. I deeply regret it. Like I was saying, I was going through something at that time. So it was, like -- like, it just -- it was just messing me up that day. I just had a bad day. But, like I said, I learned from it. Moved on from it. And I'm -- whatever you all decision, I accept it. But I learned from my mistakes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Counsel Detmer, can I ask a question?

What are our options here? Because he has an armed card. Are we able to -- if we don't feel comfortable with him being armed right now, even though he stated he learned his lesson, is there an option to allow him to keep his unarmed card to continue to work, but then put some stipulations on whether or not he can go back and get an armed card? Do we have options?

MR. BROWN: I even -- after I got fired, I even gave my gun back to the gun shop.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I'm looking long-term. This -- let's just say things went even further.

MR. BROWN: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: There went your livelihood because of your ego.

How old are you?

MR. BROWN: I'm 31.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You're incredibly young. You're incredibly young and you indicated that you have children.

MR. BROWN: Yeah. I got four.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I really want you to work on getting your ego under control if you are going to stay in this line of work. Your child is depending on your freedom.

MR. BROWN: Yeah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And it's not about you any more. I hope you understand the message I'm trying to --

MR. BROWN: Yeah, I understand.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: All right.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We're just -- legal counsel is discussing what our options are here.

DAG DETMER: I apologize. Is this something I can research and maybe trail this matter while I look at it?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Absolutely.

So what he's asking -- because what I want to know is whether or not we have options here.

It sounds like you learned your lesson, so do we have an option to just revoke your armed card for now, allow you to work unarmed, and then, you know, a path towards working to getting armed again or not.

MR. BROWN: I'll do that.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So what -- Counsel Detmer here is our legal counsel, is trying to research that.

So if you would not mind, we'd like to trail you for a little bit longer while he does some research and then we'll bring you back up.

MR. BROWN: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And we'll have options, okay?

MR. BROWN: Okay. So just come back.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yeah, thank you.

Is the Board okay with that? Okay.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Hang tight. We're going to call your case again.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Don't leave.

Yes, sir.

MR. COLEMAN: I'm sorry (indiscernible)

Scheduled for 2:30.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: What is your name?

MR. COLEMAN: Lazarus Coleman.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: He was Agenda Item No. 98.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You haven't been called yet.

MR. COLEMAN: I'm sorry. I apologize.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Now we're on Agenda Item 81; is that correct? Okay. We're on Agenda Item 81, Jay --

MR. BUCHALTER: Buchalter.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Buchalter.

MR. BUCHALTER: Thought I'd help you with that.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Are we on 81?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Yes.

MR. BUCHALTER: I have been sworn in.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Investigator Swarthout, could you please tell us why we're here for Mr. Buchalter?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for the conviction of a felony out of Hawaii 1990. This one was disclosed. Felony, distribution of cocaine. Sentenced to 48 months prison, 16 months probation, and a fine of $8,540.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Mr. Buchalter?

Hearing there's no questions I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant Mr. Buchalter his work card based on full disclosure.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Congratulations, sir. You will get your work card. The office will contact you tomorrow for next steps.

MR. BUCHALTER: Thank you, very much.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You're welcome. Good luck to you.

Agenda Item No. 82, Edward Hodges.

MR. HODGES: Good afternoon, everybody.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good afternoon, sir. Have you been sworn in, sir?

MR. HODGES: No, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Is there anybody else in the room that's come in that has not been sworn in? Is there anybody up north?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: We have people up here in the north.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So if they could stand as well. I'm sure we're not going to see them.

But please stand, sir, raise your right hand.

AUDIENCE MEMBERS,
having been duly sworn,
testified as follows:

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Please have a seat.

Investigator Swarthout, why are we here for Mr. Hodges?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for the conviction of the illegal use or possession of a dangerous weapon and for failure to disclose. Out of Nevada, 2022, misdemeanor carry concealed firearm without a permit. Second charge is store firearm in unsafe area. Sentenced for the first count was credit for time served. For the second count, six months of jail suspended sentence, firearm seized, and gun safety course. Nevada 2022, this is May 3rd, felony. This case was a DA denial, but first charge was possession of sale of controlled substance, I -- Class I or Class II. Second charge was possession of a controlled substance, Class I or Class II. 14 grams but less than 100 -- less than 28 grams. Third count was possession. Marijuana, one ounce or less than 50 pounds. Nevada 2020, misdemeanor convicted, carry concealed weapon without a permit. Sentenced to credit time served and forfeiture of the weapon. Nevada, 2019 December, use, possess -- use, possess to use, imitate controlled substance. This one was a DA denial. Nevada, January 2019, misdemeanor possession of drug not for interstate commerce. Sentenced to credit time served. And then there's an additional Excel that has more arrests on it. The applicant on his application listed four arrests, but only two were actual arrests. The other two were traffic violations that he listed.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for Mr. Hodges?

MR. HODGES: Something to say?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Hang on a second.

Board, are there any questions for Mr. Hodges?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez. I do have a question.

Mr. Hodges, why did you fail to disclose any of your criminal history?

MR. HODGES: I -- when they told me to fill out the application, they told me to go to get a SCOPE from the Martin Luther King.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Who's they?

MR. HODGES: The lady at the front.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: At the time, PILB office?

MR. HODGES: At the office. She said I would need -- I never -- I didn't understand. This is my -- I'm changing my life all the way around. Since then, I got custody of my kids and everything. Like I said, I didn't understand that you had to write them all. So I just thought -- thought if you look at my -- like, kept saying it's a lot. So I was, like -- it was a lot. So I just started from the beginning and I just started writing down. And it's -- on the paper application it's only five things where you can put. And I thought -- and I was trying to give her my SCOPE, too. So I was giving her everything. Like, I wasn't trying to hide it. Again, when I wrote that thing, I went back again and asked her, do I need to give her the SCOPE again. I brought it again, you know, so I won't be missing information or nothing. But then she said specific that it said all of my -- biggest word for me. When I read it, I didn't realize that if I needed to ask her for another piece of paper to keep writing down more and more like that. But I definitely wasn't trying to disclose, because obviously you guys -- I knew you guys all know what's going on. There's no hiding it.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I just want to make sure I understood. Did you say that you wrote down or disclosed some?

MR. HODGES: No, I wrote everything that fit on the paper.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Was that after you were told --

MR. MORRIS: No --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: -- you were --

MR. HODGES: Yeah, but I guess two of them is traffic tickets. And I -- I don't -- I didn't -- I don't even understand how to write them down. I mean, I don't know if I wrote them down the right way.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. And was this -- was your application online or was it on paper?

MR. HODGES: Paper.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So, according to our notes, no criminal history was disclosed. Unless I missed something.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Two were disclosed and he listed traffic ones, also. But I don't think there were even cases that showed up, because he was --

MR. HODGES: That's what I'm saying.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: And that's -- trespass --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, hang on.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. So two were. Of the two, what year was disclosed?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: He listed two 2010 trespassings.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. So in 2010 -- you listed the 2010 one. But now here's the problem.

Did you get arrested in 2022, three years ago?

MR. HODGES: What for? I believe so.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You do believe that you did get arrested?

MR. HODGES: I believe so.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So there's a couple of charges in 2022. There's May 3rd, which was possession to sell Schedule I and II, three grams of drugs. And then another concealed firearm. So that was only three years ago. You listed a 2010 charge, but you didn't list ones that were three years ago.

MR. HODGES: Because they were on the friend of mine. When you look at the SCOPE, if you look at the SCOPE, it just tell you what you been arrested for and anything. I was just writing what -- what was right there. It wasn't, like -- like, it wasn't, like -- if it was, like, seven sheets of paper to -- or, like, my SCOPE is 15 pages long. If it was 15 pages, it would have -- I just was writing, just --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I understand what you're saying. I guess I'm just a little confused how you would put down a 2010 case, which is almost -- quite some time, but you wouldn't list the ones that were three years ago.

MR. HODGES: I don't know how -- I don't know how it was...

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Which is okay.

MR. HODGES: I don't understand how it was, like, put in the thing. But I wasn't trying to, like -- I guess not -- I'm trying to do way more other things. And that was -- like I said, before that day he got me, like I said, I been taking things from people. Some of those cases I got identity theft and it was -- some of that stuff wasn't me, that's why the DA rejected it. So it's like -- it's bittersweet, but I definitely understand what I did.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Just so you understand that when you -- if you're going to come back and do this again, should -- whatever the decision be, you need to list every arrest. Whether you did time, didn't do time. If you were arrested you need to list that out. You say you have a SCOPE, so now you have a list of everything that you've done. And our office also has a list of that. So you can definitely go back and ask for assistance to write down everything that has come up. If you remember things and you don't know exactly when the year was, just write it down. Hey, I was arrested this -- for -- on this day. I think it was this year.

MR. HODGES: I should ask for more paper.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Absolutely.

MR. HODGES: I didn't understand. That was the -- that's the -- that's my confusion right there. I didn't ask for more paper on the application that you guys provided. I don't understand that even to keep asking for more to write down, but I would have wrote them down.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Perfect. Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

Hearing there are no further questions I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on failure to disclose majority of criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So we have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, sir, you have an opportunity to come back in one year like --

MR. HODGES: That's fine, thank you. I appreciate it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you. Have a good day.

Agenda Item No. 83, Latanya Mason. Hello.

Just to confirm, ma'am, you've been sworn in?

MS. MASON: Yes, I have.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Investigator Swarthout, why are we here for Ms. Mason?

MR. HODGES: The Applicant was denied for a felony conviction and for failure to disclose arrest history. Out of Nevada 1989, felony, grand larceny, and second count was obstructing public officer, misdemeanor. Guilty on both counts. One year jail suspended, probation 36 months and counseling. California 1982, felony, theft of personal property. Sentenced to 90 days jail, suspended, 24 months probation and a $208 fine. And then 2021 out of Nevada, misdemeanor false statement to obstruct public officer convicted. Nevada 2019 misdemeanor DUI, second offense. Sentenced to 180 days jail, probation 18 months. June of 2018, Nevada, felony, domestic battery with use of a deadly weapon. That case was dismissed. And we have an Excel that continues on with other arrests.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Ms. Mason?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Ms. Mason, why did you fail to disclose any of your criminal history?

MS. MASON: I did. I just forgot that one. 1989, those were a long, long time ago. So -- so...

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So we have reports that you failed to disclose 2018, 2019, 2021, 1982, and a 1989 case. And I believe -- were any of them disclosed?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: On the Excel there was one disclosed. It was another DUI that she had.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So we have one charge disclosed. And obviously you're aware that there's a lengthy history.

So is there a reason why you failed to disclose the majority of them? All but one.

MS. MASON: I thought I did. Because I'm in court right now for the DUI. So I thought that was -- one was already disclosed because I'm in court for that one right now. But the older ones, I simply forgot because they were so old. '89 and 2025. I'm glad this is all coming out so that way I can take care of it, you know? Because when you get caught up in schoolwork and grandkids, you don't remember all those things, you know. So I'm glad this came out like this. So now I can move forward, take care of it and move forward and make -- and get it behind me. Because it's not going anywhere. This is the good thing.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions for Ms. Mason?

If there's no further questions I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on failure to disclose all but one -- or the majority of criminal history except for one.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, unfortunately, you will not get your card today, but you do have an opportunity to come back in one year. Work with the office. They have all of your information so you don't even have to remember next time. They'll just help you get it down, okay?

MS. MASON: Will they help me?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yes, ma'am, they will.

MS. MASON: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Look forward to seeing you in a year.

MS. MASON: You'll see me. If I'm not out of the country. I better take this.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 84, Ronnie Ward.

Good afternoon, sir.

MR. WARD: Good afternoon.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm, you've been sworn in?

MR. WARD: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Investigator Swarthout, could you please tell us why we're here?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for a conviction of a felony, 2019 out of California. Felony, robbery second degree. Sentenced to two days in jail, suspended sentence and five years probation. The applicant did disclose his arrest history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, any questions for Mr. Ward?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Board Member Gronauer.

Mr. Ward, are you still on paper? Are you still on probation?

MR. WARD: No.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Because it was five years ago. When did you get off probation?

MR. WARD: I got off last year in August or July, I believe.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Was it honorable, honorable discharge?

MR. WARD: What you mean by --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Positive or negative termination.

MR. WARD: Oh, positive. I just called and they told me -- because usually I check in on the kiosk machine. And when I went to check in it wouldn't let me check in. So I'm, like, oh, all right. So I call the number I usually call and she told me, like, you're off probation now. And that was it.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Surprise, surprise.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

How long have you been in Nevada?

MR. WARD: I just came last year. Last year.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Any contact with law enforcement?

MR. WARD: No.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: What do you plan to do with the work card if you're granted one?

MR. WARD: Get me a good paying job. Because I work at Domino's right now. I only make $12 an hour, barely anything. And I got three kids. And so I'm just trying to make money for them.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: What were the circumstances of the 2019 robbery case?

MR. WARD: I had to pay a fine --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: No, not what were the conditions. Tell me what happened.

MR. WARD: Okay. So basically, my friend was selling a phone.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Your friend was selling a phone?

MR. WARD: Selling a phone. Selling an iPhone. It was, like, an 8 at the time. And (indiscernible).

THE REPORTER: And what? And what? Can you repeat that?

MR. WARD: And I was using an off rep account to sell the phone for him. He asked me to post it. I posted it. Somebody -- I went with him and his girlfriend to meet the dude. And once I got them two together, he's the one that's selling the phone. I don't have a phone to sell. I went back to the car. Friend came back to the car and he sold the phone. Then after we drove off, he came running after the car, running after -- jumped on the hood. The mirror on the right -- right side. Jumped on it, trying to get his girlfriend to stop. She didn't stop so he let go, fell off the car. And then after that...

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Have you learned your lesson?

MR. WARD: Definitely. I been suffering -- never been in trouble before besides that. I been clean. As a kid never did no type of trouble, anything like that. Learned my lesson. Let nobody use none of my accounts. Anything you want to do is all on them. I'm not taking no parts in it. I don't know nobody out here. That's why I decided to move out here with my girlfriend and my kids, to stay away from trouble.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

Hearing there are no further questions I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant Mr. Ward his work card based on full disclosure and positive termination of probation.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, the motion passes.

You will get your card. The office will call you or reach out to you tomorrow, okay?

MR. WARD: Okay, thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good luck to you, sir.

Agenda Item No. 85, Jess Womble.

MR. WOMBLE: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Blackmore, could you tell why we're here for Mr. Womble?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Yes.

Mr. Womble was denied for his crime involving moral turpitude. Mr. Womble did apply back in 2020 where he was denied but did not submit an appeal. It is for a 2013 -- there was three counts. The first two counts were unlawful sex activity with a minor. He was convicted. He did 365 days jail, $1,000 fine, 36 months probation. He did have to register at that time. The third count was unlawful sex activity with a minor, which was a felony. That one, I believe, was dismissed because he pled guilty to the Count I and II.

As far as him being on the registry, he was terminated from it on February 6 of 2025, so he no longer has to register. He was not made provisional, and he did -- and he wishes to appeal here today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So -- but everything was disclosed.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Correct. Everything was disclosed.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, any questions for Mr. Womble?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Womble, is the reason for the termination of the registry based off the tier, just so I understand?

MR. WOMBLE: I remain Tier I, but you're not automatically removed. You have to petition with the court for a judge to decide.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And they granted that petition.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: And then I also have the paperwork for that as well, too.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So Investigator Blackmore, how does that work now that you're in a different state? Does it matter? Does our state require anything different, or is that, like, a nationwide...

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: So when he came here, it looks like -- that he satisfied some requirements to have a five-year reduction of the period of registration. I believe in Utah, Tier I is considered 15 years. So then technically, he only did ten years.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: In the state of Utah.

MR. WOMBLE: I petitioned Utah and was removed there as well. Ten years is the period where you can petition for early removal. So the periods are the same. After ten years, if you've been compliant, no new crimes, you satisfy therapy, and then you can petition the court.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Is that nationwide or is that just for that specific state?

MR. WOMBLE: The states that you registered in. So I had to register in Utah because that's where my crime was, and then when I moved to Nevada in 2015 and was on the registry here and I had to petition Nevada to be removed.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So that petition granted was out of the state of Nevada.

MR. WOMBLE: And Utah.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And Utah, correct. Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. These charges were misdemeanor?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Yes. So, there was three counts. The first two counts when he was convicted were misdemeanor counts, the third count was a felony that was dismissed.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Mr. Womble, what's your -- this is Board Member Cortez, for the record. What are your plans for the work card should you be granted one?

MR. WOMBLE: I work security now directly for a company so I don't need a PILB card. But I only work two days a week, so I'd like to get an armed guard card so I can get more hours.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: When you say directly for a company, which company?

MR. WOMBLE: Dapper Development.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I move we grant the work card based on full disclosure of criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So the motion passes.

Congratulations. The office will reach out to you tomorrow, okay? Good luck to you.

Agenda Item No. 86, Pas Martinez.

MR. MARTINEZ: Yes, ma'am. How you doing?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good. How are you?

MR. MARTINEZ: Good, thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just to confirm, sir, you've been sworn in?

MR. MARTINEZ: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Investigator Dumas, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Martinez?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: The applicant was denied due to a 1997 felony which he was convicted of out of Nevada for one count of invasion of home, vehicle, or vessel; one count of theft; and one count of possession of stolen property. In 2015 he was convicted in Nevada for a felony for possession of Schedule I, II, III, and IV substance, which he was found guilty in trial. In 2010 he was convicted of possession of marijuana, which was a misdemeanor. He pled guilty, was sentenced to 30 days in jail.

The applicant is on the Clark County felony registry. He disclosed most arrests. He was not made provisional and is here to appeal today.

The only arrest he didn't disclose was the misdemeanor possession of marijuana.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Mr. Martinez?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Martinez, why did you fail to disclose all of your criminal history?

MR. MARTINEZ: Well, I don't even think I disclosed anything. Because I made a copy of it in my police report. And I -- and I stapled it to the forms. Regardless what I put down there from 1996 to 2015. But I did disclose it all. I don't understand why, because it's all written in -- me and my wife, we sat there and written -- and my daughter made a copy of it. And I told the lady up there, and she said the only thing that you have to put up there is all your -- it's just your felonies. She didn't say nothing about traffic tickets or anything like that. All I put up there was my felonies. And that's what I put up there, what I did in '97 and what I did in -- I was also arrested in Houston, Texas in 1994. My dad passed away in '95 and I came to Las Vegas.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So you just testified that there was an additional arrest that you did not disclose. Because we don't even have that.

MR. MARTINEZ: Yeah, I put it on. I don't understand why -- I don't understand --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, do you have his application?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: No, I don't carry that with me out of the office. But everything was on the criminal history report is what was on his federal fingerprints results.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Did he -- I guess we're trying to find out whether or not he attached a SCOPE or additional paperwork to his application.

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: I can't answer that. I don't have the application with me. And I don't remember.

MR. MARTINEZ: Well, I did staple on there and I gave it to lady in the window. And I asked her if this is all I need. She told me this is all you need. You did a good job. I guess most people don't put their crimes on a piece of paper just like I did. So I just let it be like that. And I walked out the door. Paid her the money and walked out.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Let me ask you a question. This is Gronauer.

You said you gave it to the lady and she said not everybody puts it on another piece of paper. So did you have a separate piece of paper you put it on?

MR. MARTINEZ: No. She said a lot of people don't disclose their --

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: On that paper.

MR. MARTINEZ: -- crimes on that paper. But the paper that my daughter had gave me of all my cases, I also stapled that on there with the forms that I returned with her. She also has that form.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So --

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: We're going to check on your application now. See if we can figure it out.

The lady said that -- also, that you only had to list felonies?

MR. MARTINEZ: Just felony, all my felonies. No traffic.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Where was this lady?

MR. MARTINEZ: It was on -- she's on Durango and Sahara.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: At the office.

MR. MARTINEZ: Yeah, The office.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Was it the fingerprint office or the licensing office?

MR. MARTINEZ: No, I went to the license office, fill out the forms, and then I went to the fingerprint office.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: But who told you you only have to do the felonies?

MR. MARTINEZ: The lady that was working at the window.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: At the fingerprint office or the --

MR. MORRIS: No, at the -- at the main office. The public defender -- investigators. She's the one who gave me the...

See, I'm a union worker. I've been working for the union already going on 15 years. I work in all the casinos in Nevada. I just -- I work. I do floors. I can't be on my knees any more, I can't -- my back is all messed up. Got two back surgeries. So I figure, I have friends that work in the security department that I could be one of them, you know? Instead of working on my knees.

But, yeah, that's why -- I'm going to retire here in -- 62. I'm 60 now. But I still have plenty of time to go to work. I don't want to stay home and die, you know. I want to work, do something with my life. I have 14 grandkids and I got seven children. They're all grown, they all graduated. Two in the military, one's in Germany right now.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We're just waiting to hear from the office whether or not that paperwork was turned in.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Investigator Dumas, I just want to confirm that the 2010 possession of marijuana charge was not disclosed?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: Correct. Felonies -- the felonies were disclosed. But misdemeanor was not.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Thank you.

MR. MARTINEZ: On the misdemeanor, I did time served on community service. I did community service. I think I did, like, 60 hours -- no, like, 100 hours of community service. And I did that at the church, at the Santa Ana Catholic church.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Right. But the issue still stands that you failed to disclose that charge --

MR. MARTINEZ: I don't understand how I disclosed it when it's all on paper.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That's what's being checked out right now.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So Board, we are looking at the paperwork and it was disclosed. There was a multitude of disclosures. So it seems as though there's a typo in the paperwork. It was all disclosed.

Board, are there any further questions for Mr. Martinez?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Martinez, everything is current, as far as your felony registry goes?

MR. MARTINEZ: Yes, ma'am. Everything is correct.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Perfect.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, if there's no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant Mr. Martinez his work card based on full disclosure.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So we have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So we have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So it is approved.

The office will contact you with next steps so you can get off the knees.

MR. MARTINEZ: All right, ma'am. Thank you and God bless you all.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good luck to you.

Agenda Item No. 87, Gregory Carmichael.

Mr. Carmichael, you've been sworn in?

MR. CARMICHAEL: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Investigator Dumas, could you please tell us why we're here for Mr. Carmichael?

INVESTIGATOR DUMAS: The applicant was denied due to a 2010 felony conviction out of New York for a violation of protection order. He was sentenced to five years probation. In 2011 he was convicted of a felony for criminal contempt of the first for another five years probation. In 2011, same year, the month after he was convicted of a misdemeanor for criminal contempt in the second. And he pled guilty to that. Also out of New York. In 2010 he was convicted of a misdemeanor in New York for one count of aggravated harassment, one count stalking in the fourth, one count of causing fear. The disposition or outcome is unknown for that. In 2010 he was convicted of a misdemeanor for criminal contempt in the second also out of New York. The applicant was previously denied on March 13, 2024. He has reapplied, disclosed all arrests. He was not made provisional and would like to appeal.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, thank you.

Board, any questions for Mr. Carmichael?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. Good afternoon, Mr. Carmichael.

MR. CARMICHAEL: How are you?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You were here last year, right?

MR. CARMICHAEL: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: And you now listed everything, got everything taken care of. Congratulations.

MR. CARMICHAEL: Yeah, I apologize.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: We appreciate that. Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Have you had any contact since 2020 -- 2010 with law enforcement?

MR. CARMICHAEL: No. Not even a speeding ticket.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any further questions for Mr. Carmichael?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. Motion is to overturn the denial and grant Mr. Carmichael his registration card. And time and distance.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member

Cortez. I'll second that motion.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

You will get your card. The office will contact you tomorrow for next steps, okay?

MR. CARMICHAEL: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Congratulations.

MR. CARMICHAEL: Appreciate you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 88, Ruben Garcia.

Mr. Garcia, are you here?

MR. GARCIA: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Sir, just to confirm, you have been sworn in?

MR. GARCIA: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Go ahead and have a seat, please.

Investigator Swarthout, why are we here for Mr. Garcia?

MR. SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for conviction of illegal use or possession of dangerous weapon. 2019 out of Nevada, gross misdemeanor, attempt carry concealed weapon -- concealed firearm or other deadly weapon, convicted. The applicant did get this case sealed. This is his second time before the Board. And now he has it sealed and time and distance from it and he disclosed it in the SCOPE.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for Mr. Garcia?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Garcia, thank you for disclosing it this time.

MR. GARCIA: Thank you.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I appreciate you doing that. However, there are some questions. I'm not sure if you were here or heard from the previous -- there was a previous applicant that there is a question on your DEAS forms. When you requalify, there's a statement that indicates that under the penalties of perjury you certified that you have not been convicted of a felony and crime of moral --

THE REPORTER: Excuse me.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Sorry.

Moral turpitude, domestic violence, or the illegal use or possession of firearms or other dangerous weapons offense. This is all under the penalties of perjury.

You indicated that you have not been convicted of such. Is there a reason why?

MR. GARCIA: I was dropped on those and they told me not to put it in necessarily because it's already been sealed. Because I already talked to a lawyer. That's why they told me to bring the paperwork, everything was sealed.

The same in my application. I did put in, I don't know if it's there, what it says, if I missed the -- requalification. That's why I put in the application that it was a lie when I did not know what was going on. I did put that as well. That's why I waited two more years for stupidity on my part so I could fix everything and come in clear. So I would be able to do my card. So I didn't -- they told me to wait one year. And I waited two years until I fixed everything.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I think the conflict is, it's when you're going for your recertification there are forms that are saying that you certify you've never been convicted of such. But, in fact, you have been. That's where you're saying that you haven't. Those forms. You've done what you needed to do here for this application. But I just caution you, when you go for recertification, there's a specific line that says whether or not you've been convicted of such, and the answer is that yes, you have. But you're indicating that you have not. So that's why it's, like, wait a minute. Are you being truthful or are you not being truthful? Does that make sense?

MR. GARCIA: Yeah, I'm kind of confused. My other question is, okay, like I say, I waited two years trying to get my card back. I've been trying to get my card. I hope so. To requalify, to be armed, how would I go on that?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I think the -- that is something -- that this is step one. Can he be requalified as a -- with the -- if that's not what we're here for today.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: I have to look to see what the ceiling -- if it was a felony or not.

MR. GARCIA: I have the paper right here as well that I presented it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yeah. But today we're only focused in on the unarmed guard card.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The case was only a gross misdemeanor.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: That would not make the individual a prohibited person for firearms. We also have amended our VAS form to now read since the issuance of my work card, I have not.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Perfect.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: That way, moving forward, if they got approved here, fill that out correctly.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. There is a path to that, I guess. But this is just the first step is to get you your unarmed guard card first.

Board, are there any questions for Mr. Garcia?

So if there's no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant Mr. Garcia the work card based on full disclosure of his record.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So you will get your guard card. The office will contact you for next steps, okay?

MR. GARCIA: Thank you, ma'am.

THE REPORTER: Can we take just a two-minute break?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yes. So we're going to take a couple minute break here.

Yes, sir.

MR. COLEMAN: Excuse me, I apologize. You said that I wasn't up yet, but I seen that I was 79. So I guess you guys may have called me before I came in.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: No. Yours was duplicated. I think you're No. 98 right now, right? Is that correct? Are you Lazarus Coleman.

MR. COLEMAN: Lazarus Coleman.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yeah, Lazarus Coleman. You're Agenda Item No. 98. If you want to take one of those agendas.

MR. COLEMAN: I see.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

MR. VARRETTE: James Varrette. Trying to see what number I might be.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: There's an agenda over there.

MR. VARRETTE: I signed it already.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: There's an agenda, has all the list of all --

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: You're Agenda No. 94.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So we're going to go ahead and take a break real quick. We're off the record.

Thank you.

(Off record.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thanks for the Board's and everybody's indulgence. Is everybody back? We're ready to go.

Mr. Brown, we're going to call you back up. We had some discussion. Thank you, for being patient.

My intention was to really determine what our options were here. And so I asked legal counsel to review those options.

So, legal counsel, if you want to update us on your research and your thoughts.

DAG DETMER: Yes, Chair. For the record, Mike Detmer.

And in reference to the discussions that was had, that was a conversation between the Chair and I, not a quorum of the Board.

In looking at the statutes and regulations and the time frame that I had allowed, I did not see any specific provision within the Board statutes or regulations that would allow for a conditional or limitations placed upon registrations.

There are certain instances where Boards or commissions may interpret inherent power to grant a limited or conditional license or registration. But that's -- it's an interpretation that can be adopted, but there are with it certain concerns.

One concern specific to this Board is there is language in one of the statutes that's specific to licensees where one could interpret that to allow for a conditional or limited license.

However, with it being specific to licenses, the question would be, why is it not included -- that language included for registrations as well. One might interpret that to be intentional.

So all that being said, while it is a interpretation that the Board arguably can do, I would caution it as it can lead to unintended consequences and challenges for arbitrary capriciousness.

And with that submit, happy to answer any questions the Board may have.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: What the hell did you just say?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I knew it. I knew it.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez.

It's my understanding that basically, we can't -- it's recommended that we use caution in recommending a limited license versus denial or revocation.

DAG DETMER: Mike Detmer, for the record.

Broader than that. The caution would be to adopt an interpretation that would allow the Board to do conditions or limitations on registrations.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, if we do revoke, just so it's clear to everybody, is there a path to getting -- is there a pathway to getting it back or no?

DAG DETMER: Mike Detmer, for the record again.

Just to qualify, all my answers is based off the research I was -- in the time I had in this when this question was posed.

My understanding is, and it may be beneficial to refer to the Executive Director as well. But I believe it's just denial with the one-year reapplication period.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. So there is a one year -- he can apply again in one year. Okay, got it. Okay.

Any questions for the Board? So, on Agenda Item No. 80, we trailed it and left it open for Mr. Brown because we had some questions on what our options were. And so are there any questions for Mr. Brown at this point?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez. I make a motion that we revoke Mr. Brown's work card based on the video body cam image -- body image -- body camera provided in evidence of the actual occurrence.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer. I'll second it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So we are going to revoke. You do have a pathway to get back in one year. I think this was difficult for us, because you do understand the gravity of it.

MR. BROWN: Yeah.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: That's admirable. I understand we all have bad days. But it's -- when you have a weapon, it's deadly. So you've got to use -- you just can't let it --

MR. BROWN: It's all good.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We appreciate you coming in and we hope to see you again in a year.

MR. BROWN: All right.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So that brings us to Agenda Item No. 89, Peter Martinez.

MR. MARTINEZ: Hello.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Hello, Mr. Martinez. I just want to confirm, you have been sworn in.

MR. MARTINEZ: Yes, I have.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Investigator Swarthout, why are we here for Mr. Martinez?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for a conviction of the illegal use or possession of a dangerous weapon and for failure to disclose. Out of California, 2012, a misdemeanor conviction for manufacturer or sale, possession of nunchucks. Sentenced to three days jail, 24 months probation. 2017, out of California, misdemeanor possession of a controlled substance. Sentenced to two days jail. None of his arrest history was disclosed on his application.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Mr. Martinez?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Martinez, why did you fail to disclose your criminal history?

MR. MARTINEZ: To be honest, I didn't know what to put on there. And I didn't remember most of -- most of the stuff.

I know when it comes to the weapon thing, because I was a security guard at the time. And I actually -- I study martial arts, so I know when I got pulled over it was because I was smoking marijuana and I got a DUI charge. But then the officer searched my car and then he found nunchucks in my backpack in the trunk and he proceeded to charge me on that. So I know that was the charge for that.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you fill out the application yourself?

MR. MARTINEZ: Yes, I did.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. Did you read that one page that said stop, make sure you list all of your criminal history?

MR. MARTINEZ: Yeah, I did, but that's why -- I was, like -- I wasn't too sure what to put down, to be honest.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions for Mr. Martinez?

Hearing there are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on failure to disclose any criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Mr. Martinez, you have an opportunity to come back and see us again in a year. Thank you.

Agenda Item No. 90, Devone Randolph.

MR. RANDOLPH: How you doing?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good. How are you, sir?

MR. RANDOLPH: All right.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You've been sworn in, sir?

MR. RANDOLPH: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Swarthout, why are we here for Mr. Randolph?

MR. RANDOLPH: The applicant was denied for a conviction of the illegal use or possession of a dangerous weapon. Out of Nevada, 2021, gross misdemeanor, discharging weapon where prohibited where persons might be endangered. Sentenced to 12 months in DOC, 12 months probation, suspended fine. November 2024, this arrest wasn't disclosed. Disorderly conduct. This one was dismissed after a diversion program. Out of Nevada, 2023, own, possess gun by prohibited person. DA denial. 2019, out of Nevada, battery. This case is convicted, but it says it was dismissed. November 2017, misdemeanor disorderly conduct. Sentenced to 61 hours of community service.

The applicant was previously denied and is coming back again. He disclosed all the old arrests. The only one that wasn't disclosed was the 2024 arrest.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Are there any questions?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Randolph, why did you fail to disclose the 2024 case?

MR. RANDOLPH: 2024 case was wrong place, wrong time. I forgot about it, honestly. It was something so small. Obviously wrong place, wrong time. Girlfriend's (indiscernible) --

THE REPORTER: Wait. Wrong place, wrong time. Girlfriend's?

MR. RANDOLPH: And the child's mother had gotten into it. And I didn't do anything wrong. I was there. And I got in trouble. And I forgot about it. And, like, that's (indiscernible).

THE REPORTER: That's what?

MR. RANDOLPH: My apologies.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, any further questions?

You know, I have a concern with that, sir. Just because you were denied one time for nondisclosure. You would think this would be the one that you would have -- you made sure you got it right and remembered everything.

MR. RANDOLPH: I thought I did, though, ma'am, honestly.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

MR. RANDOLPH: I did everything right. I even went to the lady and said, is this everything and she said yes. I left to go get my paperwork from home, from the courts. I brung that back and she had -- she got a -- she got to the copy of it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So when you came back you had the 2024 misdemeanor on there?

MR. RANDOLPH: I had everything.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Do we have a copy of the application?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: I have a copy of the arrest history page with the application, yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Was that attached to the application?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: I do not have that attached. I have four cases listed. The fifth line is blank. First one is listed discharge of firearm; second one is battery; third one is own, possess, gun by prohibited person; and the fourth one listed as assault, disorderly conduct.

MR. RANDOLPH: I put everything.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: The fourth one is disorderly conduct. Is that the 2024 one?

MR. RANDOLPH: It looks like it's the 2017 is what he listed. So that 2017 --

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Madam Chair, Executive Director, for the record.

The applicant's correct when he says the lady at the window gave him everything. She would have went into the application, the previous application and gave the arrest history that was previously listed. She would not have access to the records to show the new one from '24. So she was given what we already had on file. He is correct.

MR. RANDOLPH: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: But do you understand what he's saying, though? It didn't list the new one, the new charge that you had for 2024.

MR. RANDOLPH: It didn't list it?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: No. Because it was -- it happened -- your initial application that was denied was a year prior. So they didn't have that information. Because you were arrested afterwards.

MR. RANDOLPH: Well, I asked the lady specifically was this everything. She said yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: But that's everything from the past, that you had on your past application, not what you did --

MR. RANDOLPH: I just went -- this is -- this year to come to this meeting this year. I asked her, was this everything. She said yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Right.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: She wouldn't know that you got arrested. You needed to disclose that.

MR. RANDOLPH: But I did. I put everything, like, from 2017 to now.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You're asking her, is this everything. That would be asking me, like, Ms. Cortez, is this everything? I don't know that you got arrested. So if I'm only seeing that you've been -- from last -- the last application, absolutely, yes, that's everything. But you're not -- you're failing to tell me that you got arrested afterwards. So it is your responsibility to put in after --

MR. RANDOLPH: In all honesty, I didn't even get arrested for it. That's the honest truth.

I did not get arrested for it. I was there. She put my name --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You appeared in court?

MR. RANDOLPH: No.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You had to have if you --

MR. RANDOLPH: I have --

THE REPORTER: Excuse me.

MR. RANDOLPH: I had been to jail for something else. For a traffic ticket.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. So when you got -- you got a ticket for disorderly conduct, correct?

MR. RANDOLPH: A ticket? No.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you complete a diversion program for a charge of disorderly conduct?

MR. RANDOLPH: For the 2024?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Yes.

MR. RANDOLPH: I had to pay a fine.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So, paying a fine came from a judge. It didn't come just from anywhere.

MR. RANDOLPH: Right.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So you did appear in front of a court. You failed to list that that was an actual case. That's the issue that we're talking about right now.

MR. RANDOLPH: And again, my apologies. I thought I listed everything.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And that's okay. You made a mistake. But that's what we're trying to get out. It was a mistake on your end.

MR. RANDOLPH: Right. And I thought I put everything. I was just trying to get my guard card again. Just, please. That's it. I have been out of trouble, I've been working two jobs, taking care of my kids, everything. I just want to do security again.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Right. But the problem is, is that you were denied the first time because you failed to disclose all of your criminal history. You're back again for doing the exact same thing.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: It says here the -- the applicant was originally arrested for a bench warrant in this case. The original charge in this case was injury, tampering with vehicle, $5,000 plus.

So it was a felony?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Yeah. Once it -- it looks like it was a multi-defendant case from the -- out of the Justice Court. And they reduced his down just to disorderly conduct.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So when was the tamper with vehicle damage? Do you remember that?

MR. RANDOLPH: That was in December of 2024. No, 2023. 2024 was last year, so it was 2023. I was in the wrong place, wrong time.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: But you were arrested for that incident, correct? Regardless of whether you were in the wrong place or the wrong time, were you arrested because there was a tampering with a vehicle?

MR. RANDOLPH: I had a ticket for something else. I went to jail for both of those things. I had a warrant out for my arrest --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You went to jail.

MR. RANDOLPH: For going -- for having a ticket. And I just went to court. So then my child's mother had went to the police and filed charges on my girlfriend. And she put my name in the report. That's why I had that warrant, yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. So failing to list that right there, what you just said, is what -- is why we're discussing what we're discussing now.

MR. RANDOLPH: I thought I did.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions for --

MR. RANDOLPH: Just, please, I deserve a second chance.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Mr. Randolph?

Hearing no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I move we deny the appeal based on nondisclosure and time and distance.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Sir, you know, we don't know what you do. All we can do is give you the information that you have in the past. So this is the second time you've been before us. You know, it's critical that you have this information.

MR. RANDOLPH: I thought I did, ma'am. I swear I thought I did.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. Well, even if you thought you did, here's the other situation that's also being called into the question.

It's recent contact with law enforcement. We're in 2025. There was an arrest warrant issued, and the case just went last year in 2024. So Board Member Bezick indicated that's also time and distance. So it's too close for you to come before the Board to ask for a guard card when you just had law enforcement contact last year. So there's an issue with that alone.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you, sir. Again, you have an opportunity to come back in a year.

MR. RANDOLPH: All right.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Investigator Blackmore, for the record. Once an applicant has been denied twice, it's going to be five years before they can reapply again.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sorry. Thank you.

Agenda Item No. 91. Maxwell Emiel.

MR. MAXWELL: Yeah, that's fine. Emiel.

It's Emiel.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good afternoon, sir.

MR. MAXWELL: Hi.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Swarthout, could you tell why we're here for Mr. Maxwell?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for a conviction of a felony. This is the second time the applicant has gone before the Board. California, 1982 felony, willful removal of government property. Received two years probation.

The applicant did disclose it this time and that is his only arrest.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any questions for Mr. Maxwell?

Okay, hearing there are no questions I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to overturn the denial and grant Mr. Maxwell his guard card based on full disclosure this time around.

MR. MAXWELL: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Congratulations, sir.

MR. MAXWELL: Can I have a question?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sure.

MR. MAXWELL: Ms. Katherine Cortez, did you get voted in assembly or something?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That's the other Katherine.

MR. MAXWELL: Oh, okay. All right. I was like -- thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: The office will contact you tomorrow.

MR. MAXWELL: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You're welcome.

Agenda Item No. 92, Deandre Taylor.

Investigator Swarthout, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Taylor?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for the conviction of illegal use or possession of a dangerous weapon and failure to disclose. This is the applicant's second time he is being denied. California, 2005, misdemeanor, manufacture, possession of dangerous weapon. He was convicted, sentenced to 30 days jail, 36 months probation. California, 2018, he was arrested for a felony for vandalism, $400 or more. There's no dispo listed on the prints for that one. California, 2012, misdemeanor, convicted, theft of personal property. Sentenced to 60 days jail, three years probation. 2011, California, misdemeanor, battery with injury. Terms (ph) worker, passenger. Sentenced to 30 days jail, 36 months probation. California 2011 this one's May. Felony. This one was dismissed. Sell -- Count I was sell marijuana; Count II, possession of marijuana for sale; Count III is conspiracy to commit a crime; Count IV, receive stolen property; and we have an Excel with a couple other arrests listed.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Before we get started on questions, sir, were you sworn in?

MR. TAYLOR: Yes, I was.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

Board, are there any questions for Mr. Taylor?

Just to be clear, this is his second time? The denial the first time was for nondisclosure. The second time nondisclosure. Any questions?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick.

Mr. Taylor, why did you not list your criminal history on both occasions?

MR. TAYLOR: I don't know. Honestly, I have no answer. As far as the -- I knew, the 2005 one, that was a misdemeanor. They asked me have I -- convicted of a felon. It was a misdemeanor so I didn't disclose it. And that's it. The other ones, I guess I don't have a -- I don't have an answer.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Weren't you told the first time when you were denied that you've got to --

MR. RANDOLPH: The thing is, this is -- this is actually my first time being denied. Because when I had my guard card 2020, I only worked two weeks. I got laid off because I had emergency -- I had emergency, I went home. And I got terminated for that. So I didn't even get a guard card. I didn't get a guard card. I didn't know I couldn't get one until I got hired this time and this happened. So this is my first time even aware of being denied. 2020, I never got denied. Like I said, I worked for, like, two weeks and I got let go because I went home early. And then I never got a guard card. I never even seen a guard card ever. Like, I don't even know what a guard card even looks like, to even got one. I tell you, when they -- first time in 2020, I guess it was limited or whatever they call it. I never saw it. I never saw it. So this will be my first time actually being denied. And like I said, I have no excuse.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, just some housekeeping questions.

So, in 2020 you say you only worked for two weeks.

Was he issued a provisional in 2020?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Yes. It would have been 9- -- he would have been denied on 9-5-2019.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So was there a letter sent to his e-mail address or -- INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: It would have been mailed to him at that time.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, so you would have gotten a letter mailed to you in 2020 with your denial the first time. And you would have had an opportunity then to also appeal. Did you --

MR. TAYLOR: Yeah, I -- well, what happened was, I was coming -- I'm a California resident. So I only got the job thinking I was going to be in Reno. So once I got terminated from that job, I left -- went back to California. So I didn't even get any information. Like I said, I came back to the same exact job that I got terminated from. And the person said, I know things, like, you know, like, things happen. And he rehired me, same exact company. And like I said, they didn't even tell me about the denial.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

MR. TAYLOR: I got hired from the same company twice. And neither time, they never bring this up. Until I got the letter. Actually, I thought I was supposed to get my guard card in the mail. Instead of getting a guard card, I ended up getting this letter.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So then you were notified this time that you were -- that you were denied. Okay.

MR. TAYLOR: Right. This is the first time -- yes. That's why -- I never knew the first time. I would have done the same thing I did today, or -- you know, whatever. The very first time. But like I said, I had no knowledge of it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Board, are there any further questions for Mr. Taylor?

Hearing no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I move we deny the appeal based on nondisclosure of criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Unfortunately, sir, it's not our responsibility to make sure that you get notified. Like -- that you actually get your notification, let me clear that up.

You know, the letter was sent that you were denied. You may have moved or gone back to California and not gotten a letter. But that's not the Board's responsibility.

At this point, you've been denied a second time for not disclosing all of your arrests on your application, so you will not be able to apply again for five years.

MR. TAYLOR: Ask a question? I thought -- my understanding you can't appeal -- this is my first appeal, right? So wouldn't I appeal again in a year?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: No, sir. This would be your second. So you have two denials. Whether or not you appealed, again, that's not the Board's responsibility. You can choose not to appeal and we would not know. You've been notified. So the assumption is that you would know, or -- and from the application process you should know that you need to disclose all of your arrest history.

Thank you, very much. And good luck to you, sir.

Agenda Item 93, Dejon Wadsworth.

Good afternoon, sir.

MR. WADSWORTH: Afternoon.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You've been sworn in, sir?

MR. WADSWORTH: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Investigator Blackmore, please tell us why we're here.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Yes. So Mr. Wadsworth is here today to appeal his revocation. He has had a registered work card since 2017. He did submit a renewal application back in 2022. His original expiration date was January 19, 2027.

On March 21st of this year, our office was notified via CFI that Mr. Wadsworth was trying to obtain his armed status. He did have a conversation with the CFI regarding a self-disclosed prohibited offense. Upon further conversation, CFI had contacted our office to confirm that he was eligible to proceed with the firearm class. During this conversation, we did go ahead and start looking into Mr. Wadsworth's background, as well as running a SCOPE on him that's current to this date.

Since issuance of his work card in 2022, he has been arrested four times. So the first arrest was March 27. There's two charges. First one is assault. Second charge is drawing a deadly weapon in a threatening manner. Both are misdemeanor charges that he pled nolo to. Second arrest was in August 20 of 2022. There's three counts of domestic battery, all misdemeanors, all charges were dismissed. There's a November 19, 2022. There were two charges. First one was violating a restraining order. Second was battery domestic violence. All charges resulted in a DA denial. Those were all misdemeanors as well. December 14 of 2022, there was another arrest.

Violating the restraining order was the first charge. Second charge was the battery domestic violence. Charge I was dismissed due to negotiations. Charge II, he was found guilty of the battery. That case was just fully closed out on April 11 of 2024. On March 25 of this year we did go ahead and revoke the correspondence of NAC 648.344. And he's submitted a written appeal today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: He's had his year of being revoked.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: No. So he was revoked on March 25 of this year. But he originally submitted his renewal application back in 2022, so his work card was set to expire in 2027. However, when he was trying to go forward with his firearm certification he disclosed to the CFI that he had a prohibited offense. CFI contacted us to confirm to see if he was eligible.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So we revoked in this year, so he has not been -- the rule is one year that he has to wait before he can reapply?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: If the Board terminates him today. He can come back in one year.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Got you. Okay.

Board, are there questions for

Mr. Wadsworth?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Just so I understand what's going on. He was trying to get his armed guard card but obtained these charges?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: So, yes. So on March 21st we got a call from the CFI confirming if he was eligible to go forward with the armed status. The applicant did confide with the CFI that he did have a prohibited offense. So we went ahead, did our due diligence, ran the SCOPE, and that's when we found the prohibited offenses.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So the offenses happened while he had his regular guard card and he didn't report it.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: That is correct.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So his regular guard card would have expired in 2027.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: That is correct.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We would have never known if he had these offenses had he not gone for his armed guard card.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Correct.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And there is a responsibility to both the employer and, if the employer knows, and the employee to notify, right?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: We don't have a regulation for licensees to report. This was because the firearms instructor didn't want to put a firearm into a hand of somebody who was prohibited.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: But an employer wouldn't know that they had an arrest unless they divulged it or missed a bunch of work.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Correct. Because they would have had --

THE REPORTER: They would have what?

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Had to give them the verification of employment for armed status, they would have had to fill out that form.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: I guess my question to you, sir, is: Why would you not notify your employer that you had these offenses?

MR. WADSWORTH: I told my employer my background. And said, I guess my guard card, it don't matter because you already got a guard card. So I let the employer know my background. And I (indiscernible) to appeal, but the (indiscernible) applying for, I let him know (indiscernible) misdemeanor. That's, like, petit, so they don't...

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Is that the same employer that went ahead and gave you the VEAS?

MR. WADSWORTH: The one that fired me was Treston Security --

THE REPORTER: Can you say that again?

MR. WADSWORTH: Treston Security didn't really notify me until they come to terminate me. But I told him again, I do have, you know -- I got arrested in 2022, domestic violence, whatever. And he, like, misdemeanors. I told him the story and he was, like, we understand where it's coming from, so he hired me.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And then he -- that same person is the person that gave you the VEAS form to go armed?

MR. WADSWORTH: Oh, no, no, no, no. It was trying to. I called -- I -- placed on regulation or whatever. He said on the (indiscernible).

THE REPORTER: On the what?

MR. WADSWORTH: On the little code -- based on we paid $300 for armed political (sic) vest, whatever. I called him again, explained to him my situation. He said he going to call, I guess, somebody to see if I violated, you know, to be armed or whatever. And I guess he called, whatever, and my regular employer -- this is somebody on Craig List. I was trying to get armed with them. But my regular employer, I told him my background already, so he hired me.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Any other questions for the Board?

Hearing no questions I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board's indulgence.

Just so I understand. Is this kind of like a similar case, like the one we prior heard, where we can't really put provisions, as far as, like, not allowing him to get the armed guard card but keep your work card?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: He's ineligible for armed because he's got a DV.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Correct. So if he -- Investigator Blackmore, for the record.

So if he would have went through with that class, that particular CFI or another, if he signed off on the VEAS form and we got notification of it, he would have had his card still revoked at that time because of the domestic violence conviction.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay, thank you.

With that said, Board Member Cortez motioning to revoke the guard card based on criminal history found.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Unfortunately at this time we are going to revoke your work card. You will not be able to work as a security officer. You do have an opportunity to apply again in one year.

MR. WADSWORTH: All right.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 94, James Varrette. Good afternoon, sir.

MR. VARRETTE: How you doing, ma'am?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, have you been sworn in?

MR. VARRETTE: I'm not sure if I have or not.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Just in case.

Is there anybody else in the room that has not been sworn in?

Go ahead, sir.

AUDIENCE MEMBERS,
having been duly sworn,
testified as follows:

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Blackmore, why are we here for Mr. Varrette?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Yes. So just want to preface that his work card was originally set to expire on May 26th of this year.

Basically, he had contacted our office last year in April wanting to go armed and wanting to know why his work card stated firearms ineligible. During that time, we went through the record, informed him of the domestic violence convictions and how this conviction would prohibit firearm usage. I did see at that time that these convictions happened here in Las Vegas. I decided to run SCOPE at that time and obtain the court documents to get it to his record.

Upon running his SCOPE, there was a 2023 November arrest for first charge, a residential burglary; second charge being open, gross lewdness; and then three, indecent exposure. This arrest was not verbally disclosed during our conversation. The police report was requested and reviewed. For the police report, Mr. Varrette was delivering food via Uber Eats to a residential area. The victim attempted to grab the drinks from Mr. Varrette and he insisted that he walk the drinks over to the apartment. The victim and Mr. Varrette walked to the apartment. And the report stated that he had unzipped his pants and feeled his penis and stated, look how hard you got me. The victim stated to the police that he was getting in her personal space and attempting to open her apartment door. The evidence stated that he had placed his foot between the door and the door frame and attempted to enter the apartment. The report stated during that time he was able to reach his hand through the open space and grasp the victim's breast and bra strap with the comment, I just want to see what your boobs look like. From there, the victim was able to shut the door. After the altercation, Mr. Varrette was attempting to call the victim through Uber Eats. The victim then called Uber Eats to get any information on Mr. Varrette but they refused to give any information and informed her to file a police report.

After double checking everything, Mr. Varrette did plead guilty to open and gross lewdness, which is a gross misdemeanor on September 4 of 2024. He was sentenced to the following: 364 days through Clark County Detention Center, register as a sex offender, no delivery jobs, complete low risk sex offender counseling, and 12 months of probation. Mr. Varrette's work card was revoked on April 15th of this year pursuant to NAC 648.344, as he must register as a sex offender.

When he did the initial -- so he has to register as a sex offender in SCOPE, but he is not on the state registry site. I did speak with the applicant in office. He did state that he will be on probation and the registry for one calendar year, so that would be September of this year. I did ask him to provide court documents or the minutes stating that. At the time of writing the report, nothing has been provided, and as of now, still nothing is provided, saying that he will be off of probation in September and off the registry in September.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any questions for Mr. Varrette?

Hearing there are no questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez

motioning to revoke the work card based off the admitted open and gross lewdness case that occurred on September 4th in 2024. Actively on probation.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So we have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Do you have a question, sir?

MR. VARRETTE: Yes. I'm on probation. I'm off everything that -- they took me off early. Probation and everything because of good behavior in me.

I did take the plea because they went ahead and said that due to circumstances that -- things could happen, so I went ahead and took the plea. That's why they gave me a year probation and all that. And I went and said, okay, fine. I did that and everything. I feel that because of the circumstances that I found out in court, too, that she did not call the police until five days later. When I didn't do nothing, she made --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, your case is not being tried here. What's being tried -- or being spoken about is the fact that you have a case that --

MR. VARRETTE: But now it's dropped down to a gross misdemeanor.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir, it's not being tried here. What's being looked at is the fact that you did not report on your issue and the issue you did have while you had your guard card. So you do --

MR. VARRETTE: Because I did not.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sir.

MR. VARRETTE: Excuse me.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You do have an opportunity to reapply in one year. And then we'll have to look at it then, okay? Good luck to you.

We have Agenda Item No. 95, Markus Moore.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: It's off.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 95, Markus Moore.

MR. MOORE: Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good afternoon.

So, just for full disclosure, I do not know Mr. Moore. However, he did work for Allied Universal, so I'm going to go ahead and recuse myself from this particular vote.

But Investigator Diaz, could you please tell us why we're here for Mr. Moore.

INVESTIGATOR DIAZ: Yes. Investigator Diaz, for the record.

A memo was written that should have been given to you guys. I don't know if you want me to read the full memo.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: No, I think it's been read at this time.

INVESTIGATOR DIAZ: Okay, perfect.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Do you want to provide a synopsis of the incident that -- the reason why we're here to revoke his license, or consider it?

INVESTIGATOR DIAZ: Yes, yes, absolutely. So, on March 17th, 2025, I did receive a call from someone from Allied about Mr. Moore. The -- there was an incident stating that Mr. Moore did appear to one of his shifts and was intoxicated. There was a breathalyzer test done that revealed that Mr. Moore was intoxicated. He was sent home ASAP off of that shift and his duty belt and weapon were confiscated.

Eventually he was terminated from Allied Universal. The PILB was notified at that time. And then later again in March, it was -- it was learned that he was networking with InterCon Security.

At that time I did look into the incident to get the full details from Mr. Clark. And at that time we opted to revoke Mr. Moore's card.

And it should be noted that Mr. Moore was previously denied in 2018 for a disclosed weapons conviction as well, and at that time he did appeal. And the Board did grant his work card in December of 2018.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board have any questions?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Yeah, this is Bezick.

Mr. Moore, you're legally drunk on duty with a weapon. How do you defend that?

MR. MOORE: Well, before that shift, I pulled a double shift. So I got off at 7:00 that morning. And I wasn't supposed to show up to work until the next day at 3:00. I wasn't notified by my manager until close to 5:00 p.m. that he had changed my schedule without notifying me and I was supposed to show up here in Carson City at 11:00.

By that time, I called my manager, because he had Adriana, another site supervisor, call me. I called him back and I told him I can't take the shift. And he just thought I was giving him excuses. But I told him, sir, I have been drinking. I cannot take the shift. And he said, you're a site supervisor. You need to be dependable. So if you don't show up it's a going to be a no call, no show.

So, after I already informed him that I had been drinking, he told me to show up to work anyway.

So after I showed up to work, he had me call Adriana. Adriana called him. He came over at -- I want to say 11:40 that night. I walked him around the yard twice. We hit all of the contact points. And then at 1:30 in the morning, that's when he had me go through a Breathalyzer. And, yeah. He found alcohol on me. Because I told you he would. And I felt like my job was being threatened if I didn't show up.

But since then, these are -- it's from the VA. So earlier that same year, my father took his own life. So I didn't take -- the manager at the time knew why I took the time off. And -- well, they didn't exactly offer me any help at my job. I had to go to the VA and seek it myself after this incident. And those documents are from my doctor.

I've been participating in sober recovery with the VA for over a month.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Since it looks like -- since May.

MR. MOORE: Yes. And I have my one month chip. 47 days sober today. But who's counting?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Mr. Moore supplied three letters stating that he's been attending treatment since -- weekly treatment.

MR. MOORE: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Since May of 2025. Letter from the VA.

MR. MOORE: Thank you. And if you would, this is my past and present manager. I was wondering if you would allow him to say a few words on my behalf.

UNKNOWN SPEAKER: Am I allowed?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

I'm not sure I necessarily need to hear that. While I appreciate his willingness to testify on behalf of the -- of Mr. Moore.

You indicated that you started going to AA or rehab services as of May, but the incident occurred in March. You also admitted that the -- it was your supervisor's direction to show up to work intoxicated.

MR. MOORE: It happened in November.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. So that makes it even worse. So it happened in November, but you just started services in May.

My bigger issue is that you're indicating that at the discretion of your supervisor to show up, work intoxicated, at some point you're going to have to take responsibility knowing that that's incorrect. So if you, yourself, understand that no one -- no employer is going to accept any employee on duty intoxicated, whether somebody tells you to show up or not, you know that that's just not acceptable. So --

MR. MOORE: I know that. And I --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And it's hard for me to accept that you're saying, well, my supervisor told me to go show up drunk so I had to go show up drunk.

MR. MOORE: I didn't say he wanted me to show up drunk. I told him that I had been drinking. And he told me to show up anyway.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So today, after receiving services, do you think it's a good idea to show up to any job while under the influence?

MR. MOORE: Absolutely not.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: No further comments on my behalf.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further comments or questions from the Board?

Hearing that are no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to revoke the work card based on individual showed up on duty while intoxicated. Verified by Breathalyzer.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Aye.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Aye.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Aye.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Three ayes and one nonvote. Motion passes.

Unfortunately, sir, just as the ones in the past, you have an opportunity to come back and reapply for your license in one year.

Good luck to you and good luck to your process.

MR. MOORE: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 96, Deshawn Perry.

Mr. Perry, have you been sworn in, sir?

MR. PERRY: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Investigator Swarthout, why are we here for Mr. Perry?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for conviction of felony, which was illegal use or possession of dangerous weapon and for failure to disclose. 2006 out of California, felony CCW in vehicle with prior felony conviction. Suspended, three years probation, 45 days jail. When the applicant pled nolo in the case it was still a felony. On 9-29-2008 the applicant was granted a 17B reduction and a 1203.4 dismissal on the case.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there questions for Mr. Perry?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Perry, why did you fail to disclose the criminal history at the time of your application?

MR. PERRY: Anxious to -- I was anxious to fill out the application. I've been in construction for about 15 years. I was always working, so I never really filled out applications. Even when that incident, I was working and went straight back to work after that. And then when I filled this out, my attorney, he told me I'd have to write it in, so I'm not sure -- I was in between, like, do I put it? Do I not put it? But after it was dismissed, I figured it was dismissed and I didn't have to put it. So it's not there because my attorney said I didn't have to put it, so I just left it. I didn't know -- I was up in the air in limbo, in between should I put it, do I not put it. But he just told me I'd have to put it once it was all over and it said dismissed at the end of the cases. So I went wasn't sure.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And you filled out the application yourself?

MR. PERRY: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Unfortunately, there is a page that says stop, fill out -- include all of your criminal history, arrests, despite the disposition. So if it was closed, reduced, unfortunately your attorney gave you wrong information. You are to list it regardless of what the outcome was.

MR. MOORE: I didn't know then.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You're not the first one who's indicated that their attorney said no, don't worry about it. Don't list it. The problem is, it's not the attorney who's filling out the application, you are.

MR. PERRY: Okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any further questions for Mr. Perry?

Hearing no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on no disclosure of criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Bezick seconds.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You have the opportunity to come back in one year and apply. You know, the application is very clear. It even states that particular reduction. So, you know, hope to see you back in one year. Just make sure you list everything. If you have any questions, ask the front desk. They'll help you. Thank you.

Agenda Item No. 97, Damarie Mathis.

MR. MATHIS: That's me. Good afternoon.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Good afternoon. Have you been sworn in, sir?

MR. MATHIS: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Swarthout, please tell us why we're here for Mr. Mathis.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant was denied for the conviction of illegal use or possession of a dangerous weapon. Out of Nevada, 2023, gross misdemeanor, attempt, carry concealed firearm or other deadly weapon. Sentenced to 364 days CCDC and probation 12 months. The applicant was honorably discharged from probation on 2-4 of 2025. He did disclose this arrest and conviction.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: That's a lot of time for attempt deadly weapon.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: It's the gross misdemeanor offense that he had.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, were there any questions for Mr. Mathis?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Mathis, can you give me the circumstances regarding the incident?

MR. MATHIS: I was walking down on Fremont Street and I had my weapon on me. And I was stopped by officers and I was arrested.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Was it concealed?

MR. MATHIS: Yes, it was concealed.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: No altercation with anyone?

MR. MATHIS: No, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So how did you even get stopped?

MR. MATHIS: They told me they were stopping me for having a glass container on Fremont. I guess everything is supposed to be in a plastic bottle. But I bought the glass on Fremont, so I thought it was okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And everything's been taken care of as of February 2025?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: Yeah.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any -- you've not had any other law enforcement -- or anything like that?

MR. MATHIS: No.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: This was your first offense.

MR. MATHIS: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: What were the conditions of probation?

MR. MATHIS: No contact with law enforcement. And that was pretty much it -- oh, and full-time employment.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Did you have to go to any kind of classes?

MR. MORRIS: No, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: No corrective classes or anything like that?

MR. MATHIS: No, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And you did a year in -- at CCDC?

MR. MORRIS: No, it was a suspended sentence, and they just made me do the probation, a year probation.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So you did no time in CCDC. Because I was under the impression that you did a full year in CCDC and you got probation.

MR. MATHIS: No, it was just probation.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That makes more sense to me now. Got it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. Any further questions?

Hearing no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I move we grant the work card based on full disclosure of arrest record.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay. We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, your work card will be granted. The office will call you tomorrow for next steps -- or contact you tomorrow for next steps.

MR. MATHIS: Thank you, guys.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 98, finally, Mr. Coleman. Thank you, for your patience.

MR. COLEMAN: No problem. Thank you. Good afternoon.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And you have been sworn in.

MR. COLEMAN: Yes, I have. I'd like to pass this around. This is my CCW. I don't have to pass it around. I can show you. Just recently received it.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, thank you.

Investigator Swarthout, could you tell us why we're here for Mr. Coleman?

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: The applicant's card was revoked due to a conviction on April 16th of 2024 when he was arrested and convicted of carrying a concealed weapon without a permit. During the incident, we do have the police report for it, but that the applicant was at a location, an undercover unit was watching the location due to it being a high crime area. And the applicant and some others moved to a different location. I believe it was a nail salon. And it was, like, 11:00 at night.

MR. COLEMAN: Yeah.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: And they -- the undercovers continued to watch them, and then they moved back. And then the undercovers go to leave, the applicant ended up drawing a firearm from, I assume, the pack was on your chest?

MR. COLEMAN: So, that's the -- that's the -- that was the whole issue. The officer, once he revealed himself as LVMPD, he then, obviously he was angry and agitated. I'm trying to speak with him, because I just work in security. I've never been in trouble before, anything like that. I just go to school. It was right across the street from UNLV. I just recently graduated. So I'm trying to explain to him, like, you know, you're kind of -- you were following us for about 40 minutes. You literally seen the car leave that he was in. It was a 2005 blue Acura with pitch black tinted windows. We seen it leave and go up the street of Maryland. Okay. He comes back.

Now, me and the two other individuals, two of my friends, all work security. They -- we had our firearms, open carry, which is legal. I had a -- I had a -- what you call a cross body bag on. But the firearm I had was in my holster and I had it out because I was aware of -- obviously, that's legal, correct? But I'm wearing sweat clothes. I didn't intend on anything, of course.

But obviously, due to this situation, I'm -- obviously anxious and afraid of what could possibly be happening due to the harassment of the vehicle, of course. Sorry about that. It's a really unique and specific story. So, the officer, while I'm contained, one officer is asking me this series of questions, they're doing their good cop, bad cop thing.

He's asking me about being in foster care, me running away. I never ran away. I was just in foster care. And I aged out of foster care. He was asking me questions about that. He comes and walks over, lifts my bag. He doesn't search it or anything.

So I apologize -- I forgot to mention. I placed my holster inside of my cross body bag. But my firearm was still outside. But I had not brandished it or, you know, waved it around or anything like that. I actually made an attempt to hide it, because I didn't want to make it look like I was being aggressive or, you know, trying to entice a conflict.

And he -- so going back to the officer, he lets go of my bag, he walks back to his computer. He's quiet for a second. The other officer, the one that initially detained us, the one that I mentioned was angry, he goes on to say, you guys were jumping over walls. You guys were in and out of trunks. We seen you in and out. And I seen you guys with your guns. He said that to me verbatim. This is actually in the body cam footage and transcript. He said that to me verbatim. Not anyone else.

Then the other officer, after they're quiet for about five minutes, the other officer goes, he doesn't even look at me, he has his back turned towards the computer. And he's, like, so you pulled it out, right? And in my mind, I mean, the other officer just said he seen me with my gun. So I obviously answered yes because you just seen -- you just said you seen me with it. And I'm -- in my mind from what I got it from is from my vehicle. Right? Because of the situation.

So that's the -- that's what I was assuming that he was asking me. So, of course, I'm going to admit to saying yes to that. So then shortly after that, after we're detained for about another 20 minutes, and then he informs me that he's going to arrest me. He doesn't tell me what for. Because I asked him, okay, what are the charges, sir? He doesn't tell me anything.

I get arrested. I go to jail. I'm in CCDC for three days. First time ever. They don't -- so, they don't teach you in criminal justice as a major, that was my major. They don't teach you how to get arrested or how to deal with such a case, basically. So I don't know how to obviously get my way out of it or converse about it. I don't really understand.

But it came to my understanding once I seen the paperwork of what I was being charged with, it was concealed carry without permit. And I explained this to my lawyer. I'm confused. How can the officer charge me with that when it's in the body cam footage and the transcript that he said he seen me with my gun. And I never said that I had it hidden. He just told me he seen me with it, and the officer asked me, confirming that question. So...

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Were you at work during this? Is that what you're saying? You were working as --

MR. COLEMAN: No.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: -- security officers?

MR. COLEMAN: So, this -- this happened around -- initially it was around 10:50 p.m. I'm off -- this is one of my off days from when I worked security at the Venetian. I worked security at the Venetian at the time. And, you know, I go to college. So I was --

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You were just hanging out with your friends --

MR. COLEMAN: So what --

THE COURT: -- and they work security as well.

MR. COLEMAN: They were there already, you know, in the vicinity -- it's a little plaza. It's a nail shop, there's restaurants. They were there grabbing some food. I was on the phone with them. They were explaining their situation. I wasn't concerned about that. Because I have to go pick up my ex-girlfriend at the time. Because she gets off at 11:00 p.m. That's how I ended up being in that area.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay.

MR. COLEMAN: And since then, I made the effort to go and get a concealed carry permit so that issue never happens again. I graduated college last month. I'll be honest with you. From the past cases you just had up here, I didn't make an effort to disclose this information with the Board because I didn't know that I would have to because this was a whole year ago.

But I've had two security jobs since then. I actually got let go from my security job that I just had in April once they informed me that my guard card was revoked. So I've been out of a job for two months. And now I'm on the verge of almost being homeless. And I take care of my little sister.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So were you -- were you reapplying for your unarmed guard card?

MR. COLEMAN: All I was told from my -- at Apex Security, the job I was working, was that my card was revoked. Or voided was the correct wording that my employer said. So he sent me home. Because he said I wasn't no longer licensed to work. And since then, I kept him updated, because, you know, I received things in the mail and e-mails from Mr. Zachary about, you know, the upcoming meeting. I text him and let them know. I haven't gotten any response since April. And we're in June now.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So was this -- how did --

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: We were notified by a company that he applied with about the arrest and conviction. And then when we checked out his record, we ran his SCOPE, saw the conviction and saw he was added to the roster. So he was revoked under that NAC that allows us to.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And the company he applied to, he wasn't currently working with obviously, he was --

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: No.

MR. COLEMAN: And the security company I was working for, I was already working with them from February, so about two months. And it was unarmed, of course, so...

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And you were -- did you apply with another security company?

MR. COLEMAN: There was another security company that I know was paying more. And I'm struggling, so, you know, of course I wanted to apply. Then they let me know, via a lady at the window, let me know that -- because I disclosed my case, that's all I have is just a misdemeanor now. So I disclosed that on the paper, and then she let me know that she'd have to contact the Board first to see if I'm eligible.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: The lady at the desk was the person at the -- for the job that you were applying for.

MR. COLEMAN: Yes, exactly. Yes, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: This is Gronauer. I guess it's just a statement. But you seem like a very intelligent man.

MR. COLEMAN: Thank you, sir.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: You really do. And you said about open carry is legal. Open carry is legal. It's not a smart thing to do.

MR. COLEMAN: Of course. I agree.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: I mean, that's one thing you have to really -- people open carry. Becomes a foolish dream, that's all.

MR. COLEMAN: Of course, of course.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Two weeks ago somebody who had open carry, somebody took a gun off and shot him. So it's just -- and as a security guard, you know, an armed security guard, guns are very dangerous. And they shouldn't be, oh, look at me. You know?

MR. COLEMAN: Of course, I agree.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: But you're not an armed security guard, right?

MR. COLEMAN: Unarmed.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Unarmed. And you work at the Venetian. Or you did.

MR. COLEMAN: At that time, yes.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Were you carrying a gun off duty?

MR. COLEMAN: Yeah, yeah. But, also, I'd like to piggyback on his -- Mr. Zachary's previous statement. I lived at UNLV. UNLV, obviously there's campus -- they have -- across the street, directly across the street there's apartments called The Degree. I stayed in The Degree. First year there, freshman, there's a shooting right down the hallway. The next year, 2022, shooting in some other UNLV owned apartments. Last year, well, two years ago now, I think, in December, there was a shooting on the -- on campus. I was actually there for that. My car got stolen. It was my first car. Got stolen from UNLV parking garage. I'm not living in a safe area. I aged out of foster care. I was in suburban areas. I've never had to deal with police, I never had any interaction. I just go to school and go to work. That's my thing.

One night I'm going to pick up my ex-girlfriend, ex-girlfriend now. I'm going to go pick her up and I end up going to jail.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Well, the more dense the population is, or more dense the residence is, the area, the more chances you have to have bad people there.

MR. COLEMAN: Yeah, I understand.

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Your areas are a little tough when they're dense with apartments or school. All the people. And across the street, all the shopping centers and everything else.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: What was your -- I mean, you went and got a criminal justice degree, right?

MR. COLEMAN: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Bachelors.

MR. COLEMAN: Yes, ma'am.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: What was the intention with that?

MR. COLEMAN: Honestly, my first major was psychology. My mom has been -- excuse me. My mother is mentally ill. I wanted to kind of pursue that so one day I could actually apply that and help her. But my first year didn't go so well because of, you know, outside factors, so I switched to criminal justice. And I really enjoyed it and I liked it. I actually wanted to become a police officer. I've actually tried UNLV school police. I've tried Metro, I tried Henderson.

But because I didn't know exactly how to correctly disclose my background information, it comes back as if I'm deceiving or I'm lying. So that chance is gone now. Just because I didn't know how to put it. But it's the first time. Never happened before.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sounds like you need a mentor.

MR. COLEMAN: Honestly, it's just me and my little sister. We don't have family.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, any further questions?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

At any time when the officers were -- or when you approached the officers, did you ever ask them, is there a problem here?

MR. COLEMAN: So that was actually my -- my friend. My friends are twin brothers. I'll explain to kind of give you context. I'm underneath -- I'm, like, underneath the hood of a car because we were helping my ex-girlfriend's coworkers. They're all women in the nail shop. We were helping them jump their cars. I'm underneath the hood of the car. And I hear -- his name is Chase, by the way. I hear Chase say, is there a problem, sir? You keep circling around us and following us.

And I heard a car idling behind, but it's a parking lot, right? I'm not going to think it's anyone like who we were just dealing with. Like, the blue car. Especially assume -- we're not going to think that it's the same car, right?

But then I hear that. I step back, and the car -- they're in the car, mind you, halfway out of the parking lot. Like, they're out -- almost out of the exit ramp onto the street. They stop their car, we hear the driver yelling from the car, but we're too far to hear. He's yelling from the car, he rolled his window up, and we see the car shaking. To me, that's frightening. I don't know what's going to happen.

I notice that my friend Chase is closer to the car. I'm trying to explain to him to get out of the way, but instead, I end up kind of tripping behind him. And that's -- that was it.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. So the report comes across as if you took your gun out of your satchel and just kind of like boys in the hood, "Got a problem here?"

MR. COLEMAN: Never.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: That's how it comes across.

MR. COLEMAN: Exactly. And that's -- that's not at all the case, either, you know.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: My other concern is, you know, and I applaud you getting your CCW and trying to take the appropriate steps of what you need to carry a weapon.

MR. COLEMAN: Yes, ma'am.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: But I do caution you with that. Especially with what you disclosed with wanting to do psychology and doing the criminal justice.

Are you prepared to take a life? Because there are consequences when you do take a life. You're not the only person who says I'm carrying a weapon because I live in a -- everything is getting a little crazy around here.

MR. COLEMAN: Let me explain. So I just got the firearm. I was 21 at the time. I just got it, okay? This is just for protection. I've always kept it in the case. I've never even -- I had to forfeit that firearm. I never even shot that.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: I know, but you took the steps to go get a CCW. So when people do that, my next question to them is, are you prepared to take a life. Because that comes with consequences.

Psychological consequences. That's all I'm trying to caution you with. Because when you carry, you're not carrying it because it's a part of your fashion outfit.

MR. COLEMAN: Exactly.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And any weapon -- anybody who carries a weapon, I would like to believe that they're properly trained. And when you're trained, that weapon is used to take a life.

MR. COLEMAN: Exactly.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So I just caution you with that, in the event you're going to continue to carry.

MR. COLEMAN: I just carry the card. I don't even carry the firearm. That whole situation, I want nothing to do with that ever again. That was a terrible three days of my life. And ever since then, I've been struggling to --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: It just sounds like you have a lot going for you, and I would hate for something like this to just literally blow everything, all of your successes that you've come to date because of something that occurred, that didn't necessarily -- let the police handle that.

MR. COLEMAN: Of course.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Are there any further questions for Mr. Coleman?

There's no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: This is Bezick. I move we overturn the revocation of the unarmed registered card and grant the work card to Mr. Coleman. Based on his testimony.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Sorry, go ahead.

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Based on his testimony.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, motion passes. So what that means is, is you will get your work card back. I think we've all said it here. You sound like a very intelligent young man who has a lot of opportunity. I encourage you to find yourself a mentor. I think you could do amazing things. But you do need someone to help you work through the system. So, you know, best of wishes to you.

MR. COLEMAN: Thank you. Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: The office will get in touch with you.

MR. COLEMAN: Thank you, so much, for your time. Have a good day.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Agenda Item No. 99, Cornelius Lott.

Thank you, sir, for your patience. Have you been sworn in, sir?

MR. LOTT: Yes.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you. Thank you, so much, for your patience.

MR. LOTT: Yeah, okay.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: And Investigator Blackmore, why are we here for Mr. Lott?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: So Mr. Lott was denied for failure to disclose. Upon receiving his federal background check --

(The video recording went offline.)

(Off record.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Investigator Blackmore, why are we here for Mr. Lott?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Okay. Can you hear me?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Bezick, can you hear?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Yes.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: Perfect.

So, Mr. Lott was denied for failure to disclose. There is a 1972 CCW arrest. There's no disposition per the fingerprint report. There's a 2003 felony possession of controlled substance. Also no disposition per the fingerprint reports. A 2008 is one that has five charges total. Charges I, II, III, and V are all dismissed. First charge was conspiracy to commit a crime. Second charge was receiving stolen property. Third charge was vandalism. And then the fifth charge was possession of burglary tools. The fourth charge did result in a conviction, and that was vandalism. Three years probation, 54 days in jail. There was a 2009 transport, sale, narcotic controlled substance. This also did not have any disposition per the fingerprint report. There was another 2009 arrest which could be related to the earlier one. It's a possession of narcotic controlled substance. No disposition per the fingerprint report.

I did request court documentation for all five of these arrests but nothing was received. He was made provisional and added to Best Crowd Management and then he submitted appeal and wishes to appeal that today.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Board, are there any questions for Mr. Lott?

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: This is Board Member Cortez.

Mr. Lott, is there a reason why you failed to disclose your criminal history?

MR. LOTT: Yes. I have -- let me start off. I have never failed a background check. I have been a computer consultant for 34 years. That first arrest was in 1972. I'm surprised this showed up, because I had certain things sealed. But, you know, computer technology. I didn't know what was going to show up. But every time I had to go forth with a security background check, I've always had to go in and explain something. Okay.

The first one in 1972 was carrying a concealed weapon. Back then, 53 years ago, that wasn't even a crime, you know? It was a fad. And by the time I got to the station, I knew when I had the weapon, I put it on the dashboard. So when I got down there, the desk sergeant seen it. It wasn't a concealed weapon. If you don't write it up right then, then you should just throw it out. But, that's okay.

In '74 I started being a computer programmer. I never knew what was going to come up. So I always waited until background was being processed to find out. Same thing happened when I had to do a background check to escort people securitywise over to Dubai and back. But I passed it after I explained everything. The same thing happened when I was at the airport. I worked in the airport from 2022, '23 and '24, you know.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So I just want to make sure that you understand my question.

My question is why you failed to disclose any of your criminal history. Not that you failed the background check, it's just that you didn't list any of your criminal history on your application.

MR. LOTT: Because I figured you were going to let me know what I have to explain. So that's the bottom line.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Here's my next question.

Did you fill out the application on your own?

MR. LOTT: Yes.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Okay. Did you see that page that said stop. You need to list all of your criminal history, arrests, detainments, everything.

MR. LOTT: I have never had -- I have never had -- been on probation, I've never had a conviction or anything.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: But have you been arrested?

MR. LOTT: I've been -- I have had handcuffs put on me at a traffic stop before. But I don't write down every date and everything. I don't know.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: The application states that you have to do that.

MR. LOTT: But I wouldn't remember all that. I'm 77 years old. So, you know.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: And that's a fair statement. However, those are the requirements of the application.

MR. LOTT: Well, I know. I'm missing some. At that time, I just said, well, I'll just wait because -- and I thought all these years, every time I listed some, some -- there wasn't listed came up and I had to come explain it. So...

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Well, the good thing is we now have -- you and we now have a list of all of your previous criminal history.

MR. LOTT: No, you don't.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Yes, we do, based off the fingerprints.

MR. COLEMAN: Oh, off what you think -- okay, okay.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Correct.

MR. LOTT: Okay.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: So in the event you get denied, you have the opportunity to come back, and now you have everything that you need to list.

MR. COLEMAN: Okie dokie. Piece of cake.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Any further questions?

The Board has no further questions, I'll entertain a motion.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denial based on no disclosure of the criminal history.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So we have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So we have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

So, sir, unfortunately, unlike your other ones, you have to list everything on your application. Even if you don't remember the dates, you can put in there, you know, I think I was arrested for X. We'll find it. But at least you have to disclose it and let us know that it's there. Otherwise, we think that you're trying to not -- you're trying to deceive us, right?

So you can come back in one year. You can work with the office. They have all of your information there, and you can -- you'll have the opportunity to apply again.

MR. LOTT: Okay. Quick question.

On the stuff that's listed there, where do I have to -- because I can't get any feedback on it.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You have the answers.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: You don't have to give us any feedback on it --

MR. LOTT: No, I can't get any feedback from the places that had an arrest. They tell me, that said we don't have anything.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We don't need it for the application. We don't need it. All we need to know is that you actually list it on the application, and now we have it from your fingerprints.

So when you come back to fill out the application in one year, work with the office. They'll give you that sheet and then you'll be able to do your application with that sheet, okay? But we don't need, like, the dispositions and the court case. We don't need any of that.

MR. LOTT: That's why I didn't do anything. That's what I --

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Now you have the answers. So when you redo your application, you have the answers now. Because when you talk to the office again, they're going to be able to give you everything that has already occurred.

MR. LOTT: Yeah, because every time it be different stuff pop up. So it's just going to be these things.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You have to stay out of trouble.

MR. LOTT: I don't get in trouble. Come on, girl. I'm a great grandfather.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: You're too young to be getting involved any more.

MR. LOTT: Tell me about it. Well, that was a good three hours.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: We'll see you next year.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you.

MR. LOTT: Am I the last one?

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: So, Agenda Item No. 100, she does live out here in Las Vegas and she's not here.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: So, just for the record, Agenda Item No. 100, Vannia Gomez. We don't have her down south. Do you guys have anybody up north?

BOARD MEMBER BEZICK: Nobody up north.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have no one up north.

We have some that we trailed. If I remember correctly, it's Agenda Item No. 76. Marlene Brown is not present.

Agenda Item No. 80, Dewayne Brown.

INVESTIGATOR SWARTHOUT: No, he was here.

INVESTIGATOR CUEVAS MANZO: He was denied.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Is that the only one that was trailed?

So Agenda Item No. 100, which was Vannia Gomez. Neither are here. It's now 4:52, so I'll entertain a motion on those items.

BOARD MEMBER CORTEZ: Board Member Cortez motioning to uphold the denials for Agenda Item 76 and Agenda Item No. 100 based on no call, no show. It is now 4:53 p.m.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion. Do we have a second?

BOARD MEMBER GRONAUER: Gronauer, second.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: We have a motion, we have a second. All in favor say aye.

(All present Board members voted aye.)

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Motion passes.

Other agenda items are Board comment. Board comment, future agenda items.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Madam Chair, for the record, Executive Director Saladino.

Agenda Item 33, Ms. Cohen. Being that she's been in court all day and we tried to communicate with her. I'm aware the Board probably has questions regarding her background. We can postpone her to the June 30th agenda. June 30th I have an agenda, so I can post her on that agenda. Since she wasn't able to -- we weren't able to connect today, if that's all right.

DAG DETMER: That's fine.

INVESTIGATOR BLACKMORE: She said that her phone was on mute. That's why she didn't answer.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SALADINO: Now we don't have the technical ability to do it. So we'll agendize her for the 30th.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Okay, sounds good.

So, if there's nothing else. There's an opportunity for public comment; however, there's no public. So I call that we adjourn the --

DAG DETMER: Chair, this was the calling of public comment and there was no public comment, correct?

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Yes.

DAG DETMER: Thank you.

MADAM CHAIR NIXON: Thank you. There's no public comment. Meeting is adjourned. Thank you.

(Proceedings concluded at 4:54 p.m.)
